THE STAR. WEDESDAY, APRIL 29 uliar alvittages we happen to possess. - | occurred; terrifying instances of local vio- | to the Dardanelles and Cape Matapan, (for | ton, and is the residence of Colonel and La-Position and climate, and the bounteons re- lence have been witnessed; and a reckless the impotent kingdom of Greece, if suffered dy Georgiana de Roos. Position and climate, and the bounteons resources that nature has sentered with so he disregard to the consequences of their conditions the diffused intelligence and elevated character of our people—will and elevated character of our people—will and elevated character of our people—will avail us nothing it we fail sacrelly to up avail us nothing it we fail sacrelly to uphold those publical institutions that were swerved from their devotion to the bond of er. Malta is no longer sufficiently near the meat of the were swerved from their devotion to the bond of er. Malta is no longer sufficiently near the wisely and deliberately formed, with refer- union, and the principles it has made sa- Levant to protect our trade and give timely of the north of Spain this year, and states ence to ever encountance could preserve, cred. It will be ever thus. Such attempts support to threece, Syria, and Egypt, in case | that the sums remitted amounted to 29,345,enes to eye to creating ance country as they found it.

The many periodically respectively at dangerous agitation may periodically respectively to the blood of the french Chamber of the president of the French Chamber of the president of the French Chamber of the president of the president of the French Chamber of the president of the president of the French Chamber of the president of the pres The said of all the Ionian islands, except Ce- ful legacy of the Restoration, has already tions they was at the sources of throughout our territorial limits; that calm rigo, which, however, does not possess a cost France 200,000,000 france (£8,000,000 regularly to territ transmitted but they and enlightened judgment which ultimately port that could contain a collier, much less sterling) besides the lives of thousands." they and enlightened judgment which alimately shelter a flex. Chidia, whilst it is so saturate at hand to resist and control every ated as to watch the abole of the Levant, the ontraces to the Dardauelles and Adriance, which aims, or the entraces to the Dardauelles and Adriance, and the northern coast of Africa, possible at the control of street, in the Boy of Suda, a port which and the number increase daingues, in the Boy of Suda, a port which and the streets are almost described by las been so might be removed at strong as either Port Manon or L. Village of L. Village of Levant, the streets are almost described by las been so the day.—

Manon or L. Village of Levant, the streets are almost described by the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the Levant, the streets are almost described by the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the Levant, the streets are almost described by the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the day of the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the day of the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the day of the day.—

Manon or L. Village of the day o Russell introduced the subject of conduction of the fortified points, harbours, toads, &c.; but the extraordinary fertility of the considered able bodied to a consider and the considered able bodied to a consider and the considered able bodied to a consider and and the considered able bodied to a consider and and the considered able bodied to a consider and and the considered able bodied to a consider and and since it. the jedone of the rerecurse with openiess and since it; soon dueble it to repay this outlay; and, in promptly avowing our objects and valling the meanwhile, England might spare herself ought also to be relieved, consequentstablish that murnal franks which is the expence of protecting five of the seven by the principle of his bill would be beneficial in the dealings of a manual franks of spaces composing the about I bat relief should be offered for desthat relief should be offered for description, and for nothing else. The relief should be in the workhouse, and repeated to the first process of the internal coverage of t The Last, and pechaps, the greatest, " the ! In approaching, the minent sources of discord and disaster in a sounded course rapposed to lork in our political condition, le promise that et was the astrontion of domestic slavery .- myself that I will faith is On for fataers, were deeply impressed with fice I am about to fill, I have the delicacy of this subject, and they treat- settled purpose to maintain this ed a section debearance an evidently wise, of my country, which, I to all that in spile of every sint-ter foreboding, it the errors I commit sever, will the present period, disturbed the In receiving from the Such a result is sufficient evidence of the cessor, and which he has discussed as about the patriotism of their cause; it is fully and so well, I know that I sund to a super the whole less than answer to our patriotism of their cause; it is tranquility of our common country. evidence not to be instake that an adhe- peet to perform the arduous task with equal to screet way of pauper, the whole being about £312,rence to it can prevent all embarrassment ability and success. But united as I have avoiding a variation be prepared for one; 000 per annum. The guardians are been in his counsels, a daily witness of his and it our prepared to be exclusively laymen. The rate chaired cause of difficulty and danger.— exclusive and unsurpassed devotion to his works preserving, it can now only be upheld is to be applotted by the commissiliave not recent events made it obvious to | country's welfare, agreeing with him in see | by occupying Candia and supporting Egypt. the slighted reflection, that the least devia- timents which his countrymen have werenly fon from this spirit of fortescance is inju- supported, and permitted to partake for all nons to every interest that or humanity in- of his confidence, I may hope that comes the Charles of his confidence, I may hope that comes the confidence of his confidence, I may hope that comes the confidence of his confidence o cluded ?-Amidst the violence of excited thing of the same cheering approbating and persons in 100 dies anpassions, the generous and fraternal feeling | be found to attend upon my path. has been sometimes disregarded; and, I but express, with my own, the wisher of the relative contraction of standing as I row do before my countrymen all-that he may yet long live to enjoy the in this high place of honor and of trost, I brilliant evening of his well spens life; and the state least 600,000 tenements under £2 a year to be exfellow-citizens never to be deaf to its dictates.

