

MONTREAL BOOSTS, BOSTON CUTS PRICE

Milk Highest Since War in Canadian Metropolis—9
Cents in Boston.

Montreal, Dec. 1.—The price of milk has been increased to 14 cents, the highest since the war. In summer it was 12 cents and for the last two months 13 cents. The reason given for the increase is that farmers have demanded more money.

Cut in Boston.

Boston, Dec. 1.—The New England Milk Producers' Association has announced a reduction of one-half cent a quart on the price of milk to Boston dealers, effective today. This leaves the price at nine cents a quart delivered at Boston, which is about seven and one-quarter at the farm on the average, the farmer paying transportation costs which vary with the distance from the city. The retail price in Boston has been 14½ cents.

DEATHS

William F. J. Lunn.

The death of William F. J. Lunn, of 107 Rothery street, occurred yesterday afternoon at his residence, when he burst a blood vessel and passed away suddenly. Mr. Lunn had been in poor health for some time, but his death was a great shock to his family and friends. Mrs. Lunn died three years ago. Mr. Lunn leaves to mourn two sons, Fred Lunn, of this city, at 310 City road; Harry Lunn, and three daughters, Misses Sadie, Pearl and Ada, at home. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. James Matthews, of Point Wolfe, N. B., and Mrs. Ingles McLean, of Margaretsville, N. S. The funeral will be held from his late residence on Monday at 2:30 o'clock, the service to be conducted by Rev. A. L. Tedford.

DIES SUDDENLY

Danny Masciovecchio, Charlotte Street Fruit Dealer, Passes Away.

"Danny" Masciovecchio, Italian proprietor of a fruit and confectionery store at 87 Charlotte street, dropped dead about 8 o'clock last evening at his boarding house, 41 City Road, while he was waiting for his landlady, Mrs. M. Torrey, to prepare some powders given him by his physician, Dr. E. J. Broderick.

According to one of the unfortunate man's friends, last evening, "Danny," as he was known and liked by many citizens, had not been feeling his usual good self lately. He complained of a general run-down condition, but was loath to leave his business even for a day. Yesterday afternoon he continued to work around his store despite his high temperature. He visited Dr. Broderick late yesterday afternoon and after being given a prescription he returned to his store and from there went to a drug store where the prescription was filled. He then went home. While waiting for his landlady to fix the powders he dropped dead.

So far as known he leaves to mourn a mother and sister, now in Italy. He had often been heard saying that he wanted to bring his mother and sister to Canada. The matter of settling his estate is in the hands of his solicitor.

THOMAS S. PETERS, OF GAGETOWN, DEAD

Gagetown, Nov. 30.—The death of Thomas Sherman Peters, of Gagetown, makes one more breach in the long line of Loyalists whom the late Mr. Peters ably represented. His death occurred today after an illness of some duration. He was prominent in many activities in his community throughout his life time of 74 years. Latterly Mr. Peters adhered to one official position, which was that of magistrate, and carried out his duties with satisfaction to the County of Queens, in which he administered his office. He was the owner of a large estate, and was noted for his knowledge of agricultural matters, in which he excelled. The late Mr. Peters had a large family all of whom have become of note in their community, or wherever they have gone into the larger centres. The only son, Dr. Oliver R. Peters, is a resident of Rothery. Mrs. Edward Du Vernet, a daughter, of Digby, N. S., is the wife of Dr. Du Vernet, who is well known as a physician. Mrs. J. H. A. Holmes, wife of the rector of St. Jude's, Mrs. Percy H. Barnett, of Vancouver, B. C.; Miss Louise M. Peters and Miss Pearl Peters, both at home in Gagetown. Miss Mary G. Peters is well known as the missionary who left in August for Honan, China, where she is stationed in St. Paul's Hospital, Kweihai, Honan. There will be special sympathy extended to her, because of her great distance from home and the probable delay in hearing of the sorrow that has come to her family in the death of her father.

Mr. Peters also leaves one sister, Miss Margaret L. Peters, of Gagetown, P. E. I., which was his birthplace. His father was master of the rolls, or judge in Chancery in Charlottetown, and the family have been outstanding as Loyalists since the earliest days of settlement in the Maritime Provinces. His maternal grandfather was the late Sir Samuel Cunard, founder of the Cunard Line. Mrs. Peters, who died four years ago, was Miss Mary Armstrong, a sister of Rev. W. R. Armstrong of this city.

The funeral will take place from St. John's church, Gagetown, and interment will be in the family lot. Rev. James Bennett will officiate at the service, which will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

DISPUTES CLAIM OF COMMISSION ABOUT SOBRIETY

Temperance Federation Official Replies to Quebec Liquor Board

Montreal, Nov. 28.—Decrease of arrests for drunkenness in Quebec province are due not to decrease of drunkenness but to the declining efficiency of the police, in the opinion of Dr. E. I. Hart, general secretary of the Dominion Temperance Federation, in a criticism of the statement issued last week by the Quebec Liquor Commission in which they claimed to show by statistics that Quebec, under its liquor system, was the most temperate province or state on the continent.

