COUNCIL OF EMPIRE JOINS DUMA IN REFORM DEMANDS

Wants Liberal Policy and Political Amnesty—Coun- Witte Took Prominent Part in Proceedings—Peas- ants and Workmen Clash in Desperate Riots— Duma's Reply Defiant.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—Tele-grams received from many towns in the provinces state that the workmen today mostly ceased work, but that there were few disturbances except at Volozna, where peasants stoned workmen who forced shops and factories to close and shots were fired. An excited crowd rushed to the town hall, which was set on fire. M. Loginski, the governor, arriving at the scene, was wounded, together with many other persons.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—Former Premier Witte again took a prominent part today in the conferences of members of the council of the empire, successfully insisting that the adoption of a reply to the speech from the throne should be postponed until a regular meeting of the council, at which representatives of the press shall be present in order that the country may be informed as to the arguments advanced on either side. Nevertheless, the projected reply to the speech from the throne, which probably will be adopted, already has been drafted and has been seen by the Associated Press.

Though delicately expressed, the reply virtually contains a demand for amnesty for political prisoners who are not guilty of murder or robbery. In other respects the reply seems to be especially designed to disarm the suspicion that it is to be the role of the upper house to block legislation proposed by the lower house. After expressing loyalty to the emperor, the reply of the council of the empire contains these three principal points:

1.—An unequivocal endorsement of a liberal regime.
2.—Declaration of the intention to work in harmony with the lower house for large reforms.
3.—Amnesty, the suggestion being so worded as not to wound the sensibility of the emperor, calling attention to the fact that all remarkable occasions in Russian history have been marked by an act of grace and urging the emperor to exercise his prerogative in striving for liberty, transgressed lawful limits without being guilty of crime.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.—In the evening a crowd of several hundred workmen gathered in the Nevsky Prospekt that tried to organize a demonstration, but after being repeatedly dispersed by the police and charged once by dragons, they gave up the attempt. No one was injured.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 11.—After struggling the whole day until late this evening over a draft of the reply to the speech from the throne, the members of the commission of the lower house postponed the final work of phrasing the document until tomorrow. The prospects are that until several points may not be reached before the opening of the house at two o'clock and that therefore the reply may be thrown into the full house for final discussion. The struggle has centered mainly on the agrarian plank to which the peasant members found that the recommendations of the constitutional democratic convention though calling for a large measure of forced expropriation, were not sweeping enough.

The debate on the address will be protracted, probably occupying two days. Besides the points of universal amnesty and abolition of the death penalty laid down in the instructions of the lower house, the document additively introduces the subject of abolition of the council of the empire and ministerial responsibility. Taking as his text Emperor Nicholas' pledge in his speech from the throne to maintain inviolate the institutions which he has granted, the address expresses the hope that this signifies that the country is on the road to a strictly constitutional system. This signifies the parliament wishes to call attention to the fact that the council of the empire is a wall of separation between the emperor and the people. Then, advocating a responsible ministry selected from the dominant party in parliament, the address points out as a great advantage of that system the cessation of attacks on the monarch. The iron hand behind the respectful wording of the address, however, is in the paragraph regarding amnesty which contains these significant words:

"There are some demands which cannot be refused, and this is one."

CIGARETTE SMUGGLING CASES AT DIGBY, N. S.

DIGBY, May 15.—The cigarette smuggling cases were called today before Stipendiary Jameson. Livingstone failed to appear on his summons and a warrant was issued. Livingstone has evidently concluded to take a vacation, as he cannot be found. The case against the person bringing the cigarettes was brief, as the party acknowledged and explained. The minimum cash penalty was recorded. It seems that he was under the impression the cigarettes were passed at Yarmouth, as he opened his valise for inspection and it was passed by an official there. It is said that there is a scarcity of customs officials for the work when boats arrive from Boston, and that the attention required on such occasions cannot be given as time is much limited owing to the necessity of travellers catching trains. He is, as it may, Livingstone, for whom the cigarettes were brought in a friendly way, neglected to report them to the customs at Digby for labeling, but quietly sold some. Complaint was made by the honest dealers, which resulted in the seizure.

NOISELESS OMNIBUSES WILL BE RUN IN LONDON

LONDON, May 14.—One hundred double-decked omnibuses propelled by electricity will soon make their appearance in the streets of London. The "electro-bus" possesses several advantages over the petrol-driven vehicle. It will be shorter, lighter and more widely in traffic and should be particularly welcome because absolutely noiseless, quite free from vibration, emitting no smell or smoke, and, moreover, it will start without a jerk. Thirty-four passengers are carried, the same number that the petrol omnibuses accommodate. The storage batteries are carried in two trays underneath the floor of the vehicle, and so arranged that they can be removed when their electricity is exhausted and a fresh one installed in less than five minutes, or its quickly changing horses in one of the old omnibuses.

LUMBER DRIVES COMING ON WELL

Logs Fast Reaching Booms of Fredericton Boom Co. Price of Logs Said to Have Dropped During Last Few Days—Up River Reports.

