

Father Quinlivan, and he resolved that the last resting-place of these victims should not longer remain without a memorial. Cap des Rosiers is the lowest point on the St. Lawrence where any of the victims of 1847 are known to lie. He appealed to some of his parishioners, with the result that a beautiful red granite monument has been prepared, bearing suitable inscriptions commemorating the sad event. The monument is artistic, and is now complete. It has been erected on the proper site under the supervision of Hon. Justice Curran, and it is gratifying to know that the victims of more than a century ago are not forgotten.
