SALVAGE CORPS CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Hydro Discussion Interjected Into the Proceedings—Loving Cups Presented to Charter Members.

The members of No. 2 Company of Salvage Corps and Fire Police met last evening in Upton's Tea Room to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of the company. Among the guests were the members of No. 1 Salvage Corps, the City Council, and former members of the corps. The four remaining charter members of the original corps were remembered with loving cups. William M. Brown proposed a toast to the King and to the city. The Mayor responded to the latter, expressing his appreciation of being present and congratulating the members of the corps on their good work.

Commissioner Bullock also congratulated the members of the corps. He then said that, as the hydro situation was foremost in the citizens' minds at present, he would speak briefly on this topic. He hoped the question would be settled soon so the council could get on with other work. He declared that delay was getting the city nowhere and he did not think that the inducements offered by the Power Company were sufficient nor the rates attractive enough for the city to consider. He was positive that the present offer of the company did not satisfy the citizens and, in his opinion, the company was not in a position to give the citizens low enough rates to warrant allowing Musquash going out of their control. It was up to the council to go on with the job.

The city, he declared, had started the fight and the time to finish it was when the company was commencing to realize that there was a lost cause. He said now was the time to go on with the fight, when the government had placed the necessary weapon in the citizens' hands in the shape of the Musquash development. He felt that it was up to the council to see that the citizens, and the citizens only, got the greatest benefits accruing from hydro. Commissioner Frink, after remarking that the services of the salvage corps were too well known to require further comment, also turned to the citizens. He declared that the citizens of St. John were going to enjoy the benefits of the Musquash development. He said that, while there was no desire to ask any individual or corporation, as citizens must have reasonable benefit from Musquash. The council and the citizens should occupy their time with doing, not talking. Captain Brown gave a short history of the corps, telling of the hard work they had until the citizens appreciated their efforts. There had been thirty-three members but only four of this original number remained. He called forward G. W. Gorham, George F. Carvell, and Union, who had each an ever cup.

He proposed a toast to the Department. Robert Cohen, in reply, telling the citizens that they could be proud of their corps, said that the firemen would be greatly handicapped without the aid of the salvage corps. Lieutenant Cunningham proposed a toast to No. 1 Salvage Corps, which was responded to by Captain K. J. J.

Wind and dirt age a woman's skin—
In the world's big cities
women use this famous method to keep their skin fresh and supple

She keeps her skin smooth, fresh in spite of coarsening winds and dirt

THE wind, itself an enemy, conspires with the soot of city smoke stacks and the dirt of the streets to change your skin. Unless you fight this coarsening, it will take away the first smooth freshness and leave your skin dry and coarse, older. In every big city today where the menace is greatest, women are using this famous method to keep their skin fresh and supple.

First the special cleansing that does more than cleanse
Give your skin a nightly cleansing with the cold cream that contains just the right amount and kind of oil to work in and out without clogging—Pond's Cold Cream. So rich it cleans thoroughly and keeps the skin beautifully supple too. It is the special softening oil in this cream which counteracts the drying effect of wind and gives your skin the beautiful suppleness you want. Yet it is light enough to wipe off and never clog the pores.

And then the unfailing outdoor protection
Never fail to apply before going out, the delicate vanishing cream known in almost every country for its famous protection—Pond's Vanishing Cream. It contains the most effective softening and soothing ingredient known to skin specialists, keeps your skin smooth, fully protected from coarsening winds.

Use this double method. To meet the two great needs of the skin, Pond's developed these two famous creams. First the cold cream that cleans and oils. Then the famous outdoor protection. Wherever you live, under the most trying conditions, they will keep your skin beautifully smooth and fresh. These creams are found in jars and tubes at 50 cents each in all departmental and drug stores. They contain nothing which promotes the growth of hair. BUDGET DEBATE ENDS SUDDENLY

The debate on the budget in the Legislature came to an abrupt end yesterday afternoon with the address of R. T. Hayes. Immediately the house voted to go into supply when it reconvened on Monday evening. Hon. C. W. Robinson delivered a strong address yesterday in which he urged the people of New Brunswick to stop chasing rainbows and get down to business. R. T. Hayes, in the course of his remarks, questioned the advisability of continuing the U. N. B. in its present status on account of the competition with other colleges.
