

By the same Author

THE DAWN BY GALILEE

With 6 illustrations in three colours. Price 1s. net.

Undoubtedly the author who can write with such masterly touch of "The Sky Pilot," has a message not only for his own church, but for all; and in this new illustrated booklet, Ralph Connor has given a new and beautiful setting to the Gospel narrative of Christ and His Disciples by the Sea of Galilee.

THE ANGEL AND THE STAR

Illustrated in colour, 1s. net.

"The beautifully got-up and chastely worded booklets of the late Professor Drummond are recalled by this work of the Canadian author of 'The Sky Pilot.' It does not depend for its success on its letterpress alone, for coloured illustrations add to the value of the two imaginative descriptions of the visit of the Shepherds and the Magi to Bethlehem. As a rule we do not care for the weaving of a fancy tale round the sacred scenes of the Gospel story, but Ralph Connor has succeeded in adding to the Gospel narrative details which do not deprive it of its charm, because they are in accord with its spirit. We recommend those who wish to send to their friends something better than a card to purchase this souvenir of Christmas friendship."—Record.

THE LIFE OF JAMES ROBERTSON, D.D.

By CHARLES W. GORDON (RALPH CONNOR).

In his own inimitable style Ralph Connor pictures for us the man who never failed nor hesitated during twenty-five years of crowded work as superintendent over the Canadian North-West. It is the life-story of a great missionary by a great novelist, who has made that missionary, in many guises, the hero of many of his novels.

"It shows throughout a man of exceptional strength of will. . . . The reader will find not only the picture of a great man, but also not a little that is interesting and illuminating about religious life in Canada."—Spectator.

"Ralph Connor has given a delightful account of the strenuous life of James Robertson, the great Presbyterian missionary pioneer of Canada."—Daily Chronicle.

Illustrated, 6s.

LONDON: HODDER & STOUGHTON

