C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR.

BOARD OF TRADE.

FAIRLY WELL ATTENDED AND PROGRESS MADE.—MET AGAIN MONDAY EVENING.

To say "the house was packed to the doors, and the seating capacity taxed to the utmost." would be true enough, but even that would not indicate a large gathering for the ADVERTISER office is a small place for a public meeting. The attendance consisted of A. F. Campbell, R. W. Richardson, S. S. Miller, J. T. G. Carr, John Barnett, C. Humphrey Taylor, J. H. Dickinson, G. C. Watson, S. J. Brown, G. E. Boyer, H. D. Keswick, Dr. Estey, and H. L. Ross. The affair was very informal—in fact consisted simply in talking over the possible benefits to be derived from such an organization. The need of unanimity is felt, and it is hoped a Board of Trade would work to this end. The freight rate and the bridge questions are the first to be tackled and other matters assert themselves to the mind.

C. Humphrey Taylor read several letters from the late Ira Cornwall, formerly Secretary to the St. John Board of Trade, in which he was asking if the organization of a local board would be feasible. This correspondence was dated within the past eighteen months.

S. S. Miller was asked to write the Secretary of State at Ottawa, and Mr. F. O. Allison, Secretary of the St. John Board for all possible information on the organization.

The meeting was adjourned until next Monday evening, when a fuller representation of business interests is requested to meet at the ADVERTISER Office.

HARTLAND PRODUCE MARKET.

Since Christmas there is hardly the same demand for poultry, but prices have not changed materially. Turkey's are worth 11 cents; ducks and geese, 8 cents; fowls, 5 and 6 cents; chickens, 6 and 7 cents. Oats are in fairly good demand and are worth 21 cents cash, and 23 cents trade. Buckwheat is also called for, bringing 20 cents per bushel. Hay is worth $6.00 loose, $7.25 pressed. Butter and eggs are not what they should be, the former is worth 16 cents if strictly first-class, 12 cents if it is not; eggs being 16 cents. Beans $1.10 to $1.25.

THE TISER MAN DOOMED.

The Moncton Transcript informs us that "The Chignecto Post man is en route to Hartland. The ADVERTISER editor up there referring to our dignified Sackville contemporary says that 'the bumpious editor of that sheet is talking through his hat.'"

A FAILURE THIS TIME.

THE P. U. A. SOCIETY MEETING DIDN'T MEET.

It is somewhat difficult to fathom the reason why Thursday night's Agricultural meeting was a failure. There was promise of a very good attendance, farmers coming from Somerville, Simonds, Peel Brighton and out back. The Executive committee was also in the village. In private some business affairs were attended to; but no person had forethought enough to secure a hall—hence, the probable reason why the meeting didn't materialize. Then again it may have been that many who might have attended would have come but for the meeting that is to be held three weeks from today—on the 29th—and addressed by Hon. J. H. Labillois, the commissioner of agriculture.

Full announcements of Mr. Labillois meeting will be given next week.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

Talk of a new school house is being heard more frequently. The consensus of opinion is running more in favor of a new building. The present one is a ram-shackle affair, and it would be better for teachers and scholars, and it would add to the good appearance of the town if a new one were built. But on this one subject, at least, the ADVERTISER claims no authority. Not knowing enough of the matter it claims it unwise to give an opinion; but as usual its columns are open for the expression of other people's ideas.

THE WINDSOR RELIEF FUND

J. T. G. Carr forwarded to Windsor last week one box and one barrel containing about twenty-five dollars worth of goods supplied as under:

King's Daughter	Underclothing.
P. E. Boyer	Shaker flannel.
J. W. Boyer	3 pairs boots.
H. E. Blakslee	Clothing.
R. W. Richardson	"
Richardson, Porter Co	"
A. C. Carr	"
J. T. G. Carr	Sundries.

The values are not stated.

GOOD PAINTING

Alf. Turner the painter, of Florenceville is in town, and is open for engagements. He is an exceptionally good workman as his work bears ample testimony. Those who have seen the houses of H. H. McCain, M. P. P., Dr. Baker, Centreville and Fred J. Boyer, Victoria Corner, will be pleased with his work.

THAT CARNIVAL.

The Apron and Necktie carnival in the Rink will come off Jan. 17. It gives promise of being an interesting and amusing event. See small bills for further particulars.
