SENDS STORY OF CALEDONIA VOYAGE

An Interesting Letter Comes From Gunner R. Parkinson to His Mother

Mrs. W. Parkinson, 147 Victoria street, her son, Ronald—Gunner R. Parkinson, No. 131, 2nd Heavy Battery,
2nd C. O. E. F.,
Army Post Office,
London, Eng. June 24, '15.

Dear Mother:—
We arrived safely this morning after a very pleasant and uneventful voyage.
We sailed past Plymouth to Devonport, which is about two miles farther up the harbor. We got about 9.30 a. m., being just nine days to the hour coming over. We went on board the Caledonia on Monday, June 14, but did not sail till Tuesday at 9 a. m. There were great crowds out to see us off. We could hardly march through the streets for them. Below is a copy of my diary:

Monday, 14th—Embarked on board S.
S. Caledonia. Made mess orderly for voyage. Wrote letter home.
Tuesday, 15th—Left Halifax 9 a. m. in great send off. Calm, steady travelling, slight fog in evening; feeling fine.
Wednesday, 16th—Fine day, little rough towards evening, saw some porpoise.
Thursday, 17th—Having good time, nice weather.
Friday, 18th—Fine day, enjoying voyage.
Saturday, 19th—Fine day. Alarm drill.
Passed steamer about noon.
Sunday, 20th—Fine day, calm. Service for the 28th; passed two steamers.
Monday, 21st—Fine day, fired on large school of porpoises with machine gun.
Alarm drill at 8.30 a. m.
Tuesday, 22nd—My birthday. Fine day, calm; passed two boats. Saw several whales.
Wednesday, 23rd—Fine day; torpedo-boat met us at 6 p. m. with orders for us to proceed at fastest possible speed.
She is going to escort us to sea.
Thursday, 24th—Slight land at 4 a. m.
Docked at 8.30 a. m.; slight fog coming in. Passed several warships, one submarine and training ship Impregnable coming in.
One of my chums and I were made mess orderlies for the voyage. We had to look after drawing the rations for each meal and getting the meals ready for the fellows. There were sixteen men at our table. I enjoyed the trip fine. We had alarm drill twice, had to run up on deck and put life belts on, just for practice, so that we would know what to do if we got torpedoed or wrecked in any other way. We have several machine guns on board and some of the officers practiced their aim shooting at porpoises.
This boat has been to the Dardanelles with troops and had a pretty close shave having several of her boats shot away.
We had about 1,800 men on board. I saw several fellows I knew, Harold Whale, young Caldwell and others. We heard today that it was reported in St.
John we were torpedoed. Is it true?
"I thought it was unnecessary to cable as you would hear as soon as we got in."
We had to get up at 6 a. m. and go to bed at 9 p. m. The fellows had to do guard and scrub out the different places and physical drill. It was lovely coming in the harbors, all the trees and fields a beautiful green, such as I have never seen since I left England. We expect to start for Smyrna in the morning. They are unloading our ammunition now and as soon as that is done we will start. The 28th and Div. Am. Column have gone already.

Love to all,
RON.

THE STATE OF THE ROADS

Noting a statement in the Standard that Messrs. Murray, Jones, Woods and Slipp inspected roads in Kings and Queens counties and found them in good shape, a citizen wants to know if they inspected the road between Welsford and Gagetown which he describes as a disgraceful condition.

COMRADES TELL
HOW RUDOLF MCKIEI DIED

Letter To Sister, Who is Nursing in France

BULLET IN FOREHEAD

"Fell Doing Duty in Same Quiet Manner in Which He Had Performed it so Many Days in Many Weeks" — A Soldier's Tribute

The following is a copy of a letter sent by Private George R. McCord of the Princess Patricia's to Miss McKel-of Fairville, sister of Rudolf McKel who was killed in the war. Miss McKel is a nurse at the front and she sent the copy of the letter home. It is as follows:—
In the Field
80th May, 1915

