The above table represents absolutely the returns up to the time of going to tive on Saturday afternoon. "You just press. It indicates that even under the most favorable conditions the Premier cannot hope to control the House, while he is very likely to be in a minority. In Revelstoke, Comox, Skeena and Kaslo the election will be very close. From Similkameen no returns whatever have yet been received.

Should Kaslo return an adverse vote it means that three ministers out of the six have gone down to defeat. The results as a whole indicate that the sentiment of the province is overwaeming'y Liberal. Without a leader or a campaign fund the party success fully did battle with a government entrenched in power, with patronage at its command and all the prospective emoluments which an administration can use. The presence of Socialist candidates in the field, too, was a bad handicap to Kaslo, Grand Forks and Revelstoke.

The defeat of D. M. Eberts in Saanich marks the passing away of the final representative of Turnerism and was a signal triumph for Mr. Tanner. Another notable victory was that of Mr. Evans, who wrenched Cowichan from the Conservative domination under which it has been so, long.

Columbia and Lillooet returned Messrs. Wells (Lib.) and Macdonald (Con.) by acclamation.

The result is disappointing in many ways for both parties. Neither has a operation of the Socialists unless the constituencies which are still in doubt return a solid five for either side.

And the Liberal party? That they were jubilant is putting it mildly. As a party they had not dared to hope that so prophets whose prophecies were trium-phantly verified expressed no doubt in keep your eye on the result," said one, "and you will find I am right. The enemy is divided and disorganized and can't possibly elect a member."

Everyone will remember how glibly the Conservative champions prophesied the election of their quartette about nomination day. Everyone will recall that as the campaign sped by they were inelined to drop down to three. Then, it will also be remembered, as the polling day drew near, they "thought the Lib-erals might get two," and on Saturday a number of them still stuck to that Some of the trumpet-voiced adherents. however, had taken heed of the signs of the times and admitted that things looked a trifle cloudy for them, and "they wouldn't be surprised if the Conservatives only elected one"-Charles Hayward being that one.

Polling commenced quite briskly on Saturday morning and kept up at a live-ly rate all day. The arrangements, thanks to the foresight of the returning officer, Hinkson Siddall, were perfect. S They prevented confusion and enabled the electors to exercise their franchise with convenience and dispatch. The the Liberals, without which they would certainly have won Nanaimo. The interior of the old fire hall proved to be admirably adapted for a polling station in every " respect, and doubtless hereafter it will be used for this purpose, where possible, all elections.

Liberal and Conservative committees vere out bright and early, and their activity was due to the large vote polled. The Liberal headquarters were established in the old Methodist church, while the Conservative committee room was Undoubtedly the sensation of the fight was the results in Victoria, where the solid Liberal ticket was elected.