for inyself, conscious of but one desire, finds

for inyself, conscious of but one Perceiving, before my election, the deep functest this subject was beginning to excite, and of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being, whose station is a solid for the proposition of the Divine Being t sere of those of avenuarymen serious for straining to the election was profiled, will make the management of the profile and the profile of the prof United the state of ed to contribute all in his power tour relations with Mexico. All the letters by the last versel from Vera Criz, represent the state of feeling among the Mexicans as with it in the States where it exists.

I posse for the last versel from Vera Criz, represent the state of feeling among the Mexicans as sufficiently hostile to this country. A letter pointed also to my fellow-crize is, and finite most interpretations with Mexican and Lord Stanley thanked the government for bringing forward a definite also to my fellow-crize is, and finite most interpretations. ness and frankness, the reaches a neh led ham in every possible on. In the event of quarter continue in a most unsettled state, not to this determination. The resolution is now before Congress the resolution is now before Congress declared to the plan; in doing which they and are confided in, by a amporty of the much more advantageously employed e'se to pass a non-intercourse act as it said with declared their intention of approachpeople of the United States; including those where; in the case of a runting with Greece our country, and another to declare a war. | ing it divested of all party feelings. whom her most mined and it would be subject to con tast marauding but I hope the leaders of the government only remains to add, that no pill on the may not act thus nowisely." Another letter tried of establishing a system in Inc. will the says of the prevalent opinion of the Mexiwhenever a general war again convuises. Eu- cans is, that a rupture is about to take place * * * Trope, far from being allowed to remain qui- between them and the United States, and ble discussion and difference of opi-These torne is have been allowed in the city in his hands, if would be one of the iney are so infatuated as to desire it." The from belief that they are in accordance with points first contested for by the beiligerents. Washington Globe intimates, that a special the spirit that act aled the venerated authers | Mahommed Ali is too clear-sighted not to | message on the subject of our relations with

Mahon or Le Vaccia. The ident is capa- In the country it is as bad. In the country beaves little conscious to coasso a force of sufficient of Kalenburg, there are hardly people to signal were vil- stemmit to be a service, in the event of an feed the cattle. experi- larged astervention being necessary; and it const. Sweet like most of the British possestempa for dependent upon other countries for its On Monday night Lord John Russell introduced the subject of

of the republic, and that succeeding expense be aware of these circumstances, and to see Mexico, is about to be presented to Conence have proved then to be humare, patri- that it is merely the mutual jealousy of the great by the President .- New York Jourour expedient, honorable and just. If the agreement that causes this value ble agreement of this subject was intended, to island to be placed as a kind of deposit in the stability of our institutions. bis haads: and there can be but little doubt. Lord Durnam.—A private letter from St. eneugo has occurred to show that it has sign be would willingly barter away the honorary. Petersburg states that Lord Durham is of a secretary of the second of the ti-indeed, scenes of dangerous excitement have | Russia may now be considered as advanced is not gone to the continent) is at Long Dit- I ty-four hours. The Royal Library

TRISH POOR LAWS ers are to be employed in Ireland, to offeet the union of parishes, and subordinate to them are to be boards of having, without her concurrence, pos guardians chosen in each union. It herself successively of Poland, Bea- is anticipated that the number of those unions may be about 100-Could Austria or Prussis, both daily inter- that each union may relieve perhaps ing in the petty affairs of Germany and about 800 paupers upon an average. oners and the board of guardians, ac cording to the value of the heriditafull yearly value, one half of the rate is to fall upon the landlord and the and of Water, the total number disas other upon the tenant. Holders of rom this bin. Such is a cursory view of the plan as it stands at present the particular Grapony of the ursent. It was received with great satisfaction by all parts of the House. Mr O'Connell although not sanguine tried, of establishing a system in Ireland, that has encountered consideranion among political economists in England. The motion for a new writ for the borough of Stafford was carried against ministers by a majority of arr

ton

any

pay

By accounts from Italy we learn the fire which consumed the greater and said the legical of the devantages offered to Great Britain by the pos-struction of our government, are again des-tined to be disappointed. Here and there, incalculable; and since the boundaries of de Roos has retired (his Lordship, it seems,