Dear Miss McKel:— Your letter of inquiry regarding the death of your brother has been handled for reply.
You may rely upon the following particulars as accurate. Rudolf was mortally wounded behind the parapet of one of our trenches by a rifle bullet in the forehead. The casualty occurred at about four o'clock in the morning of April 16th while we were occupying trenches near Polygon Wood, beyond Ypres.
As he fell he exclaimed: "Well, I am not a dead man yet." These were his last words and they were uttered in a quiet manner which invariably marked his speech. After speaking them he immediately became unconscious and remained so until he passed away some four hours later at a field dressing station which the stretcher-bearers had promptly removed him. We are assured that those hours during which life lingered were wholly painless. His body was interred in a spot in that locality set aside by this regiment for our dead. He was laid to his own grave beside other fallen comrades. His burial place is identified by a cross properly set up and bearing the inscription of his name and regimental number.
A young man from St. John, P.E.I., Enoch McCollum, a very fine boy, was in the same trench with Rudolf and he gave me these particulars about his death and burial, and they are reliable men. The foregoing comprise all the facts I can establish. While they may seem to be meagre, yet you may accept them without any reservation. Your brother's last hours were wholly painless. I am sure I wish that there might have been some message to repeat to his loved ones but there will be to you consolation in the thought that the wound which befell him spared him from conscious suffering.
Rudolf had become well known to all the men in the trenches and was inquainted. We were both from the 12th Battalion and when we joined this regiment we were both posted to the same company.
Only the day before his death I had read in a Sackville paper about your own enlistment in the nursing force. We boys in New Brunswick have been deeply gratified to read of the honors so justly and freely paid to poor Rudolf's memory in his home old St. John in New Brunswick so far away, and so dear to us all.
Rudolf was a man of fine physique and very solidly in bearing. He was the best of soldiers and an equally good comrade. As a soldier he accepted all his tasks without complaint. As a comrade he was a man of most agreeable disposition and pleasing manner. He endured all the hardships and we have undergone many, without flinching. The end came to him without premonition or warning. He fell doing his duty in the same quiet manner in which he had performed it so many days in many weeks.
His last words were eminently characteristic of the calm courage with which he was inducted to "an not a dead man yet." What more need be said—"Sincerely yours, 28297 Pte. George R. McCord, Princess Patricia's, Canadian Light Mfg.

HONOR CONFERRED ON MRS. A. W. ADAMS

Elected to Executive of National Chapter, Daughters of Empire—Money Voted by DeMonto Chapter

At a meeting of the DeMonto Chapter I. O. D. E. held on Wednesday morning much important business was transacted. The sum of $185 was voted to various objects, both patriotic and philanthropic, $80 being given to the regimental fund of the 28th Battalion, $80 to the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, $25 to the Serbian cause, and in response to an appeal from the National Chapter $10 to be used in the village of Montigny sur Loring, near Marie, in France, whose resources were sadly diminished owing to the assistance it had given to the Belgian refugees and its wounded soldiers.
A pleasing feature of the meeting was the announcement of the honor which had been conferred upon the regent, Mrs.
Arthur W. Adams, in being elected a member of the executive of the National Chapter, which is the head chapter of the order.

RECRUITING SLOW IN NOVA SCOTIA

Recruiting is slow in Nova Scotia as well as New Brunswick and an appeal is made for more men. Approximately 500 men are needed to complete the strength of the 40th Nova Scotia Battalion. The battalion, much under strength, was sent forward to Valenciennes several weeks ago, and since then a recruiting base has been at Aldershot, in charge of Captain Dwyer. At Halifax Colonel Flower is receiving recruits.

NURSES SAFELY ACROSS

Mrs. Rupert Black of Amherst, has received word from her daughter, Miss Eleanor Black, announcing her safe arrival in England. Miss Black sailed on June 26 on the Noordharn from New York with the Harvard contingent of medical men and nurses going on active service at the front.

July 8, 1915

We've built up our unequalled business by proving things to men who were inclined to doubt, and we'll take especial delight in convincing anyone that what we say is exactly so.

And it's easy to see why we give more for the money than any other stores if the conditions under which we do business are only considered.

You buy directly from the makers and the middleman's profit is eliminated from our prices. Consequently you must pay less here than at other stores, where the middleman's profit must be included in their prices.

And in addition to this unquestionable saving in price—a saving of a fourth to a third —we give you other advantages: we provide the largest variety of styles, fabrics, patterns and colors that are to be found anywhere.

We also give you the utmost style and service possible.

DAVENPORT BEDS WERE NEVER SO POPULAR AS AT THE PRESENT TIME.

We have the largest variety that we have ever shown, at prices ranging from $15.75 to $61.00, and upholstered in denim, velour, velonia, crushed plush and tapestry. We also have in stock several of the very latest patterns of Divanette, which is the same as the Davenport when in use, but takes much less wall space when closed.

One of these is not a luxury, but an economy, for it is equal to an extra bedroom in the house without adding to the rent. And you get twenty-four-hours-a-day service from it; a handsome couch by day and a comfortable bed at night.