(Special to the Sun.)
FREDERICTON, May 14.—There are now about forty million feet in the booms at Douglas and Lincoln altogether, which is a little better than one-quarter of the quantity the company expect to handle this season. A gentleman who came down from up river yesterday reports that the St. John Lumber Co. are holding about twenty million feet of logs in their booms at Van Buren and Grand Isle. The bulk of them belong to down river operators and will be held until the company gets through sorting. Word came from the headwaters to the effect that John Kilburn commenced driving on May 1st and is making splendid progress. He has already finished work on Mosquito Brook and is now at work on his other drives. Timothy Lynch, who returned home on Saturday evening, reports that the drives on the Southwest Miramichi are coming along splendidly, and should reach Hayes' bar on Friday or Saturday of this week. He thinks all the lumber on the Miramichi and tributaries will be got out. A telegram from Boiestown today states that the drives on Rocky Brook, the Sisters and Cain's river are all in. The driving conditions in that section were never more favorable. It is stated that the men employed at the booms this year will work 10 hours per day. Previously the men worked from daylight until dark and had four meals per day, but under the new system they will work, it is said, from 7 a. m. until 6 p. m. and will have three meals per day. It is reported that from 1,500 to 2,000 joints of bank logs and "pick ups" arrived at Springhill during the past week and that operations are being carried on there on a larger scale this season than for some time past. About 40 men are employed and rafts are being made up as fast as possible for shipment. Several rafts have already gone forward to St. John, while a great many have been used by the local mills. Logs are said to have dropped in price at St. John during the past few days and are now said to be worth about $12.75 per thousand, whereas they used to sell for $13.

Provincial News

Sackville.

SACKVILLE, May 14.—One of the most pleasing graduating recitals of the year was given at Beethoven hall on Saturday evening. Miss Lella Alma Carter did excellent work on the piano, displaying marked ability as a pianist. Miss Ethel May Purdy, reader, delighted the audience with three pleasing numbers. Just Like Other Folks was exceptionally well rendered. Miss Lloyd Green, post graduate in violin, gave three violin solos in her own inimitable way. Miss Trean is a very brilliant player and captivated the audience with her sweet strains of "musical". Miss Rose Booth, of Mt. Allison musical faculty, entertained the graduates very pleasantly on Saturday evening.

Chipman.

CHIPMAN, May 14.—The advanced department of the school, which was closed on account of the teacher, L. R. Hetherington, being quarantined, is open again. The May Queen arrived Saturday night. John R. Dunn, A. W. Ebbett, Judge of probate, and Deputy Sheriff, Byrd, came on her on professional business. Warren Winslow has fallen heir to a fortune through the death of a relative. The water is very high in Salmon River. All the wharves here are submerged and temporary arrangements had to be made for landing the steamer's freight and passengers. Hampton lodge, which is rapidly becoming one of the most important lodges in the province of the Good Templars, elected the following delegates to the grand lodge, which meets in Fredericton July 9th: Rev. B. Glover, S. H. Flavelling, Wm. H. Robertson.

The drives are all out and logs safely in the booms. About twelve million feet came down the Salmon River. The ladies of the Baptist church at Briggs Corner have notified for a social to be held there May 17th, in aid of the building fund. And the residents of Chipman west are planning to hold a similar function May 23, to raise money to build a sidewalk in that part of the town.

SEQUEL TO SENSATIONAL RATE BILL INCIDENT

President Roosevelt Issues Statement Declaring that There Could Never Have Been Any Honest Misconception of His Attitude in the Matter—Never Pledged Himself to Any One Amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The sensational rate bill incident in the senate Saturday during which Mr. Tillman, on the authority of former Senator Chandler, made statements regarding the president's course in connection with pending railroad rate legislation, some of which statements were denied by Mr. Lodge, on behalf of the president, had its sequel this evening when an official statement was issued by the White House giving an account of the subject on the part of the president and Attorney General Moody. The statement comprised two letters, one from the president to Senator Allison, and the other from Attorney General Moody to the president, both dated today. The president said: "In no case, either in the case of Mr. Chandler or anyone else, was there the slightest opportunity for any honest misconception of my attitude or any belief that I pledged myself specifically to one or only one amendment or set of amendments, or that I would not be satisfied with any amendment which preserved the essential features of the Hepburn bill as it came from the house."

The president says that as to many of the amendments, including the so-called Long, Overman, Bacon and Spooner amendments, he had said he should be entirely satisfied to have them in the bill, and suggested modifications as to other amendments but that "as to none of the amendments did I ever say either to Mr. Chandler or to anyone else that I should insist upon having them in the bill as a condition of my approval," and that on the contrary he (the president) was careful to state that he was not trying to dictate any particular programme of action.

The attorney general's letter gives an account of the president's request of the conference which Mr. Moody held by the president's direction with Senator Tillman and Senator Chandler regarding the court review feature. He reviews the discussion of interjectory injunctions and concludes that there was nothing in the "conventions" between the senators and himself which bound the president to any particular amendment. Former Senator Chandler tonight refused to discuss the statement from the White House. He indicated that he did not expect to make a statement at this time hearing, but that regarding his visits to the White House, Mr. Chandler said that previous to his invitation to call to see the president on March 21, following which he conferred with the president regarding the pending rate bill, he had not been in the White House for about a month, and that previous to that invitation he had no immediate intention of going there. He said that he did not go to the White House as an emissary of Mr. Tillman, but that he went there in response to the president's invitation.
