The company had planned on starting work before this, but the illness of Mr. Jones has delayed their plans.

Report that 1600 Men are Idle—Neither Side Has Made any Effort at Effecting Settlement.

No settlement has yet been arrived at between the millmen and the operators, and not a wheel is now in motion in any of the saw mills. According to reports no action has been taken in the matter by either party concerned since the men have gone out. It is claimed that the mill owners may find it difficult to keep their mills closed for any length of time, as large numbers of the men are now in the city and have been felled, while to introduce all new hands would be impossible.

On the other hand the millmen, about sixteen hundred in number, who have been thrown out of work will probably find it difficult to remain out long as a large number of them are married and have families to support.

Chambers Talks of His Proposed Trip.
Aviator who Plans Flight Across Atlantic has had Offer of Aeroplane from Glenn Curtiss.

"I have received an offer from Glenn Curtiss to build an especially strong aeroplane for my flight across the Atlantic," said C. F. Montague Chambers to The Standard yesterday. "As I have a machine in Paris, however, it is not likely I will accept the proposal."

While in the old country Mr. Chambers will interview the owners of the London Daily Mail, who are offering the £50,000 prize for the first man to fly across the Atlantic under difficult conditions. He will also find out if he will be eligible for the prize if he should take the water twenty or thirty miles from land.

If he is successful in carrying out his present plan, Mr. Chambers intends returning to Canada and opening a school of aviation. He believes that this sport has a great future and that the time for its introduction into Canada has come. He will also give several exhibitions of flights in the vicinity of St. John.

Among other things Mr. Chambers, after conquering the Atlantic ocean, will endeavor to fly from coast to coast, across the continent. This he thinks could be done with but a few stops for petrol and food.

FUGHT FIRE SIX HOURS AT LOCH LOMOND

Sunday a Strenuous Time for Residents in that Locality—Brush Fires Threatened Log Cabin Club.

Residents along the Loch Lomond Road were given a bad scare Sunday afternoon when fire was discovered in the woods back of the Log Cabin Fishing Club. There was a stiff breeze at the time and it was feared that the flames fanned by the wind would be carried to the neighboring dwellings, and the entire neighborhood possibly destroyed.

The fire was first discovered burning about eleven o'clock in the morning and the amateur fire-fighters were soon at work heading off its course and extinguishing the flames, but it was not until they had been given a strenuous six hours of continuous work that the axe and bucket men had the fire under control and the safety of the surrounding farms was assured.

The fire department consisted of all the farmers in the immediate vicinity, who arrived with buckets rushed to the scene. As the fire looked bad, and it was thought might result seriously, the men strained every effort and it was with difficulty that they succeeded in checking the progress of the fire.

NEW WHARF CONTRACT TO CONNOLLY CO.

Connolly and Charleson Lowest Tenderers for Gov't Wharf at West St. John—Will Get Contract.

It was reported about the city yesterday that the government had awarded a contract to Connolly and Charleson to build another wharf at Sand Point. While no definite announcement has been made about the matter, it is understood that Connolly & Charleson were the lowest tenderers, and that a contract will be let in a few days. Some time ago tenders were called for the construction of another wharf at Sand Point, and all tenders were required to be in the hands of the Public Works Department on May 20. The new wharf will be built immediately south of the pier Connolly & Charleson are now building, and will be 850 feet in length. It is to be completed next year.

AUTO OWNERS SPEND MONEY IN THIS CITY

Value of Locally Owned Automobiles Roughly Set at One-third of One Million Dollars with Upkeep Additional.

During the last few years there has been an enormous increase in the number of automobiles owned in the city. The first auto purchased by a local man was brought to St. John about eight years ago, and since that time cars of different types have been purchased each year, until there are now in the city something over 200 cars. It can hardly be imagined that in a city the size of St. John fully one-third of a million dollars is tied up in automobiles. A like amount is invested in real estate, paying at the rate of ten per cent. would give an income of about thirty-three thousand five hundred dollars.

Although the automobiles in the city range in price from six hundred dollars to six thousand dollars, the average price of the local cars is, it is said, about sixteen hundred dollars. Taking two hundred as the total number of autos in the city this would make a total expenditure of three hundred and twenty thousand dollars. Along with the amount of money tied up in the machines it is estimated that forty dollars per month a machine or a total sum of ninety-six thousand dollars is annually spent for the upkeep of the cars. The attached cost of the salaries paid by those who employ chauffeurs, it may be safely said, is running the cars a total sum of one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars is annually spent by local men on their automobiles.

Negro Beating Woman.
Loud and piercing shrieks coming from behind the Nickel Theatre about half past nine last evening, were responsible for much excitement among the amusement-seeking crowd, who, on rushing to the spot, found a stalwart negro administering a severe thrashing to a woman. On the approach of the crowd the negro fled, leaving the wench crying and shrieking. On being questioned all the negro woman could say was, "He has been beating me all day." Some chivalrous soul conducted her to her home in Union Alley.

THE LUMBER BUSINESS IS HEALTHY

John P. Burchill Says European Prices are Keeping Up Well and Trade is Good at Present.

John P. Burchill, of Nelson, president of the Lumbermen's and Limit Holders' Association, when speaking of the lumber business, to The Standard, last evening, stated that it was in a healthy condition, and that the cut last winter was well above the average. The price of the lumber in the European market is keeping well up and although water freights are above the average of the past few years, a large number of vessels have been chartered and are carrying good cargoes. The high water freights, however, may result in a slight curtailment of the shipment but the logs as they come to the mills, will be sawn. The New Brunswick lumber is meeting the competition with the Russian spruce and fir and at present has the advantage of being the most popular on the market. When a large quantity of Russian lumber are placed for sale, however, one of the results is to cause a drop in the Canadian prices.

A considerable amount of last winter's cut was held up in the woods through lack of driving water, said Mr. Burchill, but some of this may be brought forward during the summer rains. About fifteen per cent. of the winter's cut on the North Shore is still in the woods and will not be brought out until next spring. The winter's operations resulted in a cut well above the average, and in spite of the lack of driving water the mills will be well supplied.

Lumbermen Meet.
Members of the Lumbermen's and Limit Holders' Association from all sections of the province gathered in the city yesterday to discuss the lumber situation and to reorganize the association on an active basis. The meeting yesterday was of a preliminary character. John P. Burchill, the president, presided and a committee consisting of Messrs. McLellan, Buckley, Randolph, Beatty and Sayre were appointed to look into the matter and report back to the association. Members of the association would not give details of the meeting for publication.
