

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N.B., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1924

PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO FRANK CARVELL

Many of Country's Leaders
Attend Funeral—Eulogy
Delivered.

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 12.—On the banks of the Meduxnekeag, from the modest cottage which he loved so well, all that was mortal of Hon. Frank B. Carvell, late chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada, was taken to his last resting place this afternoon, amid the tears and heaving sobs of relatives, political friends and opponents. The deep respect in which he was held and general sorrow at his passing were evidenced by the immense concourse of people that assembled to pay the last tribute to this highly esteemed citizen and distinguished statesman.

The funeral procession was the longest seen here in many years. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. R. G. Fulton, of St. John, president of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Methodist Conference; Rev. J. T. Cavers, pastor of the Woodstock Methodist church, and Rev. H. F. Rigby, of St. Luke's Anglican church.

Mr. Fulton, in a brief address, spoke feelingly of his departed friend and many were moved to tears. He said in part: "It is not my intention to speak of Mr. Carvell as a public man. The newspapers and records of the country will give full tribute to the great qualities of statesmanship and outstanding ability he possessed. I want briefly to speak of Mr. Carvell as a friend. To those who knew him, who were permitted to enter into that inner circle, he was a friend of the clearest type. We have many acquaintances but not always many friends. There is a vast difference. My friendship with Mr. Carvell goes back over a period of more than 20 years. I have known him under all the varied conditions of that history-making time when he was always the politician, the campaigner. But it was a delight to enter into his home life, where all the noise and storm of political strife were excluded and there discovered the richness of his mind, his intimate knowledge of current events and his great fund of general information.

Mr. Carvell was an idealist of the highest order. It was this same failed to understand. I know that what was the evidence of unrelenting pursuit of a political enemy was rather his intolerance of the unworthy. It was this, in the first flush of his public life, which attracted him to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He saw in the great Liberal leader the fine qualities he so deeply venerated. Admiration begot association, and then began that friendship which never ceased even in the testing days of Union Government and conscription. I remember how deeply he showed his feeling when telling me of the break when the question of conscription led him to leave his party and become a member of a Government under the leadership of Sir Robert B. Borden. But it was his ideal, his consistency to the ideal, which forced him to make that break. He must be true to conviction no matter what the cost, and to him the cost of that break was beyond expression.

No pen nor address can today do justice to our departed friend. It will need the pages of the historian to show the man's true worth. We mourn the passing of a great intellect, a master of detail, an untiring worker. But for those who knew him best and understood his fine qualities of heart and soul, our friend, worthy and true, tested and tried, has gone home."

J. M. Dalrymple, traffic vice-president Canadian National Railways, was represented by G. T. Bell, executive assistant. Gerard Ruel, K. C., legal vice-president and general counsel represented by C. J. Milligan, regional counsel, Moncton. The Atlantic line was represented by R. W. Simpson, assistant general manager, and A. T. Weldon, traffic manager.

Look! Mother

KIDDIES can't help getting dirty. Curious little hands touch anything—germ-laden though it may be. Chubby hands and knees are always being scratched, bruised and infected.

Lifebuoy Protects

Yet, no matter how dirty the kiddies get, mothers know the danger in past when rosy bodies are washed with the creamy health-guarding lather of Lifebuoy Soap. Lifebuoy contains an antiseptic health-ingredient which cleanses every pore, removing all impurities and leaving the skin sweet, refreshed and purified.

The wholesome odor vanishes in a few seconds, but the protection of Lifebuoy remains.

Helping The College
Girl Pack Her
Trunk

Studytime is nearing again and there's a weighty problem to be solved before that time. What does a girl need to take away with her when she goes to this school or that school? We have pondered the subject and can inform you correctly; more than that, we can supply her with most fascinating clothes.

Here are mentioned but a few of the college girl's real needs.

Frocks for Classroom
And Social Events

She'll need at least two new class room frocks—one perhaps in the new Black Alpaca trimmed with crystal buttons and bands of colored stripes—and the other it may be in one of the pretty, light weight wool crepes. For semi-formal occasions she'll no doubt look her best in a pleated Georgette frock (we have a real beauty in a rich French blue) and for formal events she may choose from a variety of lovely light and bright colored silks, georgettes, etc.

