

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER II.

VALUABLE BREEDS OF HORSES COMPARED.

Section 1.—French Breeds.—Percheron vs. Norman.—The Percheron Stud Book.—Medium French Horses.—The Horse of Arden. Section 2.—English Breeds.—The Thoroughbred Impress. Section 3.—Breeds Valuable in America.—Draft Horses. Section 4.—The Thoroughbred and its Uses. Section 5.—The Trotting Horse and its Uses. Lowering Records. Section 6.—Pacing and Pacing Horses. Section 7.—Draft Horses Compared. Section 8.—General Purpose Horses. Section 9.—Carriage Horses. Section 10.—Driving Horses. Section 11.—Pure Bred vs. Thoroughbred.

45

CHAPTER III.

THOROUGHBRED HORSES.

Section 1.—Derivation of Thoroughbreds. Section 2.—The Modern Thoroughbred. Section 3.—The American Thoroughbred. Section 4.—North and Southern Rivalry on Turf.—The Settlement of the Question. Section 5.—Influence of Cattle on Thoroughbreds. Section 6.—The Practical Value of Thoroughbreds. Section 7.—Saddle Horses.

49

CHAPTER IV.

TROTTING AND ROAD HORSES.

Section 1.—Prepotence. Section 2.—The Road Horse. Section 3.—Adaptation of the Means to an End. Section 4.—Double Teams. Section 5.—Single Driving Horses. Section 6.—Fast Trotting Horses. Section 7.—A Horse of Many Uses.

52

CHAPTER V.

DRAFT HORSES.

Section 1.—Clydesdales.—Points of the Clydesdale Horse. Section 2.—English Shire Horse. Section 3.—English Cart Horse. Section 4.—The Norman-Percheron Horse. Section 5.—French Horses in the United States. Mr. Klippart on French Horses. Section 6.—The Flemish Horse.—Section 7.—Modified Draft Horses. 56

CHAPTER VI.

DRAFT AND SHOW TEAMS FOR CITIES.

Section 1.—Trained Teams. Section 2.—Requirements for City Teams. Section 3.—Weight Carriers. Section 4.—Heavy Draft for Cities. Section 5.—Light Draft Horses in Cities.

60

CHAPTER VII.

SOME FACTS ABOUT BREEDING.

Section 1.—Variation from Changed Conditions. Section 2.—Variations in Animals by External Influence. Section 3.—Opposite Characteristics between Horses and Cattle. Section 4.—Natural Characteristics of the Horse. Section 5.—Training vs. Breaking. Section 6.—About Driving Horses. Section 7.—An Arab Maxim in Breeding.

62

CHAPTER VIII.

REQUISITES TO SUCCESSFUL HORSE BREEDING.

Section 1.—A Study of Principles. Section 2.—Stonehenge's Theory of Generation. Section 3.—Breeding for a Purpose. Section 4.—The Breeder's Art. Section 5.—The Farmer as a Breeder. Section 6.—How to Select a Mare.—Important Qualifications. Section 7.—The Stallion in Breeding.

66