Hope's Quiet Hour

Within thine heart is there an open

Breaks heaven's sweet delight across

If broken down are stony gates of The masses are crying to be taught, and they are preached to; they are

If shrouded bands of earth are torn away, If sin and wrath and scorn in thee have died, Mourn not the past. The folded shroud beside Angers will watch; it is thine Easter Day.

Rise, new-born soul, and put thine armor on:

Clasp round thy breast the garment of the light; Gird up thy loins for battle. In the fight

He leads who upward from our sight has gone; It is His day; there's no more death or night.

No dark, no hurt, no more sharp shame nor loss; 'neath the buried, hidden, grave's dark sod; All ways forgotten, save the road He trod:

Ad burdens naught in sight of Histhe cross All joy, alive and safe with Christ and God! -Mary Lowe Dickenson.

QUIET HOUR

Editor "Quiet Hour":

In a recent number of the "Farmer's Advocate," over the pen-name of "Faith," the subject of the so-called of religious feeling was lamented in such a way as to solicit a few words from me. As our friend Faith said, "There must be reasons for conditions, and remedies for those conditions, Many old will consider these. conceptions and superstitions have been either discarded or displaced by truer conceptions, and we are still under a load of misconceptions which we must get rid of. The old idea of a seven-day creation is fast losing ground. Our religious feeling has not lost ground, but faith in old conceptions of Truth. Religious feeling does not consist of clinging to errors, but in following the light of our soul. Now, let us consider the colleges. well-meaning people condemn would keep Truth and Light under a answer any question, provided a 2c. and finds the sunny south. The fish of instance where a misunderstanding bushel, rather than to have to restamp be enclosed for postage.

A. E. WAHN.

A. E. WAHN.

Light under a answer any question, provided a 2c. and finds the sunny south. The fish of instance where a misunderstanding the tropic gulfs have a mysterious may occur. While the professor may linguish their cherished faiths and beliefs. All that the general public As the church is made up of men cool spawning grounds. Nowhere in important nature of the riteral nargets from the colleges are a few in- and women who are far from perfect nature is there an unsatisfied longing, rative, I have no doubt he made it stances of the destructive or negative—either in wisdom, knowledge, good- an instinct unmatched by reality, clear that it was a literal record, teachings. Of the positive or con- ness or common sense—it would be Shall the only exception be man, containing spiritual wisdom for the structive side, one never hears any- a continual miracle if no mistakes with this institution. structive side, one never hears any- a continual miracle if no mistakes with this instinctive longing for im- education of his hearers. Supposing thing, so we—the public—conclude were made. Happiry, the tendency of mortality, planted in the breast of the professor had spent the periods there is no positive side. Our found- of human beings to go to extremes the lowest savage?

| Continual miracle if no mistakes with this instinctive longing for im- education of his hearers. Supposing there is no positive side. Our found- of human beings to go to extremes the lowest savage?

| Continual miracle if no mistakes with this instinctive longing for im- education of his hearers. Supposing the professor had spent the parable of the hour in proving the hour in proving the parable of the hour in ations are destroyed, and we have in opposite directions helps to keep Look at the old age of great men or to build upon or to build upon or to build with. We forget that there is an echarch cling to the precious trather souls reach out for larger man that went from Jerusalem to the charch cling to the precious trather souls reach out for larger man that went from Jerusalem to the present age hour in proving the parable of the prodigal Son was merely a siteral result. Some members of such as the late Gladstone. See how occurrence, and the parable of the charch cling to the precious trather souls reach out for larger man that went from Jerusalem to ditions of past ages so tenaciously things, never so vigorously. Every Jericho was similar to any story we pearances, and what one has heard is only as a little ripple on the surface the present age has also great its way as an advance in goodness and might read in the newspaper! As a only as a little ripple on the surface only as a little ripple on the surface the present age has also great ics- wisdom.

mass of educated and thinking people.
Religious feeling is found at the bottom of every human heart, but its

This was done once, and result was ience.