"I can understand," said Dr. Hart, "why men like the dignified and scholarly Premier of Quebec and other men of the feeling and taste in the Cabinet, do not like to hear the Government spoken of as a 'barren' and the quiet, old conservative province of which they are so proud denominated the 'barren' of the continent."

Dealing with the claim of decreased drunkenness, Dr. Hart contends that there are several times as many places where liquor can be purchased in Montreal than there were in 1919. Never in the history of the province did the liquor traffic do such a large business, never were the sales so great, amounting to over $30,000,000 the first year of Government control. This is one contention he put forward against the claim of decreased intoxication. The second one is that in 1919 there were only 400 places where liquor could be legitimately procured in the province.

Where Liquor Can Be Bought.

Dr. Hart explained that the 1919 figures he quoted were as furnished him and he added—"There are 82 Government stores operating in the province. There are 1,006 licensed places, such as taverns, grocery stores, hotels, restaurants, clubs and breweries, in all 1,988 places where liquor can be purchased according to law, nearly 1,600 more than in 1919, or an increase of 400 per cent."

"The figures for Montreal, are as follows: 35 Government stores, 248 taverns, 588 grocers, 57 restaurants, 28 clubs, 56 hotels, three breweries and six steamboat licenses, a total of 976 places in Montreal or nine times as many and a little more than there were in 1919."

"The facilities for procuring liquor have greatly multiplied. Can you accept the Commission's statement that intoxication or drunkenness has decreased? It does not stand to reason. Increased consumption means increased drunkenness. There never was as much drinking in Montreal and in other 'wet' parts of Quebec today and there never was as much intoxication."

In September, last, Dr. Hart said, he with a friend, visited 15 taverns. It was a wet and disagreeable night, most unfavorable to their purpose, yet in some of the places entered, 70, 80, 90 and even 100 men were seated at tables drinking. The taverns in which most of the drinking was done he said were along St. Catherine and Ontario streets, east of St. Lawrence boulevard.

Says Ontario Stricter.

Dr. Hart went on to say that under Government control young men were being tempted as never before in the old regime, that in addition to the places of temptation under Government control, there was added temptation in the home, in the dance, and social gatherings.

As to the comparison in favor of Quebec as compared with Ontario and of Montreal as compared with Toronto, Dr. Hart believes that the reason for the favorable figures for Quebec province and the city of Montreal is the better law enforcement in Ontario. Officers of the Ontario Temperance Act arrested men when drunk, but in Quebec men had to be violently or helplessly drunk before they were noticed by the police, let alone arrested, he said. If the Toronto police enforced the law in the manner of the Montreal police, the arrests in Toronto in 1922 would be only 70, was Dr. Hart's contention.

He cited several instances that he had been told of or had seen personally, to support this contention and his conclusion was that the police were told not to make too many arrests for drunkenness.

Disputes Crime Figures.

Nor does Dr. Hart agree with the figures of the commission as regards crime in the different provinces of the Dominion. As to the comparison of intoxication between Montreal and different American cities, used by the Liquor Commission, Dr. Hart sought to explain this also by a difference in the standards of law enforcement between Montreal and these cities. According to the American Prison Association, the greatest authority on the subject in the United States, he said, crime there was decreasing.

"We cannot expect any better condition of affairs in Montreal or in the province—in fact we must be prepared to expect worse as long as we continue as a people, through our Government, to carry on the accused liquor business," he concluded.

"Government control wherever it has been tried has been a pronounced failure. They will tell you that in South Carolina where they had it for 23 years. Within eight years of its inauguration crime had increased 350 per cent, while the population increased only 17 per cent. The liquor bill increased 41 per cent and illicit stills reached undreamed-of proportions. In British Columbia, Government control is a failure, and now members of the Government are talking of a return to prohibition. It is said that in that province there has been an increase of 5,000 per cent in the amount of liquor sold, 70 per cent in the cost of police, 87 per cent in the cost of administering justice and 300 per cent increase in prison population, while the whole province is suffering a period of severe depression. The curse of God is on the liquor traffic and we are only playing with fire when we try to regulate and control it. There is only one way of dealing with it—prohibit it."

Montreal, Que., Nov. 27.—Rev. Dr. Hart is general secretary of the Dominion Temperance Federation, and secretary of the Quebec Provincial Temperance Federation. He is connected with the Dominion Alliance, which, it is expected, will, at its annual meeting next spring, decide to throw in its lot with the Dominion Temperance Federation.
