OPEN HOUSE AT Y. M. C. A.

The programme commenced at 8.30 with introductory remarks by President F. A. Dykeman. Among other things he told of the good influence of the Y. M. C. A. in the lives of the soldiers. He was very optimistic about future activities in the association.

Dr. Bonnell then rendered two songs which were much appreciated. President Dykeman then introduced A. W. Greig and Frank L. Smith, who recently joined the Y. M. C. A. staff as secretaries. They made brief addresses. They spoke of some of the new attractions offered, such as a nice club and orchestra.

The association rooms were then thrown open for inspection, the people passing through in groups of eight with a guide to each group. Light refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the association.
