MILITARY PARADE AT QUEBEC TODAY

Twenty Two Thousand Men Took Part

Bluejackets Joined With the Militia in the Display — Comment on Yesterday's Reception.

QUEBEC, July 22.—Today was gala day of the Tercentenary, and witnessed a series of important and imposing functions from early morning onwards. Twelve thousand troops and ten thousand sailors paraded on the Plains of Abraham at five o'clock and rehearsed the review orders and march past which will take place tomorrow (Friday). The military forces then marched from the Plains and proceeded through the main thoroughfares of the city with bands playing and colors flying.
The parade was witnessed by at least sixty thousand people.

Prior to the commencement of the ceremonial at Champlain's statue there was the arrival of the "Don De Dieu" with Champlain and his crew on board. As the little ship came full speed, sailed bravely up the river, she was greeted with round after round of cheering. Champlain landed and proceeded with his crew to "L'Abbaton," the model of the first fort constructed by Champlain, proceeding then to join the historic procession.

After the conclusion of the speeches, the historic procession filed past His Royal Highness, Grouped according to the routine of the pageant scenes, it was a stirring and brilliant spectacle. The 6th French Canadian Battalion, from Montreal, had the place of honor nearest Champlain's statue.
"Vice-President Fairbanks, speaking today, said that he was delighted with his reception. The ceremonial covering the arrival of the Prince is declared to be magnificent and the general spectacular display most brilliant. He said that the cordiality of his welcome far exceeded his expectations.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is reported to have declared yesterday's ceremony at the reception of the Prince "the most delightful we have ever had in Canada."

The name of the soldier who was drowned in the St. Charles River at Savary's Camp, yesterday, was St. John. He was a private in the 9th Regiment of Winnipeg, and was only 22 years old. A comrade was told that he failed to leave his body, which was however, recovered later.

GIRL AND WAD OF MONEY DISAPPEAR TOGETHER

Chatham Citizen Mourns Loss of an Adopted Daughter and $140 in Cash.

CHATHAM, N. B., July 22.—Florence McGrath, a sixteen year old girl, disappeared last night from Oscar Druet's house on Duke street, taking with her $140 in cash and a large bundle of clothing. She was not missed until morning when Mrs. Druet sent to call her. Getting no response he went into her room and found a note on her bed telling them that she had gone away and not to look for her. The police were informed river boats were searched and a shanty lookout was kept for her. She has been with the Druet's seven years, being adopted by them when she was a child. Mrs. Druet believes that she has relatives in the United States and the police have knowledge of accomplices to her midnight escape. Florence is a dark complexion girl rather stout but possessing good looks.

The wedding of Fred M. Tweedie, eldest son of Governor Tweedie, and Mrs. Frances A. Ritchie daughter of George Watt, took place yesterday afternoon on the lawn of S. T. Hubbaley's home. Only relatives were at the ceremony which was a quite assuredly conducted by Rev. George Wood.
Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie went north on the Ocean Limited.

SPINNERS SAY SLIDING SCALE IS A FAILURE

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 22.—The Spinners' Union of this city, at a meeting last night, voted to withdraw from the sliding scale agreement between the Textile Council and the Manufacturers' Association, regarding the wages of the operatives. The following resolution was passed: Resolved, That the sliding scale agreement with the Manufacturers' Association has proven to be a failure, as far as the workers are concerned, and that the Spinners' Association gives the necessary three months' notice to withdraw.

HONOLULU, July 22.—The United States Atlantic battleship fleet, which left here last night and started for Auckland, New Zealand, its next stopping place on the trip back to the Atlantic. The fleet was scheduled to sail some delay and it was 6.15 as it appeared from shore, before the flagship began moving. It is thought the delay was due to the waiting for the hospital ship Relief, which left the harbor at 6 p. m.

BOSTON POLICE SHOOT TWO AND CAPTURE ANOTHER OF THE MURDERERS

One Nabbed in South Station---Exciting Chase Over Graves Which Ended in the Death of Another of the Gang---The Third, Wounded, Has Not Yet Been Located.

BOSTON, July 22.—After three deadly battles between three desperadoes and the police and citizens, one of the bandits was killed, one was wounded and today, while a second believed to be wounded, is being searched for in the cemetery in which the fight occurred. A third was taken last evening in the South Station. All three were members of the band that has been terrorizing the Jamaica Plains district.

