Sparkling Comedy, Gorgeous Costumes and Spiendid Music at the York Theatre.

Sparkling Comedy, Gorgeous Costumes and Splendid Music at the York Theatre. When Charles H. Hoyt discovered some years ago that public taste lay in the way of laughter, not of tears, he laid the foundation for a fortune and for a great storehouse of merriment that was to delight theatre-goers for years to come. Of all the bright ab-surdities that have come in such rapid succession from this prolific fun-maker, none have been so bright, so original and so daring as "A Milk White Flag." A brilliant piece of semi-dramatic crazy-quilt work for which the domain of opera bouffe, the sparkle of comedy, the gorgeousness of spec-tacle and even the robustness of melo-drama, have all been called upon. It is daring in its conception, but never once does the author overstep the bounds of good tasts in the telling of his story. One of the funny ideas in-corporated into this plot tells of a man pretending to be dead to get one hun-dred thousand dollars life insurance money, and the added complications arising from the desire of a military company to give him a grand burial to elipse a great funeral given by a rival company to one of their members. Every accessory that could add to the bucutful settings with the gorgeous costumes of the Ransome Guards and the bright dresses of the vivandierres make a wonderfully pleasant picture un-der the dazling brightness of the cal-clums. A Milk White Flag comes to the York Theatre one week, commenc-ing Monday, June 9. FRYETS $100 HAT.

Ing the depleted veldts of South Africa. Waiter De S. Maude was at one time a member of the Sixty-seventh High-landers. He is the owner of the Moon Ranch in the Texas Pan-Handle. He was a lieutenant in a British regiment in the Boer war and at present holds a Major's commission in the British army. Dick Carrew, the other mem-ber of the firm, is owner of the Wind-horst Ranch in Clay cousty. It is un-derstood that they have a contract to supply the British Government with young breeding cattle in South Africa. The shipment from Pensacola con-sisted of bulls and helfers, high grades and pure bloods, none of which was over three years old. They were pur-chased at various places in Texas in small lots so as to avoid suspicion and were shipped from Pensacola for the same reason, the Boer war not being over at the time the vessel was chart-ered. FRYE'S 100 HAT. WASHINGTON, June 6.—The finest Patama hat seen at the White House this summer is worn by Senator Frye, who called on the President Friday. It was sent to the Maine statesman by a friend and came without a band. Sen. Frye sent it to his hatter and directed that a suitable band be put around it. The hatter returned word that he would not put a needle in the hat, as it was too good a hat to be punched full of holes. The hatter said the piece of headgear was worth over $100. He placed a loose black band around the has hat without thread fastenings. This hat is probably the costiliest worn by any man in con-gress.
