

Sallee Signs New Contract

Name of First Major League on the New Document

Giants Held in Awe—National League Managers Fear a Runaway Race—Baseball News of Interest

Slim Sallee, the elongated left-handed pitcher of the Giants, affixed his signature to a brand new, 1917 model, contract on Saturday. Sallee is the first major league to sign the new document, which was recently adopted by the National Commission. A close second to Sallee in signing was Bill Ritter, another of the Giants' pitchers.

Whereas the signing of these two Giants does not seem in itself a momentous happening, it is, nevertheless, an indication of just how the wind is blowing among the baseball players of the major leagues on the question of the threatening strike. The Cloyers Fraternity had sent out notices to the players requesting them to postpone the signing of contracts until the moment when the requests from the National Association of minor leagues was adjusted satisfactorily.

It is now expected that the other major league players will follow in the footsteps of the Giants and sign their contracts, in spite of the efforts of the fraternity to hold off until the last moment. Sallee was bought from St. Louis last season and toward the end of the year was in fine shape. He informed the New York management when he signed his contract that he was in excellent condition and would be ready to report at the training camp in Marlboro March 1.

WAS FRIGHTFULLY WORRIED

INDIGESTION, LOSS OF SLEEP, HEART PALPITATION

A Case that Proves Prompt Action is Wise When Heart is Poor.

"At night I would wake up with vague feelings of fear and numbness in my hands and other parts of the body," writes Mr. E. Q. Sweeney, of St. John. "I had grown thin and pale, and at night it was difficult to get enough warmth in my feet to get going. My digestion was poor, and appetite very uncertain. The form of nervousness that worried me most was starting at very little thing, which resulted in such violent heart action as sometimes frightened me. Finally I had to go to my doctor, who was inside office work, so I became nervous and weak and I became through the intervention of a friend I was induced to use Ferrero's. My appetite improved at once, circulation also improved and Ferrero's accomplished the removal of my blood and natural warmth seemed to come back to my limbs. At the same time Ferrero's built up my constitution. I became quite strong and resumed my occupation. In brief, I am well."

Ferrero's is the only remedy of its kind in the world—it makes you feel better at once when you are tired, feel dispirited—when you feel there is nothing in life for you, that's the time to take Ferrero's.

What a change Ferrero's makes! Your blood sings through your veins, carrying nourishment to every nook and corner of the body, you feel the exultant thrill of abundant nerve force, you learn the luxury and delight of being at your best—in perfect good health.

Just try Ferrero's and see how much better you feel! It's the one remedy in all the world that will get you back to health at once. Sold everywhere, 50¢ per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers.

Alkaline Shampoo

Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulberry coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two spoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly, simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rises out readily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulberry coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

WAS TROUBLED WITH SHORTNESS OF BREATH

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened, or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mrs. C. M. Cornier, Buctouche, N. B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors, and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. B. B. Almanacs and read of a case similar to mine."

"I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50¢ a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers. Mailed direct with receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TO INCREASE THE PLAYER LIMIT TO TWENTY-FIVE PLAYERS HAS IN NO WAY WORRIED

Manager McGraw of the Giants. With the player limit at twenty-two and the disabled list done away with, the Giants will start the season with a big advantage over the other clubs. The New York team, as it will start the season of 1917, is a settled proposition. For two seasons McGraw has been gradually getting rid of his veterans and has been plugging up the weak spots in his club with new players. He will have to do little or no experimenting this year with new players before the season opens.

Every other club in the league will have to hold their new players until the time limit, May 15, in order to strengthen their clubs. It is little wonder that many of the National League managers fear that the Giants will make a runaway race of the National League pennant season.

With McGraw's great team intact, just as it finished the record run of twenty-six victories near the close of last season, it is difficult to figure where there is a club on the entire circuit which can match the New York team. The only clubs McGraw has to fear are the Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and the Boston Braves. It does not look as if the western clubs were going to be much stronger than last season.

The Giants' manager does not propose to keep with McGraw's machine. The Giants' manager does not propose to keep with McGraw's machine. The Giants' manager does not propose to keep with McGraw's machine.

There is not a manager in the National League who does not admit that McGraw has a great team with which to start the season. They all fear that he will monopolize the honors from the start. Only one thing can hold the Giants back, and that is the failure of the pitching staff to get into shape early.

Last season some of the pitchers were slow in settling into their best form, but this fact will be kept in mind when the twelfth report for work at Marlboro is made. The Giants' manager does not propose to be caught with this handicap as he was last year and the year before. He has plenty of promising young pitchers who will be able to make the older flingers hustle to keep their jobs.

This club is a fine hitting and base-running aggregation. With ordinarily good pitching, baseball critics fail to see any club in the league that can beat it. Just look it over—Robertson, Kauff, Burns in the outfield; Holke, Herzog, Fletcher and Zimmerman in the infield, and Rariden, McCarty and Gibson behind the bat. That combination could support a pitching staff even if it was a little weak.

The Yankees' schedule of exhibition games is almost completed, and will be announced this week. According to the present plans, Manager Donovan will have excellent practice games for his players before the season opens, as all of his exhibition games will be played against major league clubs. Seven or eight games will be played with the Boston Braves, and two or more games will probably be played in the south with the Pittsburgh Pirates. On returning early in April, three games will be played against the champion Dodgers in Brooklyn.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

A Well Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair With a Simple Home Made Mixture

Miss Blanche Rose, a well known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Orifex Compound, and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at a very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of the hair, and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair."