The band left behind it over its trail of a mile and a half three dead and eleven wounded and was composed of the most desperate characters that have appeared in the streets of Boston for several years. All are believed to be foreigners.

The number of dead and injured during the two days of terrorization by the bandits follows: Frank J. Drake, 22 Byron St.; Herbert Knox, watchman, Forest Hill Cemetery.
Wounded—Patrick Doren, condition serious; Thomas Moore, conductor; Patrick McLaughlin, Mrs. Della Fallon, D. N. Fleming, Patrolman Inglis, Mrs.
Edna J. Carr, Patrick McGlynn, John Nolan, Patrolman Thompson, Thomas Winterston.

Drake and Dora were shot in the saloon on Tuesday night while the others received their wounds last night or this morning.
The desperado captured at the South Station last night was about to take a train for New York. His name is believed to be Giuseppe Devolco, and he is charged with murder, having been identified by four men, as one of the three who "shot up" the saloon Tuesday night.

Still another man was taken into custody whom the officers thought might be another member of the gang. He was believed to be Hugh McDougall, a former elevated road employee.

The desperadoes' career of terror began Tuesday night by the "shooting up" of the saloon of Winterston and McLaughlin on Washington street, Jamaica Plain. Shortly before the closing hour three men apparently Italian, had their appearance at the door and shouted, "All hands up!" When the shooting was over, it was found that Frank J. Drake had been killed. Patrick Doren had received a bullet in the abdomen and Thomas Winterston had been shot at the base of the skull and the left arm.

The police made a careful search all night long without result. Early yesterday morning two of the men made their appearance at a house on Bourne street and at the point of a revolver demanded that they be given food. Later they were seen in Calvary cemetery, but eluded the efforts of the officers. Throughout the rest of the day there was no report of any one having seen the desperadoes, but at 7 o'clock last night they were discovered perched on the roof of a building. When the police found that they were so closely pursued they drew their revolvers and with a yell began firing on all sides. The first person hit was Mrs.
Della Fallon, who was walking down South street. Officer Inglis then received a bullet in the leg. The men passed through Cunningham Field, Lee street, and on to New Keros street, down which they ran directly into Washington street. On Washington street, where the electric cars are passing, they were met by a mob of people who were standing about the corner and the desperadoes were forced to an approaching car to stop. The motorman dropped behind the body of the de-peradoes, and the conductor, Thomas Moore, when stepping off the car to see what was the trouble received a bullet in the leg. Five others were also shot.

The men then reloaded their revolvers and walked on to Forest Hill cemetery.

Herbert E. Knox, the watchman, who was seen on the lookout for the men, believed he saw one answering their description and after securing a revolver started to look for him. He upon him unexpectedly and before he was able to use his weapon, was shot down with a bullet through the body.

The desperadoes were taken to the Hospital nearby, where he died three hours later. From this time on until daybreak little effort was made by the officers to seek out the desperadoes as the cemetery was so carefully guarded that it was believed impossible for the men to get outside and orders were given to all patrolmen to advance toward the centre of the cemetery at four o'clock.

Scarcely a quarter of an hour after the forces began the advance, the figure of a wild, unkempt man sprang up in front of the officers at the south side of the cemetery and started off on the run. The man was barefooted, a broken derby covering his head, a torn and ragged coat on his back and in one hand he carried a heavy revolver, while from the other dangled a reel of cartridges.

For more than a mile across the cemetry, the man raced over graves and shrubbery, through puddles and over mounds, an ever increasing mob of police following slowly but steady-ly in his wake. All at once he disappeared in a ravine somewhat deeper than the others, not 200 yards from the main entrance to the cemetery. But one bit of shrubbery marked the low-level of the ravine, and into this the man sprang. In a second the sides of the ravine were lined many deep with the bluecoats, who poured shot after shot into the bushes. Then inspectors carefully approached the bush, and pulling the leaves found the victim of a hundred officers' bullets dead on the ground.

Almost at the same time another commotion was created on the opposite side of the main gate, within the closes of the main cemetery, and a man who had refused to throw up his hands had been seized, disarmed and hurriedly rushed to the main gate in charge of an escort of officers. Both the dead man and the captive were taken to the Jamaica Plains station.

