

Soc. of Toronto, 1894-95. He m. Dec., 1885, Maude, dau. of Hon. G. W. Allan, Senator, Toronto.—7 Well-lesley Place, Toronto; Toronto Club.

CASSELS, Hamilton, barrister, bro. of the preceding, is the 7th s. of the late Robert Cassels, banker. B. in Quebec, Apl. 2, 1854, he was ed. at the High Sch. and at Morrin Coll. in that city, and took his degree of B.A. at the McGill Univ., 1873. Called to the bar, 1877, he was up to 1888 a partner in the firm which is now Blake, Lash & Cassels; since then he has been a partner of his bro., R. S. Cassels. In 1896 he was recommended by the Tupper Govt. for appt. as a Q. C. A mem. of the Presb. Ch., he was for some yrs. Secy. of the Foreign Mission Comte. (W.D.), and is now convener of that body. In 1896 he was elected a del. to the Pan Presb. Conf., Glasgow. Mr. C. takes no active part in politics. He m. Sept., 1879, Mary Yarwood, 2nd dau. of the late W. W. Baldwin, "Larchmere," Co. York, and grand-dau. of the Hon. Robt. Baldwin, C.B.—34 Cecil St., Toronto.

CASSELS, Col. John, capitalist, was b. in Montreal, 1835, and ed. in that city. After leaving sch. he entered the office of the Montreal Herald, and became a practical printer. Moving to the U.S., 1853, he worked at his trade until 1856, when failing eyesight compelled him to give it up. He served in the Federal army during the Am. civil war, and rose from private to colonel. He has never held public office, but is a dir. of several ry. cos. and other corporations, both at Washington and in Penn. He has throughout been very successful. Politically, he is a Con. in Can., and a Rep. in the U.S. He favours protection to home industries always, and is opposed to free coinage of silver.—1907 F. St., Washington, D.C.; Metropolitan Club, do.; Army and Navy Club, do.

CASSELS, Robert, Q. C., Registrar of the Supreme Ct. of Can., the 3rd s. of the late Robt. Cassels, banker, was b. in Quebec, Apl. 27, 1843. Ed.

at the High Sch., and at Morrin Coll., Quebec, affiliated with McGill Univ. (B. A., with 1st rank honours in Mental and Moral Phil., 1866), he was called to the L. C. bar, 1864, and to that of U. C., 1866. He followed the practice of his profession successively in Toronto, Ottawa and Peterborough, and was apptd. Regr. of the Supreme Ct. of Can., on its organization, Oct. 8, 1875. He is also ed. and publisher of the Supreme Ct. Reports, and a Master of the High Ct. of Justice of Ont. He has published "A Manual of Procedure in the Supreme and Exchequer Cts. of Can." (1877); "A Digest of all Cases reported and unreported by the Supreme Ct. of Can." (2nd ed. 1893), and "The Practice of the Supreme Ct. of Can., embracing the Rules and Statutes relating thereto" (1888). He was apptd a Q. C., by the Marquis of Lansdowne, 1885. Was one of the founders of St. Luke's Hospital, Ottawa, 1897. A mem. of the Presb. Ch., he m. 1st, Mary, only dau. of Rev. Canon Mulock (she d.); and 2ndly, Emma, dau. of John A. Torrance.—102 Lisgar St., Ottawa; Rideau Club.

CASSELS, Walter Gibson Pringle, Q. C., bro. of the preceding, is the 4th s. of the late Robt. Cassels. B. in the city of Quebec, Aug. 14, 1845, he was ed. at the High Sch., Quebec, and at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., 1865). He was called to the bar, 1869, and became a partner in the law firm of Blake, Kerr & Boyd, with which firm, and its successors, he has remained up to the present time. Mr. C. was created a Q. C., by the Marquis of Lorne, 1883. He was elected Presdt. of the Toronto Golf Club, 1895. He is a mem. of the Ang. Ch., and a mem. of the Comte. of the Toronto Ch. Sch. He m. Sept., 1873, Susan, 2nd dau. of Robt. Hamilton, "Hamwood," Quebec.—70 Grosvenor St., Toronto, Ont.; Toronto Club; Rideau Club.

CASSIDY, John Joseph, M.D., is the s. of Jas. Cassidy, a native of