Page 4

Bladen Defends Per Capita.. Asks Doubled Student Aid

The Bladen Report favours uates.

The Bladen Commission is a uate schools enough students of non-governmental group set up high calibre to meet the needs of by the Association of Universi- universities, government, and ties and Colleges of Canada business." (AUCC). Headed by Dean Bladen of the University of Toronto, it enrolment is recommended for released its long-awaited report the undergraduate level, however. in Ottawa Oct. 6.

ed to remain at an average of graduate enrolment. It takes the $500, according to the report, be- AUCC predictions as "the best cause federal operating grants to estimate we have of the rising universities should be increased demand" of students for undertwo-and-a-half fold immediately. graduate education.

John Young explaining yet another esoteric part of Accounting and Commerce. (Dal Photo)

To allow this demand to be met The graduate student should "free education" for graduate be fully, or almost fully, support-students but not for undergrad- ed" by grants of at least $2,000 ernments give priority to capital grants and bursaries, and "resist in order to "attract into the gradition of fees."

No such attempt to influence The report makes no judgment Undergraduate fees are expect- as to desireable levels of underwould not meet with success.

These projections predict that the present rate of 9.2 students per population in the 18 to 24 group will rise to 13.2 by 1970 and 15.7 by 1975.

"There is a danger of friction" the report says, "between those us."

mends, based on:

for fees and expenses (e.g. $1,500) between provinces. * minus, an estimate of summer earnings (e.g. $200 to $500) tem, the report says that it is up come.

argue that parental responsibility grants. for education should end at age 18," the report says that most parents have historically been Commission are: willing to pay, as far as possible. the cost of their children's education.

"As long as the parental responsibility is recognized by the majority, it does not seem reasonable to allow the dissenting ies than loans. parent or the dissenting student to impose the cost of his dissent on the community," the report states.

If such students are to be aided, the reports adds, it should be through loan rather than bursaries.

The report says that an average to $250.00. of $600 per student will be needed to supplement earnings and par- per capita, to meet 50 per cent ory chapter, then what is needed 60 per cent of this should be in the form of bursaries. student activity buildings."

In 1964-65, the report says, undergraduates needed $59 million in bursary aid, rather than strong academic representation, the $24 million that was avail- to divide all operating and capital grants among universities. able.

The report claims its bursary to know "well in advance how provincial control. much assistance he would receive." and would "minimize the eral cabinet be assigned to cowith means testing." universities.

A Critique of the Bladen Report

THE DALHOUSIE GAZETTE

BOB RABINOVITCI

rolments can be achieved without pected with great anticipation, for although it was to be a report of anxiety that greater demands a committee of the Canadian Unito help solve some of the most versities Foundation, it had been hoped that the Bladen Commission limiting context and exert leadership in solving the great problems facing higher education in Canada today, and for the coming decade. who do not attend university and needs of universities for funds, tent with meeting normal expanthose who do, if the former feel the report notes the criticism sion of demand for higher educa- Bladen Report does not make any its present condition. failed to meet costs of provinces to analyse to any degree of satis-

that special fiscal needs should be logical, or even financial barriers to our American neighbor? However, rebutting "those who met by general equalization presently exist to the undertaking > commendations of the Bladen er education in Canada is the problem of financing the normal * an increase of federal per growth of demand for education. capita operating grants to univer- Although this is recognized as a sities from $2.00 to $5.00, efserious problem and although the mined to increase.

fective this academic year. Commission is to be complimentwith more emphasis on bursar- this problem, nevertheless the provincial governments Canada is the loss of brain power

* federal capital grants of $5.00 ties "excluding residences and highly trained, and highly educated people." (Report, p. 2) As the Report.

* provinces should establish annual report on the Economic "Grants Commissions" with Council of Canada has stated, "The potential Canadian economy we visualize for 1970 is a high standard of living, and a high em-* that all federal funds to higher ployment economy, and it must disappointing. For in many ways formula would enable the students education be distributed under therefore be a high education chapter 5 represents a rejection that one Minister of the fedty economy, . . ." inquisition usually associated ordinate all federal assistance to ed in the Report are not designed the popular pressure for the abol-Commission on the Financing of mission has not fulfilled the to maintain our present system of absurd since the retention of tuihigher Education in Canada, I am promise and the report brought education with its obvious unfair, tion fees maintains the status quo.

it does not attempt to analyse or gested by the Robbins Committee tioned fear. As Dean Bladen has that "if in any country educational said, "the case against free tuibasic problems facing the de- investment in general and invest- tion and against free education, velopment of education in this ment in higher education in par- tuition plus stripend, is then eswould rise above this potentially country. Rather, it is satisfied ticular falls appreciably behind sentially based on an anxiety to with a mere expansion of the ex- what is undertaken elsewhere, achieve the full expansion we have isting per capita grant system. then, in the long run, general proposed." Herein lies the crux All this does in effect is help earning power is liable to be af- of the matter. This report is not perpetuate the existing barriers fected far beyond anything that we at all interested in those that are to universal accessibility to high- may have foregone in the way of not attending university but rather In dealing with the increased er education. This system is con- pecuniary return on investment in is solely interested in the mainthe individuals concerned." The tenance of the university plant in they are paying the latter to live submitted by some Maritime uni- tion as has been projected by Ed- attempt to narrow the gap that On pages 64 to 65 of the Rebetter and to achieve higher stat- versities that per capita grants ward Sheffield. It does not attempt presently exists with respect to port, Dean Bladen has given a the number of people undertaking most brilliant defence of free A means test should be used with a higher than average ratio faction the problem of the com- education in Canada and U.S. If education at the graduate level. for bursaries, the report recom- of students to population. It was paratively low percentage of the we accept the premise suggested Dean Bladen seems to be suggestalso pointed out that they took college age population that is at- by Dean Bladen that education is ing a unique educational system in * a conventional agreed amount no account of inequality of income tending university in Canada as a most important factor in the which education is free until the compared to that attending uni- growth of the gross national pro- end of the secondary level; stu-Defending the per capita sys- versities in the United States. duct, as indeed we do accept this dents are then forced to pay for If one reads the Report care- premise, are we then, as Cana- the next four years; and if the * minus, a percentage (e.g. to each province to decide how far fully, one is left with the impress- dians, doomed to the role of a student continues, he again re-10%) of the parents' taxable in- to expand higher education, and ion that no sociological, psycho- second class nation with respect ceives free education. Is Dean Bladen thus suggesting that only Furthermore, if Denison's es- the education undertaken at the of higher education. It would seem timate that over 43% of the rate undergraduate level is not of be-In summation, the major re- that the sole problem facing high- of growth can be attributed to ed- nefit to society? Is he also sugucation proves accurate, then we gesting that the undergraduate is must conclude that the differential the only one who can afford to in the standard of living between pay for education? It is at the Canada and the U.S. is predeter- undergraduate level that the student is hit by the full brunt of

