SPANISH NOT VET

Internal Conditions Are Declared to Be Far From as Serious as Have Been Reported.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The Herald to-day has the following cable from Madrid, delayed in transmission since Monday:

Madrid is as quiet as a village churchyard at midnight. To a new arrival like myself, the difference between the Spanish situation as it really is and the Spanish situation as described in the foreign press is so great as to be positively bewildering.

Perfect order prevails, not only here but throughout the country, even in Barcelona. Instead of the general strike which sensational reports in English newspapers predicted for to-day in Madrid, business is going on just as usual. The shops are all open and there is as much animation and activity in the streets as possible in such tropical heat.

Dr. Carrion, called by the state minister, said to me: "There is a vast amount of sentimental pity being wasted abroad on account of those killed in Barcelona. The only persons deserving pity are the unfortunate soldiers who have been killed while trying to maintain and restore order."

"To speak of the outbreak at Barcelona as a popular rising is a rank absurdity. It is nothing less than an attempt by professional international anarchists to destroy the existing basis of social order, to destroy all that civilization has accomplished. The Catalans, as a body, did not move. Had they done so the outbreak would not have been a popular rising as it was to Barcelona and its vicinity."

"This anarchistic demonstration would never have been made had not the garrison at Barcelona been weakened by the despatch of troops to Mellilla, but it never attained such alarming proportions as to justify the use of force. It was a mere outbreak of immorality which appeared in the foreign press."

Reports of gatherings before the palace with immense crowds, yelling "Down with the war!" are pure inventions. The same must be said of the contemporary rumors of the capture of King Alfonso. Everyone speaks of him with pride, confidence and affection. His visits to the troops leaving for the war have been made occasions for outbreaks of genuine enthusiasm. He strolls about the streets of Madrid with almost disconcerting democratic freedom and is saluted everywhere with a frank cordiality and respect which is eloquent to the admiration and loyalty of his people.

THE RECHABITES IN CANADA

English Friendly Society is Contemplating an Invasion.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—At the memorial conference of the Independent Order of Rechabites, complaint was made of the neglect of directors in Canada, and by members in Canada, and support their efforts. The president said the difficulty was that when members went to Canada they rarely heard anything more of them. The directors were prepared to advance the money necessary to launch a forward movement in Canada, but the unsettled state of the law regarding friendly societies was a serious obstacle. There is a great opportunity in Canada, and he believed that if they studied their own work they would place the order ahead of any similar organization in the Dominion in a very few years.

NEW WHEAT IN

Load Delivered to Campbell Company Brings $1.05 a Bushel.

The first new wheat of the season to be consigned to a local mill was delivered yesterday to the Campbell Milling Co. of West Toronto, and was grown by A. Kee, lot 11, concession 2, Toronto Township.

"The wheat was a fine sample, bright and hard," said Mr. Campbell, Jr., "and the price is the highest we paid in 1909, which is above the market price, but we made an exception as it was the first load of the season."

In view of the fact that the season for all kinds of grain is said to be fully a week later than last year, this is said to be a remarkably fine showing, both as regards sample and date of marketing.

SOMNAMBULIST'S DEATH JUMP

Boy Falls Forty Feet From Window of His Room.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Victor Nicholson, a 15-year-old boy, plunged from a third story window to-night and fell 40 feet, crushing his skull from the effects of which he died.

Nicholson was a somnambulist, and arose from his bed while asleep. His mother heard a noise in his room and rushed in to find her son climbing out of the window. She attempted to catch him but could not.

BOX CARS NOT DREADNOUGHTS

That's the Spirit of the West, Says Mr. Murphy.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Hon. Charles Murphy returned to-day from the west. He said to-night that what appealed to him most as a sign that a great country would be made of it was the school, the most important building in every little town.

Mr. Murphy was emphatic in his belief that Port Arthur and Fort William together would, in process of time, grow to be the greatest city, not only in Canada, but in America.

He thinks highly of the United States Immigration, and sees no danger in it so far as the nationality of Canadians is concerned. Only in Winnipeg did he hear of the fourth of July being celebrated this year, whereas the 102d of July was celebrated by the Americans everywhere with far more enthusiasm than by the people of the east.

Nowhere did he hear anything of the Imperial defence question. One man had put it to him, "We want box cars and not Dreadnoughts," and this was the spirit of the west.

He found the west consistently low tariff. At the coast he could discover no interest in Japanese immigration at present.

NEW EVIDENCE TO SHOW THAW'S JUSTIFICATION

Counsel Intimates That Sensations Are Coming—Former Lawyer Comes to Prisoner's Aid.

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., Aug. 4.—The state rested the Thaw case to-day, and from now on it devolves upon Harry Thaw and his attorney, Chas. Morchauser, to offset the testimony of the state's witnesses, who have sworn without exception, under the cross-examination of District Attorney Jerome, that Thaw is still insane, and would be a menace to the community if released from the asylum at Matteawan.

Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald was the last witness called by the state, and he testified that Thaw is sane, and that it is true that White and a crowd of degenerates kept the two places described by Thaw's wife for purposes of immoral practices, would that justify Thaw in adhering to his belief?

"It isn't true," broke in Jerome, "there is no such evidence."

"I have the evidence," said Mr. Morchauser, calmly, "and I will introduce it later."

John B. Gleason, Thaw's original legal adviser, after the shooting of Stanford White, came to Thaw's aid this afternoon and cleared up a few of the points which were the subject of Thaw's apparent vagaries on which Mr. Jerome has dwelt so persistently.

Mr. Gleason's most advantageous statement, from the prisoner's standpoint, concerned the dropping of the law firm of Black, Gruber, Olcott and Bonyne, and of L. L. DeLaford, and the engagement of Delphin M. DeMaas as chief counsel for Thaw. This had been done at his (Gleason's) orders, he said, and not by Thaw.

As the trembling witness stepped out of the witness box, following a priest who was holding a crucifix before him, it was seen that, according to the law dealing with perjuries, he was barefooted and his head covered with a transparent black veiling, while a cap of crude material but half concealed his naked chest.

A PUBLIC GUILLOTINING EXCITES PARIS TO-DAY

Huge Crowds Gather to Witness First Execution in 15 Years—Beheading Occurs at Dawn

PARIS, Aug. 5.—A sudden official announcement that a public beheading would take place at 4.30 o'clock (Thursday) morning in the boulevard in front of the Sainte prison, created a sensation in Paris, which had not seen an execution in fifteen years.

Immediately immense crowds gathered at the scene, but were kept back from the guillotine by heavy details of police and municipal guards. Parisian sentiment long has been opposed to public executions, for in the past they were accompanied by scandalous scenes of revelry.

Despite this sentiment, parliament refused to abolish the death penalty in France, and in view of the revolting crime of the man executed this morning, President Lullier refused to commute his sentence to life imprisonment. The victim was one Duchemin, aged 28, a butcher. In 1908 he stabbed his mother, and this act resulting in her death, which he finished by her strangulation. The motive for the crime was robbery.

The crowds were unable to get within two blocks of the guillotine, which was erected beneath the trees beside the prison wall. There were some jeers as the closed wagon containing the condemned man left the prison yard by a side street and then drove up the boulevard 200 yards to the guillotine.

The spectators of the execution were a number of authorities and a large crowd of journalists.

As the trembling wretch stepped out of the wagon, following a priest who was holding a crucifix before him, it was seen that, according to the law dealing with perjuries, he was barefooted and his head covered with a transparent black veiling, while a cap of crude material but half concealed his naked chest.
