Should Be Kept Out of Ring, If True

From T. S. Andrews. Milwaukee, Nov. 4.—The action of fighting. Such tricks are most cowardly and no game boxer would ever tolerate anything of that kind, no matter who his opponent might be.

The recent controversy between Freddy Welch, British light weight champion, and Milburn Saylor of Indianapolis, as to whether Welch was really fouled by Saylor or not, will be settled in all probability in the next few days.

California, but as soon as he hears except terms and come east. Willard lost a close decision in twenty rounds to Gumbel in Paris several months ago, but eye witnesses declared that the verdict should have been a draw, as the men seemed to be very evenly matched.

As a temporary arrangement, Monckton may have a tent rink this winter. This is something new in Canada. The Ottawa Hockey Club may bonus those of their players at the end of the season who have demonstrated their right to extra money. This is a new idea the executive may be asked to consider.

Regina has not sufficient material for two teams, the Capitals and the Reginas, but they do not seem to be very eager to amalgamate. If they did it is said they could make a good showing in the provincial league, but if both teams entered separately it is not likely that they would make much of a showing.

Winnipeg, the Allan Cup holders, have nearly all their old players, but new ones from whom to choose a septette.

Pittsburg, Nov. 5.—Honus Wagner, the greatest shortstop the game ever had, is believed that he had played his last game of professional baseball. Wagner has retired before this time.

In a motor boat race a barrel of gasoline for the boat of T. J. Layton, in Digby, yesterday, T. J. Layton's boat came first, Charles Webber, second, and Willie Stevens, Freepost, third.

Several music halls are giving performances which ten years ago would have brought police action. One protest by the clergy against Gaby Desly's performance at the Palace was bowled down. Desly's performance, however, mild to some, in one prominent hall the dance du centre is openly given nightly in a most objectionable form.

LITTLE PRINCE JOHN IS A ROYAL "CUT UP" house was sleeping, he climbed carefully out of his bed in his little pajamas, crept past nurses and clanged the great bell.

Oh, such a commotion as it caused. Of course, they finally discovered that Prince John was missing. He had hidden to watch the fun, unobserved. And when they saw that he was gone they guessed the offender.

Recently the Princess Henry, George and John were spending a vacation at one of the royal farms.

When their father was not looking they invaded the paddock where a great jersey bull was grazing.

The sight of the boys disturbed the animal, which made a bee line for them. Fortunately there was a hay-rick with a ladder leading to it nearby.

Later farm hands rescued them. And that's the way it goes with the royal little cut up.

THREE MAJOR LEAGUES TO BE MANAGERS

These former major league stars who have been in and out of the big swim more than one occasion are to manage minor league clubs next season.

Lord has been released by the Boston Nationals to the Mobile Club of the Southern League. The same club has given Devin his ticket of leave, so that he can be the leader of the Oakland, Cal., team in the Pacific Coast League.

Strangely enough, Connie Mack has never yet turned out a successful team. Harry Davis tried it, only to meet with unexpected and insurmountable obstacles at Cleveland.

Devil after graduating from Georgetown, played for several seasons with the New York Giants. He drifted back to the minors, and then bobbed up again with the Boston Nationals this year.

McCormick, early in his career, was a member of the Phillies. Then he quit the Phillies to become associated with Andrew Carnegie as a part of the United States Steel Corporation.
