for many years is being conducted at Levy's Shoe Store, 260 Yonge street. McLaren and Dallas, whot-sale boot and shoe dealers, 30 Front street west, had the misfortune to have a water pipe burst in their warehouse, causing partial damage to thousands of dollars in footwear. In making a settlement with the underwriters it was agreed that the entire stock be sold by auction. A Levy saw his opportunity and "bid in" the high-grade lines at a price that enables him to give his customers the finest footwear at ridiculous prices. The sale will continue all next week until February 27th. An advertisement, quoting some of the prices, appears on page 3 of this issue of The Sunday World.

Mr. Levy desires it to be mentioned that while a great portion of the McLaren-Dallas stock was water damaged, the most part of the goods he bought were unhurt, except for the loves being wet. This is substantited by the goods themselves, which are n display in his windows and on his argain tables.

The instrument met with a popular reception, especially from the supils, who found it exceptionally inspiring music to practice to, giving, as it dees, all the effects of a complete orchestra.

Thruout the day many visitors and dancing enthusiasts interested in the instrument volced their approval with the quality of music it afforded, and predicted great popularity for it.

Saturday evening commenced an "Innovation Week" at the Mosher Institute, continuing all next week, during which special features will be introduced every evening, including cabaret, exhibition dances, solo dances and special music on the Electric Orchestra.

The R. S. Williams & Sons Company, from whom the orchestra, was purchased, expressed their opinion that the Mosher Institute had but set the pace for other dancing institutions, who would eventually install this orchestra.
