Sport Wants a Lively One.

Moosomin, Sask., July 7, 1910. Sir.—I have been a very interested reader of your valued columns for some two years now and must say that there is no magazine I like to see come into the house any better than your monthly. I think that the correspondence pages are the best part of it and take a lot of enjoyment out of them. I may say that I am a young fellow of 19, have blue eyes and am considered very good looking, although nothing to write home about in my opinion. In regard to habits, I may say that I smoke but am a teetotaler, although I think that if I wanted to have a drink that I would take one. I would like to correspond with some girl who is something of a sport. I mean by that, one that is not dead but goes out for a good time, and anyone that answers this letter will get one in return. I enclose herewith a couple of letters which I would like you to kindly forward to the respective personages. Thanking you, and trusting to see my first letter in print, I remain yours very truly "Sport"

A Young Scotch Canadian.

Indianford, Man., July 11, 1910. Sir.—Being a reader of your magazine, I am greatly interested in your correspondence columns. I am a farmer's son and do not agree with "The Doctor" in Feb. issue, for I think the farmers are the backbone of Canada. I suppose I should describe myself as it seems to be the custom. I am a Scotch Canadian, 20 years old, weigh 130 lbs., and am 5 ft. 3 1/2 inches tall. Like "Sunny Nell," my height is my sensitive point, but let us hope, "Sunny Nell," that this will improve despite the predictions of our friends. I do not smoke or chew and am a member of the Royal Templars of Temperance. I would like correspondents from both sexes and would especially like to receive letters from "Sunny Nell" and the "Heavenly Twins." I will reply to all correspondents promptly. I would also like to hear from amateur photographers. Photographing is one of my hobbies. I would be willing to exchange snapshots with other amateurs. I will now close, begging your pardon, Mr. Editor, for taking up so much of your valuable space. Correspondents will find my address with the Editor.

"Snapshot Jim."

Has Always Lived on a Farm.

Margaret, Man., August 21, 1910. Sir.—I have been an interested reader of your valuable paper for some time now, and I must say that I enjoy reading the correspondence very much. Some of the letters are very interesting, while others are very foolish, and I think that it is very nice for the young people to correspond with one another. Now, boys, any who would like to write to "Rainbow" will get my address with the editor. Well, as it seems to be the rule to describe one's self, I will do the same. I am 5 ft. 6 in. tall, weigh 130 lbs., am under 25, have medium brown hair and blue eyes. I am very fond of amusements, such as singing, skating and dancing. I have lived on a farm all my life and I like the country very much. Wishing the W. H. M. every success, and thanking the Editor for time and space, I sign myself "Rainbow."

Oh! How Lonesome!

Portage la Prairie, Aug. 1st, 1910. Sir.—I am very interested in your splendid paper, especially the correspondence column. I am an Irish girl, and have been in this country two years, and would like to correspond with some nice manly Western bachelor. I am 23 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches tall, weigh 131 pounds, and have dark hair and brown eyes. I am considered a good cook, and am fond of horses and chickens, but will not feed pigs. I can play the organ, and am of a loving disposition. I think it is rather foolish how some girls talk about Western bachelors drinking and smoking. For my part, I believe it does not hurt a man to do either. A good man knows how to treat his wife well. I hope some one will correspond with me. Lonesome Maiden.

A New Arrival from the East.

Castor, Alta., Aug. 4th, 1910. Sir.—I am an Eastern Canadian girl, who has spent three years in the West, and done about everything else but write to the Western Home Monthly. I have always liked to read the letters, as well as the other pages of the paper, and think it is all good. I have just come to a new town, and have not made many acquaintances here yet, but like Alberta best of the Western provinces. This town is booming now, and is full of people (all strangers to one another), but all free and kind to each other. It is quite a sight to see the cars unloading, as there is such an endless variety of stuff, and to see the big loads leave for the country. I admire the people who face such difficulties with such marvellous light-heartedness. One scarcely ever hears any one murmur or complain, all are looking forward to good times ahead. I notice that most of the writers describe their looks, but I don't think complexion is essential for friendship, although one can have some idea from the expression of a face as to what character a person has. I am on the shady side of 25, and take rather a serious view of life, but most of my correspondents say I can write a good letter, so if any one wishes for a letter from this part of the West I shall be pleased to answer any who write me. Wishing all the members success. Lonesome Peg.

A New Suggestion.

July 17th, 1910. Sir.—I sent you a letter some time ago, but I guess it must have found its way to the waste paper basket. I hope this one will fare better. In this correspondence column the matrimonial question appears to be about the only matter discussed. I suppose the reason is because everybody is interested in that question. Now, I propose a new discussion. Just now there is a problem appearing before the nation, and therefore is of national interest, and that is woman suffrage. Many prominent men and women are taking up the question—some for it, and others against it. Now, for my part I am against it, as I do not think women were ever intended to take the responsibilities of men or the place of men. Woman's place is in the home and the home life. All children that have left the home nest and gone out to do battle with the world, be they young or old, have a picture in their memory that can never be forgotten, and that is a picture of their home and their mother, and these two are inseparable—home and mother, mother and home. We never think of the home without the mother, and although we may not realize it, that loving influence is felt all through our lives, and our lives are moulded accordingly. Now, if our mothers had had woman suffrage we could not have that influence or memory to cherish, and, besides all this, women were intended to be helpmates such as they are to-day. This is as it should be, and they are in their place. We all love women, and would find it hard to get along without them in our homes. We enjoy making sacrifices for their pleasure, and protecting them with our lives if necessary; but if they were allowed suffrage this would all be changed. Now, I suppose some of the fair sex will be saying this is some old cranky bachelor or woman-hater, but this is not the case, as I love women, and would not like to live without them, although I am a bachelor. Now, I will give my description, and I hope some of the fair sex will be pleased to correspond with me, as I love to receive and read long letters, and will answer all. I am 26 years old, fair complexion, 5ft. 4in. in height, and weigh 145 lbs., and fairly good-looking, and would be pleased to exchange photos. My address is with the Editor. Fiddlesticks.

NEARLY MAD WITH SICK HEADACHE

There are few people who have never experienced a sick headache, and those who have not may be considered very lucky, as it is one of the most aggravating headaches a person can have. There is only one way to prevent these horrible headaches and that is, to get rid of the cause.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

will do this for you. Miss M. Denney, Edmonton, Alta., writes: "I wish to write you of your splendid remedy, Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills as a cure for Sick Headache. I have been nearly mad with headaches for nights together, and have not been able to close my eyes. I was working at a lady's house and she told me of your Laxa-Liver Pills. I took four vials of them and I have not been troubled with a headache for about six months."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or will be mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
