GOSSIP

W. D. Dyer, Columbus, Ont., writes:

"The Shropshire sheep I advertise in this issue are good specimens of the breed, in fair condition off grass. The lambs are sired by Harrington's Victor, an imported Nock ram, which has proved himself a grand sire. The rest of my flock has done well, and would be no disgrace to any man's flock."

In the list of sales of pure-bred stock by Mr. Chas. E. Bonnycastle, Campbellford, Ont., in our August 31st issue, page 1238, the word Cotswolds was omitted where it is indicated that the offering of sheep for this season was purchased by Mr. Robt. Miller. Cotswold sheep are Mr. Bonnycastle's specialty in that line, of which he has raised many very good ones.

AYRSHIRES FOR JAPAN.

Mr. W. W. Stephen, of Huntingdon, Que., writes: "Representatives of the Japanese Government were in Quebec recently making a selection of Ayrshire heifers. They were Mr. Nishimuro and Dr. Y. Ishizaki, and were purchasing for the Government farm at Nauatsukahara, near Hiroshima, Japan, where they breed Ayrshires very extensively and give them out to the small farmers in Japan. They have concluded that the Ayrshire breed is the best suited to their climatic and soil conditions. These gentlemen were experts at selecting animals of the correct dairy type, as they had frequently made selections in Scotland. Hearing of the famous Ayrshires of Canada, they have turned their attention here, and in conversation with your correspondent, stated they were well pleased with our country, and thought we had a most fertile and beautiful farming country here. They were well pleased with our Ayrshires, but as they were wanting only choice heifers between two and three years of age, coming in in October and November, the supply to choose from was limited, so they did not get as many here as they would have wished. Had they taken heifers coming in from January to April, they could have got a large number. However, they selected five heifers and one bull from the herd of R. R. Ness, Howick, Que., as follows: An imported three-year-old heifer, Little Killmore, a beautiful heifer nearly white in color, with prospects of a grand udder; also another heifer of his own breeding, Gaily of Woodside, from imported stock; Luna Lockerby of Burnside; Mayflower of Burnside; Mime of Burnside. These latter five were all bred by Mr. R. R. Ness from his imported bull, Duke of Clarence, and were all beautiful heifers, showing good dairy conformation, and will improve the stock wherever they go. They also secured from Mr. Ness one of his imported young bulls, Cyllene, bred by Andrew Mitchell, Barcheskie, Scotland. To say he was a good one is drawing it mild, for he has few equals as a young bull. They also selected one each from the herds of Jas. Bryson, Brysonville, Que., Ethel of Point Round, a fine, typical dairy heifer; from J. Logan, Allan's Corners, a white heifer with few red spots, of splendid form, Sunnyside Maggie; from Geo. Bustard, Havelock, Janet, a spotted heifer of splendid quality. Several other herds were visited, but as the heifers were not coming in to suit them, they did not select any from them. They stated they would be back again to see us and select some more. Now that our breeders know what they want, they can have their heifers coming in at a time to suit them. I understand good prices were paid, and that they made selections from several herds in Ontario."
