

ILLUSTRATIONS

	Opposite Page
Frontispiece—The Author	—
Wm. S. Sims, Admiral U. S. Navy.....	—
Late Colonel W. Hart-McHarg.....	—
On the way to Valcartier, Quebec, August 25th, 1914.....	1
S. S. Virginian, (some of the originals), October 12th, 1914.....	1
Our first camp in England, "West Downs South".....	1
Artillery "dug-out"—East front, 1914.....	1
Types of Russian Officers at Fort Zorndorf.....	32
Courtyard Fort Zorndorf (showing author and French, Russian and British officers who worked in tunnel).....	32
Types of German soldiers guarding us in 1916.....	32
Russian Priest at Fort Zorndorf, Prussia, who was taken prisoner early in the war.....	33
Types of Russian Officers taken prisoners in East Prussia in 1914.....	33-65
Specimen of paper money given prisoners.....	64
One of the many Armenians in the Russian army.....	64
H. M. S. Glory from the deck of the S. S. Virginian.....	65
Bischofswerda Officers Prison Camp (showing how courtyard was divided off by barbed wire) and visit by Zeppelin.....	65
Widow's Weeds	80
Widow's hat and veil (showing how frame was made from wire found in the garden at Augustabad, Mecklenburg.....	80
Author and Lieut. Thepault of the French army, (showing bars on window of guard room).....	81
Showing one of the passports made by the officers at Fort Zorndorf, similar ones of which helped several Russians to cross the frontier into Holland	81
Our room at Bischofswerda Camp.....	81
Major Scudamore, who escaped in a basket.....	81
Bischofswerda Officers Prison Camp, Saxony.....	96
Different nationalities at Bischofswerda.....	96
On the S. S. Virginian, October 8th, 1914.....	97
Some of the Russian Officers who advanced into East Prussia, (photograph taken in a billet, just before the Germans at- tacked, when many of them were taken prisoners).....	97
Red Cross wagons leaving Valcartier for the front, Sept. 28th, 1914	97
The two Belgian Officers who helped me to escape from Augusta- bad, Mecklenburg.....	128
Winter campaign in the East—These Russians were taken prisoners a few days after this photograph was taken.....	129
Valcartier Camp, September 17th, 1914.....	129
How the Germans use bloodhounds to trace prisoners who escape....	144
Showing how we were guarded. Sentries placed every 20 or 25 yards apart.....	144