A telegram last night read:—
"This morning about half past ten K. Besanson, a well known jeweller here, informed Chief Rideout that he had been robbed of $200 last night. Besanson stated that he had cashed a certified check Thursday and put the money in his pocket. During the evening he went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newman, Main street, where he spent the night. This morning when he awoke, his money was missing and Mr. and Mrs. Newman couldn't be found.