However, this need not be the foregone earnings for the first * a doubling of student aid, ed for its thorough analysis of case if we as Canadians have the time. It is at the undergraduate courage to undertake the massive level that a truly voluntary demajor problem facing education in reforms presently necessary in cision to continue education must education. Unfortunately the be made. At no other period in should "resist the popular pres- to this country as a consequence Bladen Commission has refused educational development are sure for the abolition of fees." of the incomplete development of to accept the responsibility of there more sociological and psy-* graduate students should be human potential. If we are to leading this revolution but is in- chological deterrents to the afgiven "generous support" to pay maintain the age of growth that stead merely satisfied with token firmative education decision. It the Economic Council of Canada reforms that merely perpetuate is at this level that Dean Bladen * government scholarships has suggested is necessary, if the status quo. Although we fully wishes to maintain what many ecbased on merit should be limited we are to maintain the rate of endorse total academic freedom onomists and educators believe a growth to which the Commission of students and professors, the most serious barrier to higher pays lip service in its introduct- university must be at the service education - the tuition fee. Dean of the nation, rather than the na- Bladen's defence of this antiquatental contributions, and says that of the capital costs of universi- is a "supply of highly intelligent, tion at the service of the univer- ed institution is irrational and sity as is implied by the Bladen unacceptable. Canada needs more undergraduates as muchas it

Dean Bladen's chapter on the needs more and more graduate economics of Education and in students. One of the most excellparticular his attempt at develop- ent defences of the case for the ing a rationele for the mainten- elimination of the tuition fee and ance of the tuition fee is most the case against loan and bursary of an increased rate of growth that was so forcefully propound-

Dean Bladen contends that

Wednesday, October 6, 1965

arising from our discussions of systems is presented by Dean the economics of the problem, for Bladen in his defense of free edsome use of the price mechanism ucation at the graduate level. But and against completely free ed- the development of undergraduate ucation". Although completely education is today our most free education is a contentious is- pressing social problem, and all sue, his corollary that the tuition the arguments presented for free fee must remain is shocking. His education at the graduate level rationele, that to ask the govern- are, at least, as valid when apment to absorb the tuition fee _Please turn to page seven-might in effect jeopardize the pro-After reading the Report of the Unfortunately the Bladen Com- growth but are designed merely gramme he has presented, is most foregone earnings, the report suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with its suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with the suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with the suggests that its projected en-relevant to capacity disappoint-to ment and disillusionment with the suggest of the sugges

Hello, Sue. Hi, Pat. Well, you're right. About what? About Tampax tampons. Don't tell me! Yep, I'm a user. Isn't that great? never thought-Never thought what . They'd be so comfortable. Oh, Pat, I told you Sorry I was so silly Not to believe me? No. To wait so long Welcome to the tribe

We'll die without you A thriving Atlantic weekly newspaper requires universitystudents for the following positions: Council Report-

The whole campus is talking about it all their expenses.

economy, a high resource mobili-The recommendations contain- ed in the first chapter. to help achieve this increase in "there is still a very strong case

Tampax is available in three absorbency-sizes (Regular, Super and Junior) wherever such products are sold.

The Dal Canteen has New Hours They're open till 11:00 Every Night with Meals, snacks, coffee JOIN THE IN-CROWD Dal's Canteen EVERY P.M. "Come on over and sit a-spell" and remember "Put yourself Everyone's Doing It!!! in the picture"

er Music Critic Researchers	INVENTED BY A DOCTOR- NOW USED BY MILLIONS OF WOMEN
Features Writ- ers Secretary to the	TAMPAX INTERNAL MENSTRUAL PROTECTION IS MADE ONLY BY CANADIAN TAMPAX CORPORATION LIMITED. BARRIE, ONT.
Editor Typists Reporters oply now to the	CANADIAN TAMPAX CORPORATION Limited, Barrie, Ontatio. Please send me in plain wrapper a trial pack- age of Tampax. I enclose 10e to cover cost of mailing. Size is checked below. ( ) REGULAR ( ) SUPER ( ) JUNIOR
Dalhousie Gazette	Name (Please print) Address City Prov. D-39
Gazpiip	City D-39

Before YOU go ANYWHERE SEE US!

Fill this coupon out and you may save on your travel costs.

Name
Address & Phone No.
I plan to go to
I plan to travel by I plan to leave on Clip coupon — put Drop into Dalhousie

WE CAN ARRANGE BIG TRAVEL SAVINGS BY PLANNING GROUP FARES BERISON TRAVEL HELPS STUDENTS GET THERE (and cheaper too) 47 Argyle Street - Phone 423-8263