

LAST NIGHT'S WAR NEWS GOOD

British Navy Scores Again—Landing of Allies at Kavala Fine Piece of Strategy

Liverpool, Nov. 3.—The Daily Post publishes a report of the capture of one of Germany's latest super-submarines, 250 feet long and carrying in addition to torpedo tubes, four guns of fairly large calibre. The submarine was launched at Stettin a fortnight ago. The Post states that within a few hours after leaving her base she was caught "in one of those traps we have so skillfully laid for these craft somewhere in the German ocean."

New York, Nov. 3.—A news agency despatch from Copenhagen says: "The German ship Gedania was sunk by a British submarine in the Baltic Sea today."

London, Nov. 3.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen says: "The German steamer Suez was sunk by a British submarine yesterday off Karlskrona, in Sweden, on the Baltic. Her crew was landed in Sweden today. One of the men was wounded by a shell splinter."

London, Nov. 3.—Four allied torpedo boat destroyers yesterday bombarded the seaport of Tchesme, in Asia Minor, 40 miles south-west of Smyrna, a message from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph Company states. The Turkish forts, the customs building, the government residence, the old barracks and a large part of the Turkish quarter were destroyed.

The war vessels ceased firing after a bombardment of two hours.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The ministerial declaration made by Aristide Briand, the new premier, today, was most favorably received in both the chamber of deputies and the senate, and a vote of confidence of 515 to 1, was given the government amid great applause.

The premier's announcement that it was the government's decision to obtain guarantees of a durable peace before laying down arms also was greeted with enthusiasm.

Russians Crossing Roumania.

London, Nov. 3, 4.10 p.m.—Reports of the landing of entire troops at Kavala, in New Greece, are hailed here joyfully, as the operation is considered to be an excellent piece of offensive strategy.

Kavala not only is a great tobacco port for Turkey, but has the terminal of three important highways, by one of which the Greeks, in July of 1913, outflanked the Bulgarians and forced them to retire out of Macedonia, and virtually won the war.

The occupation of Kavala by Entente Allied troops will necessitate, it is believed here, several new and distinct defensive concentrations by the Bulgarians.

As time passes, however, Serbia's position grows more critical. The Austro-German drive from the north is proceeding slowly, but surely, while two Bulgarian armies are approaching Nish, from which place the Serbian government has moved to Mirovitza, over near the Montenegrin frontier. The Serbians, nevertheless, are fighting stern defensive battles, and from the German accounts it is apparent that their main armies are making good their retreat and leaving, as the Russians did in Galicia and Poland, very little except what cannot be moved—such as copper mines—for the invaders.

TRIBUTE TO ST. JOHN LADIES

A Sackville lady says in the Post—Mrs. George F. Matthews has just resigned from the presidency of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society, St. John, after holding office continuously for twenty-seven years. Mrs. Matthews was not self-appointed, and to be the choice of such a body for such a period is indeed an enviable record.

This body of women has for years been doing a splendid work for the intellectual and spiritual up-lift of the community. In losing from its midst a woman of Mrs. Matthews' mental endowments any community suffers a loss.

With her husband, Dr. Matthews, she will soon leave to reside in the United States.

Mrs. J. V. Ellis is a worthy successor to Mrs. Matthews. She also with her late husband has been for many years an outstanding figure in the educational life of Saint John, giving first place always to the things that are worth while.

CANADA'S WAR FINANCES

Based on the estimate that each man on active service will cost Canada on the average $1,000 per year, the finance minister says that Canada's total war expenditure for the next fiscal year, when an army of 250,000 will have been raised, will be approximately $250,000,000. Premier Asquith in the British commons yesterday estimated the average cost of the war per man under arms at from $1,250 to $1,500 each per year. Mr. Wilton's estimate therefore of $1,000 per man seems likely to be exceeded, especially in view of the fact that the cost of ammunition, ordnance, explosives, etc., is likely to be higher than ever as the demand increases.

The interest charges on the war expenditure for the current year and for the coming year will alone amount to something like $18,000,000, which will represent more than a doubling of the interest charges which Canada had to pay the national debt before the war.

The total interest charges at the end of next year will be nearly a quarter of the total normal revenue of the dominion. To this must be added an annual expenditure for pensions of approximately $10,000,000.

There is some encouragement, however, in knowing that for the first seven months of the present fiscal year there is a decided betterment as compared with the corresponding period of the last fiscal year in regard to the balance between revenues and domestic expenditure. For the last seven months the total receipts show an increase of $8,700,000, while expenditures on consolidated fund account have been reduced by approximately $9,000,000, and on capital account by approximately $3,800,000.

The total army and navy totals at the present time are 121,000 men, of whom 100,000 are in the overseas forces. This leaves about 21,000 in Canada and about 80,000 men still to raise before the authorized total of 250,000 for expeditionary service is reached.

The maritime provinces, where recruiting is now considerably brisker than it was previously, have passed the 15,000 mark for the three provinces, which are all included in the sixth military division.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT

London, Nov. 3.—George Cave, Unionist member of parliament, has been appointed solicitor-general in succession to Sir Frederick Edward Smith, who has taken the portfolio of attorney-general, vacant by the resignation of Sir Edward Carson.

The house of commons today agreed to the proposals made by Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, for an important modification in the income tax, so as to bring within the scope of the act foreign firms doing business in this country through agents.

Cabinet responsibility, the conduct of the war, and the censorship, were discussed, criticised and defended at a short sitting of the house of lords this evening. The session proved a somewhat tame affair, after the great debate in the house of commons yesterday.

TAMMANY HALL IN POWER AGAIN IN NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 3.—Tammany Hall triumphed in New York city in the election of a district attorney, for the first time in fifteen years, the sheriff of New York county and a majority of the board of aldermen. Edward Swann defeated District Attorney Perkins by a majority of 88,000, and Alfred E. Smith was elected sheriff by about 47,000 majority.
