me - but they have not done so, so now I write and ask you if you for old acquaintance sake will send me a copy for I should ~~so~~ like to read it - Then some little time ago looking through some old letters I found one where you tell me all about the sad death of your dear friend, and I decided to put it off no longer, but write you and tell you how interested I am in your book and ask you how the world fares with you.

Some years have passed since I went to America, and also I have not been back since, though I may go some day if a play that I have translated together with an American will be put on there - as we have some hope of it. It is a very beautiful play