Some doubt arising, however, as to the identity of the captured man, the hundred officers remaining were again marched into the cemetery to continue the search, tracing large splashes of blood in the cemetery in the hope of locating the third bandit.

KERR IS WINNER IN 200 METRE RACE

United States Men Got Second and Third

Fine Weather and Low Prices Draw Big Crowds to the Olympic Sports —Other Events Today.

LONDON, July 22.—As the Olympic games draw toward a close interest in them increases and fine weather, although late in arriving, is now smiling upon the great international contests for athletic supremacy, and with the assistance of cheaper seats, is bringing out crowds of spectators to the stadium.

Yesterday was the meeting what Derby Day is to Epsom Racing Week, the final of the 100 metres sprint in the eyes of the general public being considered the most important event of the meeting. Those who follow athletics, however, are just as keenly interested in the finals of the two races which are to be run off today. The first of these is the 200 metres flat, in which Kerr, of Canada, runs against Cartmell and Cloughen, United States, and Cawkins, United Kingdom. The Americans have feared Kerr more than the Englishmen. After two grilling runs yesterday, he may be slightly tired. The other final on which the eyes of the experts are turned is in the 400 metres flat race in which Carpenter, Taylor and Robbins, United States, meet Haswell, a Lieutenant in the British Army and described as the greatest quarter miler the United Kingdom has had in recent years. English sporting writers intimate at the probable establishment of a new record for the distance.

The standing high jump, with which the programme opened this morning, it expected to last the greater part of the day. The semi-final of the high diving contest and the semi-final of the 100 metres swim are on the programme for today and also the fourteen bouts of the 110 metres hurdle.

The Graco-Roman wrestling, light weights to 147 pounds and the catch-as-catch-can matches between heavy weights up to 161 pounds, going on the mats at either end of the arena, kept the adherents to that form of sport entranced all day long. The only American entered in these events was Lee J. Talbot, and he was defeated in the first bout at catch-as-catch-can by O'Kelly, United Kingdom. The tribute the Americans at the stadium paid to Walker yesterday, when the young South African won the 100 metres, appears to have appealed strongly to English sportsmanship, and is likely to do much to dispell the soreness caused by the American protests earlier in the games which was much discussed.
Most of the morning papers describe the demonstration in complimentary terms. The Standard says: "The Americans took a leading part in the ovation given Walker. They showered congratulations upon him and the young men who were massed in the grandstand carrying the flag of their country, went out of their way to praise their conqueror."

The first section of the standing high jump at the stadium this morning, Tascliaras, Greece, won with a jump of 5 feet 1 inch. Adams, United States, was second, with 4 feet 10 inches, Dupont, Belgium, third, 4 feet 8 inches.
In this event the best eight in all sections come together in the final.

In the second section of the standing high jump, Ray S. Ewry, N. Y. A. C., cleared 5 feet 1 inch and J. A. Biller, Brooklyn Central Y. M. C. A., four feet 11 inches.

The final in the 200 metre was won by Kerr Canada. Cloughen Irish American A. C. was second, and C. J.
Cartmell, University of Penna., was third. The time was 22 2-5 seconds.

The third heat of the 110 metre hurdle was won by Cloughen, United Kingdom. Time, 16 2-5 seconds.
Fourth heat, Killy United Kingdom, won easily. Fifth heat, W. M. Raine, Harvard University, won, time 15 4-5 seconds. Sixth heat, Walter, United Kingdom, won. Time, 17 2-5 seconds.
Seventh heat, Knydet, United Kingdom, won easily.

SALT LAKE CITY, N. J., July 22.— The Gans and Nelson fight scheduled for Labor Day at Ely, Nev., was called off by the promoter, who says that he was unable to make satisfactory arrangements with the railroads.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 22.— Percy Lawrence broke the world's two mile lap amateur record at Salt Lake bicycle track last night. He rode it in 3:34 4-5 miles made the previous record of 3:51 1-5.

CURRAGH, July 22.—Richard Cro-ker's filly, Queen of Peace, yesterday won the Irish Oaks at the Curragh meeting, beating the favorite, A. P.
Ladies American Girl.

STUTTGART, East Prussia, July 22.—The German car in the New York to Paris motor race crossed the frontier at 4:22 last evening. The American car, which left Moscow at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, is about 500 miles behind the Germans. The latter made 420 miles yesterday.