Hosiery, Hats, Gloves, Important Accessories

And they may all be chosen from comprehensive assortments here. There are Sheer Silk Stockings to match any favored frocks; also warmer variety for sports and outdoor wear. Gloves in kid, suede, silk and fabric are finished with decorative rows of stitching. Jaunty Felt Hats are in bright, novel sport shades, modest greys and fawns or pure white. Shapes and colors are varied enough to please the most particular.

And We Might Mention

Dainty Dimity Overblouses; Lovely Tubable Lingerie; A Pretty Colored Umbrella; A New Underarm Purse; A Roomy Wardrobe Trunk; Crisp, New Neckwear; A Warm Fur Neck Piece; A New Supply of Handkerchiefs; Lingerie Ribbons; Cash's Woven Names (for marking clothing, etc.), and a glance through our stocks will bring to your mind other items of actual importance to the college girl's fall and winter comfort.

TWO ACCIDENTS AT GAGETOWN

Gagetown, Aug. 12.—George Mahoney met with a painful accident a few days ago, when he cut his leg quite severely with an axe, while making props for apple trees. The cut penetrated to the bone and five stitches were necessary to close the wound. His brother, Leo, the week before, was equally unfortunate, and has been laid up as the result of getting into his eyes. While working at a new house, being put up here by Fred W. Cameron. The lime caused severe inflammation of the face, but fortunately he is now recovering.

DEATHS

Mrs. Amy Nase Lingley.

Many friends in the city and elsewhere will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Amy Nase Lingley, formerly of Westfield, N. B., which occurred at her home in West Medford, Mass., yesterday morning, after a few weeks' illness. She is survived by one son, Robert B. of West Medford, and one brother, F. W. C. Nase, of Nerepis, N. B. The body will be brought to Mount Hope cemetery, Nerepis, for burial. The funeral will be held on arrival of Boston train on Thursday.

Hiero Lutes.

The death of Hero Lutes occurred on Friday, Aug. 8, being caused by heart failure following an operation. Mr. Lutes was 37 years of age and was survived by his wife, formerly Miss Edna Stevens, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Stevens of Prospect street, Fairville, who before her marriage was a teacher in the Winter street school. There also survive three children, Frank, Marion and Kathleen, his mother, Mrs. Clara Lutes, three brothers, Wilfrid in Western Canada, Fred, of Lutes Mountain, and Frank, of Moncton, and five sisters, Mrs. Robinson, of North Reading, Mass.; Mrs. Ernest Trites, of Carleton Place, Mrs. Guy Sommers, of Moncton, and Mrs. George McPherson and Mrs. Amos Rogers, of Lutes Mountain. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence. Interment was at the cemetery at Steeves Mountain. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dimock, pastor of the Baptist church at Berry's Mills. A large quartette and choir of the church sang appropriate hymns. Many beautiful floral tributes were received.

ST. GEORGE CHILD IS DROWNED IN BUCKET OF WATER

St. George, Aug. 12.—Laura Julia Wright, aged ten months and six days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wright, was drowned in about five inches of water in the bottom of a pail at the Wright home here this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

At the time of the accident Mrs. Wright was working at the rear of the house. She had left the baby with some older children. Unnoticed, the child crept into the kitchen where there was a pail with a little water in the bottom. It is supposed that, in trying to reach the water with her hands, the little girl slipped into the pail, as she was found standing on her head in the water about five minutes after she was supposed to have entered the house. Dr. H. I. Taylor was called but found that life was extinct.

This is the second tragedy in this family, Thomas, aged nine years, the eldest son, having been killed about three years ago in a sliding accident. The little girl is survived by her parents, four brothers and three sons. The body will be taken to Pennfield, Charlotte county, on Thursday for burial there. The family is receiving the deepest sympathy of the community in its affliction.

EMIGRATION FRAUD NIPPED.

Italian Police Say Promoters Collected 2,000,000 Lire from Victims.

Naples, Italy, Aug. 13.—An interesting fraud based on clandestine emigration to North and South America countries has just been discovered by the police.

Guglielmo Jacchio and Ferdinando Spallone organized what they called an artistic tour to North and South America, mapping out a programme with a list of artists, including a Roman boxing champion and several dancers, and succeeded in rounding out the "company" with many would-be emigrants, who paid large sums of money for what they supposed would be an opportunity to enter the countries across the sea.

In all, according to the police, 2,000,000 lire was collected from the would-be emigrants, most of whom are from the Province of Avellino. They said all they possessed in order to provide the money demanded for their inclusion in the "company."
