NEARLY CRAZY WITH ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those who are Yards.

With its unbearable burning, itching and torturing relief is gladly welcomed. There is no remedy like Burdock Elcod Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no remedy that has done, or can do more for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood—for eczema is a blood disease—and drives it out of the system.

ST. THOMAS, March 29.—The inquest into the death of Harry T. Stevens, storekeeper of the G. T. R. Wabash, who was killed in the yards Thursday evening, which was held tonight by Coroner Dr. Ewen, shed little light on the fatality. No person saw the accident or was aware of the presence of Mr. Stevens in the locality until he was struck by the engine.
