Ottawa, 25th June, 1917.

Sir,

Our Inspector at Red Deer has informed that he has heard that the park near Hardisty is over stocked with buffalo and it has been suggested that this Department might be able to secure a sufficient number to start a herd on the Stony Reserve. Will you have the kindness to advise whether buffalo could be obtained for the purpose suggested and if so what would likely be the cost per animal?

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J.B.Harkin, Esq.,

Commissioner,

Dominion Parks Branch,

Department of the Interior,
