Some Facts Made Known.

It is often thought than grocers real ly have very little care regarding the food value of the articles they sell, but the real facts are that grocery keepers of the right sort are extremely particular as to what they recommend.

Along in '96 a wholesale gnocer urgd me to put some Postum Food Coffee in my store, which I did with considerable misgiving, for, at that time, the now famous Postum was not

He urged me to try it myself, which I did and was disgusted with the flat, tasteless beverage, so was my wife. I remembered the wholesale grocer said something about following directions carefully, so I took the package and studied it. I at once discovered that we had not boiled it long enough, only three or four minutes, but it must be boiled 15 minutes at least, so we tried it again, with the result that we got a perfect cup of coffee, a delightful and healthful beverage. I have continued the use of Postum in my home ever since. We use it for breakfast, dinner and supper. My bilious attacks quickly left and I am free from them altogether. I began to explain to my customers some-thing of the value of Postum Coffee, and now have a very large trade on it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Carleton Boy Swam Through the Raging Torrent and Lives.

Fred Dodge, a fifteen year old son of F. T. Dodge of Albert street, Carleton, will never be nearer death and live to tell of it than he was Sunday afternoon, when he earned the unique distinction of being one of the very few who have been swept through the fearful turmoil of the St. John falls and survived. About four o'clock, with a companion, Roy Ring of Carleton, he was out on the point of land that juts from neath him gave way. Springing out as he fell he managed to clear the

Though only a few seconds elapsed Ring had already given the alarm, and a crowd of helpless spectators were gazing with horrible anxiousness at the boy's gallant and he fought his way up again for breath. Whirlpools seized him and dragged him down for what seemed minutes to the strained watchers. But he broke would appear followed by a face gasp-carrying him down. He passed under the suspension bridge nearly in the middle of the stream, but not far be low a merciful eddy caught him and shot him toward the stiller waters of the cove. His companion, who had given the alarm, had fortunately met J. Fred Belyea, the parsman from Old Fort, and the two, obtaining a boat from Wm. Daley, who lives near the shore of the falls, put out to the rescue. By the time they neared the of the oque near the old water tank and was about forty feet from shore. He was nearly unconscious, half drowned and benumbed by the bitter cold of the water. Before they could reach him he sank but came up again little further down, where he was seized and drawn into the boat unconscious. He was taken to Mr. Daley's house, where Dr. Grey was summoned, and after long work sucreeded in resuscitating him. was sent to his parents, who shortly afterward arrived with a team, and s soon as their plucky and fortunate on was sufficiently recovered drove

INSIDE THE GROCERY.

One of the fraternity relates a tale. The highest priced coffee on the mar-ket I introduced to my customers and used myself. I began to have bilious attacks, and after a little observation attributed them directly to coffee. Every time I left off drinking it I got better, but I felt the need of a warm drink for breakfast.

Hon. A. F. Randolph Stricken With Paralysis.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 11.-John Perks, formerly of this city, where he carried on a large bakery business, died at Houlton yesterday. The remains will be brought here for burial, arriving tomorrow. The fire department was called out at six o'clock this afternoon for a slight blaze on the highway bridge, caused doubtless, by a cigarette. The damage was slight and traffic was not interrupted. Fred McGowan, lumber surveyor of this city, has been appointed by the boom company as inspector of the corporation drive. His duties will be to report from time to time as to the progress of the drive. Hon. A. F. Randolph, who has been ill for over a year suffering from Bright's disease, had a stroke of paralysis at 8 o'clock this morning, becoming speechless, but not unconscious. All the family, his wife, three sons and two daughters, are at his bedside. The daughters, Mrs. D. J. Eaton, and Miss Randolph, were at Halifax, where they had gone to see Mrs. Eaton's husband, Capt. Eaton, off. to South Africa. A message of their father's critical condition reached them just in time to catch the special English mail train for St. John. At the latter place a special train was in waiting and they arrived home at six o'clock. The funeral of the late Mrs. Forres ter on Saturday afternoon was very largely attended. The floral tributes from Toronto were among the most beautiful ever seen here and included lovely and costly pieces from the officers of the Royal Canadian Dragoons and Royal Canadian Regiment, from the non-commissioned officers of the R. C. D. men of R. C. D. attached of ficers at Stanley barracks and from a score or more of individual friends. The pallbearers were Cols. Dunbar, Loggie and McDougall, Surgeon Major Bridges, Captains Lister and Forbes. The service was held at the Cathedral. Dean Partridge and Canon Roberts officiated, and interment was made at Forest Hill cemetery. FREDERICTON, N. B., May 12.—Mr. Randolph passed a comfortable night, sleeping well and is resting easily today. His condition is unchanged since morning. He is conscious and recognizes those at his bedside, but is unable to speak.

SOUTH AFRICA

London Times Gives Course of Peace Negotiations.

LONDON, May 12.—The Times this morning relates the course of the South African peace negotiations as follows:

On the receipt of the Dutch corres- Hawkins, Advertising Expert.

pondence intimating that Great Britain was ready to listen to proposals sident of the Transvaal, Schalk-Burger, came to the British lines and asked permission to consult with Mr. Steyn, former president of the Orange Free State. This led to the Boer delegates going to Pretoria. Their first proposal to Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner (the British high commissioner in South Africa) was that the republics should merely concede all the demands' made by Great Britain regarding the franchise, etc., before the war. The British government, in reply, referred them to the Middlesburg conference as the maximum of possible concessions and refused permission to the Boers to consult their friends in Europe. Eventually, while refusing an armistice, Lord Kitchener und not to molest the burghers while they were actually holding meetings with the commandoes to authorize the leaders to negotiate on the basis of the surrender of independence, but they were told it was useless to return to Pretoria without being armed with ful powers to negotiate.

Mr. Schalk-Burger assented to this, but Mr. Steyn's acquiescence seemed doubtful.

Mail advices received from Pretoria continues the Times, declares that Lords Kitchener and Milner promised generous compensation for burne farms, raised no difficulty with regard to the pardon of banished leaders, and gave assurances that the question of amnesty for rebels did not present insuperable difficulties.

The Times in an editorial article on this matter is not hopeful that peace will be the outcome of such negotiations, and fears that the result of the election of a member of parliament for Bury, Lancashire, will influence the Boers to further resistance.

[In the election for Bury, announced from London yesterday, George Toulmin, liberal, secured a majority of 414 votes. At the last election in Bury, 1900, the conservative majority in the district was 848.] A PORTUGUESE REPORT.

LISBON, May 10.—A despatch received here from Delagoa Bay, Portuguese East Africa, says that peace in South Africa is certain to result from the conference of the Boer leaders to be held at Vereeniging, Transvaal, May 15. It is said, the despatch continues, that peace will be officially proclaimed May 20. Preparations are afoot for general rejoicings. After having met the burghers in the field, and explained to them the British terms, the Boer leaders were meet at Verceniging and reach a final decision on the subject of peace.

A despatch from London dated May said it was officially asserted that after the conference at Vereeniging the Boer leaders would proceed to Pretoria and announce to Lord Kitchener their decision in regard to the peace terms they were prepared to accept.
