'WHAT YOUR HUSBAND NEEDS'

"One night my husband came home looking so ill and worn out that I thought he would faint. I knew there had been something wrong with him for some time, but I could not get him to tell me what it was. Finally he confessed he was tired and sore all over. I made him go to bed. Next morning he insisted upon going to work although he was anything but well. I knew that his trouble was partly due to worry because for some months before he had been so heavily in debt that the grocer and butcher refused to give us credit. It was being out of work that worried my husband. He wouldn't eat because he was afraid there would not be enough to eat when he returned. We were so poor that we had to keep the children from school because they had no clothes to wear. I could only get my husband strong and well again everything would be all right. He is a carpenter and tradesman when in good health earns good wages and he is always sober and industrious. But I knew that it was impossible for any man to do good work when he was ill and worried. I decided to speak to our old family doctor, who had retired from practice. When I explained how we were situated he gladly offered to do all he could to help us, although he didn't like to interfere with the new doctor's practice. Finally he said, 'What your husband needs is a good tonic and I know of nothing better than Carnol.' I thought that if our old family doctor recommends Carnol it must be all right. On my way home I got a bottle and before the first bottle had been used, my husband was a changed man. After he had taken four bottles his appetite returned, he had more energy, that tired look in his eyes disappeared and he is now important his wages have been more than doubled and he is now independent of the wood working shop in which he formerly worked as a carpenter. Thanks to Carnol our troubles are over and we are once more a happy and contented family."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously get it in good condition, stimulates the sluggish liver, strengthens kidneys and soothes tired nerves. Dreco, the great herbal system tonic, tones up and strengthens the nervous system, invigorates the entire body, restores energy and vitality of the digestive organs, puts the stomach in good condition, stimulates the sluggish liver, strengthens kidneys and soothes tired nerves.

GASSED OVERSEAS SHELL SHOCKED and RHEUMATISM

Mr. F. M. Blaquiere, Merriville, Alta., writes:—"After three years' service overseas I returned to Canada almost a complete wreck. I had been gassed, and was suffering from shell shock and rheumatism, and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. I tried many medicines and doctors, but none of them did me any good for any length of time. I got so bad, in the Fall of 1919, my hands were so shaky I could scarcely hold anything, and it seemed as if I had a steel band pressing on my head. The least excitement would almost drive me into fits, and my whole system seemed to be in disorder. One day I decided to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I had taken six boxes I began to feel better. I kept on using them and after a while I was completely relieved."

KNOW SENDER OF POISONED CAKE

Authorities of Pennsylvania Think Jealousy Inspired Deed That Killed Sterrett. Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—The authorities believe they know who sent the poisoned cake that caused the death of Walter W. Sterrett of Devon and the serious illness of his wife. That statement was made by an official closely connected with the investigation of the mystery. The identity of the suspect was not revealed, but it is believed, was the motive for sending the poisoned cake—"devil's food"—which Mrs. Sterrett received in a small box, tied with a red ribbon and bearing a typewritten label, at the Devon post office last Thursday afternoon.

GIGANTIC OYSTER SHELLS

Some Declared to be 400,000 Years Old Found in Texas. Giant fossil oyster shells, said by scientists to be more than 400,000 years old, and some of them measuring more than three feet in length, have been discovered in a clay bank in Starr County, Texas, near a petrified forest. The fossils were found in a clay and shell bank about 1,000 feet above sea level. Some of the specimens have been sent to the Smithsonian Institution and others to the Public Health Service. Scientists declare that huge reptiles swam in the waters which covered the lower Rio Grande Valley in the paleozoic age, and that the large oysters lodged in the gravel banks along the seashore in what is now Starr and Zapata counties. Near the fossil bank are hundreds of petrified trees, some of them four feet in diameter. In this forest is a variety of oak now extinct in this part of the country.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble. Too much meat may form uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Big meat eaters can flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like they relieve the bowels, removing all the acids, waste and poison, else they may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad they have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night. To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's uric waste get about four ounces of Jod Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jod Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent various kidney and bladder disorders.

Severe Kidney Trouble

Mrs. F. Rinehart, Campbellville, Ont., writes: "I had trouble with my kidneys and very frequent urination. This was followed by pains which at times were very severe. The doctor said I had inflammation of the bladder and that an operation might be necessary. To this I refused, and began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. From the first few doses I felt the benefit. The pains left, urination was corrected, and I have had no recurrence of these ailments."

King Edward is said to have been a close friend of the priest, whom he often congratulated on his sermons. Indeed, it was said to have been on the occasion of King Edward that Father Vaughan instituted libel action against a London publication, The Rock, which had attacked him. He refused an offer to compromise the suit when the publishers were unwilling to make their apology apply to the Jesuit Order, which Father Vaughan held in reality the object of his attack. While in New York in 1912 he gave a series of sermons against Socialism. In the war his efforts resulted in his brother Jesuits in Germany. It was his contention that the Germans were not playing the game in fighting the world war.

ASTORS LOSE IN WILL CASE

Y., Nov. 2.—Vineval Mr. Armstrong, who Jacob Astor and the Chanler family of Dutchess County lost in a decision handed down by Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Smith of the estate of the late James S. Armstrong of Red Hook to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The value of the estate is estimated at between $100,000 and $150,000. Mr. Armstrong, a relative of the Astors, left a life interest in his estate to Catharine Moul, his housekeeper, and after her death the residue was to go to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Miss Moul died less than a year ago, and then it was discovered that there was no society such as named in the will. Attorney Gleason decided that the American Society was

LABOR SECRETARY VISITING STEEL MILLS, "DOES A TRICK."

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, who started in as a boy in the steel mill of Pennsylvania, producing as a puddler and later as a rolling mill man, donned overalls again here today to take his place as a heater at the rolls in the plant of the Youngstown Rolling Mills. Secretary Davis was visiting the plant as the guest of Superintendent James R. English, with whom he worked as a boy. "Jim, I was just wondering if you could do a trick in a steel plant now," said English. "Jim, of course I can," replied the secretary, and he "did the trick." The little knot of workers around the rolls cheered. "Do you know, I would rather work in a rolling mill than do anything else in the world," the secretary of labor said as he left the mill.

LABOR SECRETARY VISITING STEEL MILLS, "DOES A TRICK."

For some time a circular has been enclosed with each bottle of our medicine bearing this question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" Replies, to date, have been received from over 50,000 women answering that question. 98 per cent of which say YES. That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. This is a most remarkable record of efficiency. We doubt if any other medicine in the world equals it. Think of it—only two women out of 100 received no benefit—98 successes out of a possible 100. Did you ever hear of anything like it? We must admit that we, ourselves, are astonished.

REMARKABLE RESULTS SHOWN BY A NATION WIDE CANVASS OF WOMEN PURCHASERS OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. 50,000 WOMEN ANSWER

Of course we know that our medicine does benefit the large majority of women who take it. But that only two out of 100 received no benefit is most astonishing. It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain ailments—not a cure-all—one that is made by the most scientific process; not from drugs, but from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does do more good than hastily prepared prescriptions. You see, we have been making, improving and refining this medicine for over 50 years until it is so perfect and so well adapted to women's needs that it actually has the virtue to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who take it. Its reliability and recognized efficiency has gained for it a sale in almost every country in the world—leading all others. Such evidence should induce every woman suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see if she can't be one of the 98
