PRAYER.

BY ARCHBISHOP TRENCH.

When prayer delights thee least, then learn to say,
"Soul, now is thy greatest need that thou shouldst pray."

Crooked and warped I am, and I would fain
Straighten myself by Thy right line again.

Say! What is prayer—when it is prayer, indeed?
The mighty utterance of a mighty need.

The man is praying who doth press with might
Out of his darkness into God's own light.

The greenest leaf, divided from its stem,
To speedy withering doth itself condemn.

The largest river, from its fountain head,
Cut off, leaves soon a parched and dusty bed.

All things that live, from God their sustenance wait;
The sun and moon are beggars at His gate.

All skirts extended of thy mantle hold,
When angel lands from heaven are scattering gold.

Malto-Yerbine

As a substitute for Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Diseases I have obtained the happiest results, and in several cases where the Oil had been administered for a considerable time without exhibiting any beneficial change, I have been enabled to effect a complete cure by giving MALTO-YERBINE and MALTINE with PEPSIN and PANCREATINE in conjunction with a few other simple remedies.—
