case his own, and having so induced the Archbishop to interfere, sent him the promised sum which was taken from the Secret Service Fund placed at the disposal of his Government by Parliament, with the following letter:—

" (Private and strictly confidential.)

" Ottawa, Dec. 27th, 1871.

"My Dear Lord Archeishor,—I have been able to make the arrangement for the individual that we have talked about. I now send you a sight draft on the Bank of Montreal for $1,000. I need not press upon your Grace the importance of the money being paid to him periodically (say monthly or quarterly) and not in a "lump, otherwise the money would be wasted and our embarrassments begin again.

"The payment should spread over a year.

" Believe me, Your Grace's very obedient servant,

" JOHN A. MACDONALD.

"His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface, "Manitoba."

That from the same evidence, it further appears, that Sir G. E. Cartier, Minister of Militia and Defence, afterwards communicated with Archbishop Taché, requesting that A. D. Lépine should be included in the same arrangement, and that the Archbishop was, on his return to Manitoba, further requested by Lieutenant Governor Archibald to procure the expatriation of the said persons, and in order to make a sufficient provision for the maintenance of themselves and their families, the Lieutenant Governor procured from the Hudson's Bay Company the further sum of £600, and that the Archbishop thereupon induced L. Riel and A. D. Lépine to consent to the request of Sir J. A. Macdonald, Sir G. E. Cartier, and A. G. Archibald, and that they departed accordingly, and they and their families received for their maintenance said sums of $1,000 and £600.

That thereafter, and during the General Election of 1872, L. Riel was contesting Provencher with Attorney General Clarke, when, at the request of Sir John A. Macdonald, First Minister and Minister of Justice, Lieutenant Governor Archibald arranged that both the said Candidates should retire, in order that Sir G. E. Cartier, Minister of Militia, might be elected for the County, and he was elected accordingly, and publicly received and acknowledged the congratulations of L. Riel and A. D.

Lépine on the event.

That from the same evidence, it further appears that Sir John A. Macdonald, First Minister and Minister of Justice, gave assurances to Archbishop Taché, to his Quebec colleagues and others, that he would on his intended visit to England press on Her Majesty's Government to take up the question, thinking that they might see their way to granting a complete amnesty without the Canadian Government being responsible for it, to which he had no objection, and which would, he believed, be loyally accepted by the Canadian people.

That in the opinion of this House, it is not for the honor or interest of Canada that the question of amnesty should remain longer in its present shape.

That in the opinion of this House, the facts developed in the said evidence cannot be ignored by the people or the Parliament of Canada, and must be considered in the expression of their views as to the disposition of the question.

That in the opinion of this House, it would be proper, considering the said facts, that a full amnesty should be granted to all persons concerned in the North-West troubles for all acts committed by them during the said troubles, saving only L. Riel, A. D. Lépine, and W. D. O'Donohue.

That in the opinion of this House, it would be proper, considering the said facts, that a like amnesty should be granted to L. Riel and A. D. Lépine, conditional on five years' banishment from Her Majesty's Dominions.

We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Excellency will be pleased to take such steps as may be best calculated to carry into effect the measures which we have
