

2
32356
Mother, my thought have you to that dear one whose home I loved to visit & whom I hope to see again.
I always told her that I would nurse her if she needed me & here I am, away off at the front & at present not able to get home.

I am anxiously awaiting news.

I know you are too busy but I'm hoping someone will let me know.

I must go to bed now for there is a French attack tonight & aircraft are busy

32356
6/4/17.

Dear Sister

It has been my intention ^{for some time} to write to you your Mother but in a letter received from my Mother today I learn that she is very ill, so I am writing to you instead.

In spite of shrapnel falling in our midst, the dressing of patients' wounds & an afternoon in the operating