GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

COMEDY AND NOVELTY OUTSTANDING FEATURES IN FINE OPERA HOUSE BILL

Comedy and novelty are the pre-dominating features of the Opera House vaudeville programme for this week. Northland, Riano and Riano, in The Modiste Shop a-la-casque, offer one of the prettiest stage settings seen here for a long time and their specialty is a bright little play, a miniature musical comedy with some good eccentric dancing, singing and snappy dialogue. Hazel Moran, the breezy western girl, handles lassos and lariats in a dextrous way that wins her applause at every performance. If you are fond of good Irish stories and songs, Kate Fitzgibbons will entertain you for she has a lot of them, all new and original. The Three Farnetrees are well trained singers and Barrett and White have a crisp comedy skit that is full of good laughs. The picture programme in conjunction with the vaudeville, offers the latest Universal Weekly of world's happenings and a good comedy picture. Evenings at 7.30 and 9, afternoons at 2.30.

NEW ACT AT GEM; ALL GOOD PROGRAMME

The Gem's delayed act, Cooper and Lacey, man and woman, was presented last night and a hit was scored in a bright specialty of music and chatter and dancing. E. T. Alexander, continued to please in his painting act and the three-act picture bill was again enjoyed. Last three tonight at 7.15 and 8.45.

stirring peace than among the Central Powers. He did not explain why Bulgaria had signed an armistice or why peace offers came first from Austria and then Germany. The minister declared that the Allies must prevent the enemy from thereby escaping the consequences of his acts.

The Journal Italia says: "Austria seeks to cheat Italian national aspirations by simply returning to the status quo, which means a permanent irreconcilable conflict between Italy and Austria so long as the latter keeps under her rule territories inhabited by Italians."

German Views.
Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—Commenting upon the address by Prince Maximilian, the Tagblatt of Berlin says: "All Germany, or at any rate that great, honest and good Germany which is imperishable, feels that Prince Maximilian, in accordance with his duty and as a servant of his people, has done what is right and necessary. Why haven't we learned earlier to know ourselves?"

A sample of pan-Germanism may be found in an editorial printed on Sunday by the Lokal Anzeiger, defendant in the trial of the German people who to the last drop of blood fight for peace.

The newspaper somewhat preposterously admonishes President Wilson to realize the "super-man responsibility placed upon his shoulders," and in magnificent tones hopes "the will prove himself worthy of this terribly responsible hour."

Rome, Oct. 8.—Samuel Gompers, who is here with a delegation of American labor leaders, strongly denounces the recent peace move, saying that the new German maneuver seeks to weaken the unity of the democratic nations and lead them to their fighting spirit. He says: "The Austro-German and Turkish military system should be beaten. The security of labor and the people requires that the Central Powers shall capitulate and their military menace be broken."