THINE EASTER DAY

Within thine heart is there an open tomb?

Have God's strong angels rolled the stone away?

Rises thy dead self from its bonds of clay?

Breaks heaven's sweet delight across the dark and gloom?

Then is this day in truth Easter Day.

bigotry we shut out the light of they are laid down in the grave, new knowledge or—on the other hand heavy soaking ourselves with every new soaking ourselves with every new soaking ourselves with every new theory, only to be squeezed dry and stitude? Because the church confilled up afresh by the next eloquent day on the very wind of clay?

Breaks heaven's sweet delight across the dark and gloom?

Then is this day in truth Easter Day.

bigotry we shut out the light of they are laid down in the grave, new knowledge or—on the other hand they confilled up afresh by the next eloquent that is revealed to us.

But it is enough, we know that wadvocate of a "new religion." We do not want to be like the Pharisees, bidebound with the chains of tradition; neither do we wish to be "chilled up afresh by the next eloquent the is." We are to be like Him, "for we shall down in the grave, new knowledge or—on the other hand they configuration, this dead, heavy earthly; but at that gentaction of their authors of the configuration, this dead, heavy earthly body shall arise living, light advocate of a "new religion." We do not want to be like the Pharisees, bidebound with the chains of tradition; neither do we wish to be "chilled up afresh by the next eloquent them, it is enough, we know that is revealed to us.

But it is enough, we know that we vould admit their fallibility and body shall arise living, light advocate of a "new religion." We are to be like the Pharisees, bidebound with the chains of tradition; neither do we wish to be "chilled up afresh by the next eloquent theory, only to be squeezed dry and advocate of a "new religion." We are to be like the Pharisees, bidebound with the chains of tradition; neither do we wish to be "chilled up afresh by the next eloquent theory, onl tom of every human heart, but its hunger for food must be satisfied or it dies.

LIVING FOR ETERNITY

This is true, so far as it goes; but The following letter and poem were he might have gone much farther. sent by our old friend, Mr. Tracy: Now, for the remedy for these condi- For the Christian need not trust, he Dear Hope,—I send a hymn, or tions. Some would say to stop all this should know. Immortality should prayer, I wrote some time ago for new teaching and adhere to the old. not be to him a faith, but an exper- my children. I do not claim to be reformation. And that is just what Before Christ came, men could only worth learning to my children, so the church is doing to-day, and the guess it. They could not rejoice in asked my Saviour to give me some result of it is that a new religion is such "Intimations of Immortality" thing, and I send you a copy. I trust being evolved at the present day, as Wordsworth recounts in his famous you will pardot all blunders when I The movement is already strongly in ode. A statesman once described in tell you that my father settled in a powerful address the responses to the township of Pickering when it a powerful address the responses to the township of Pickering when

If any of our readers are interested desires and instincts throughout na- was all bush, and I was about three only as a little ripple on the surface of the ocean. Some writer has written that an honest doubt will lead to a surer faith; and so it will, for, on investigation you will either prove or disprove it, and know it for to wriggle out of the bog of error and superstition toward a fuller. The church has, like the woman in our Lord's parable carelessly allow to the content age has also great los-wisdom.

"AS A HEN GATHERETH HER CHICKS UNDER HER WINGS"

But all these arguments seem need-concerning the falling away and concerning the falling away and concerni ruth.

Our Lord's parable, carelessly allowable decline of religious feeling. As her charge to fall out of her bands, it the dark ages the church tried to bid not the Lord of the church warn peep the masses within their small us that it would be so? Our business.

The church has, like the woman in about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung:

New Testament. What does Faint about this coming existence to satisfy our curiosity need not trouble us. As Helen Hunt Jackson sung: called decline of religious feeling. As her charge to fall out of her bands, in the dark ages the church tried to keep the masses within their small us that it would be so? Our business Less than enough to any soul to know fitable for doctrine, etc." Many are church of to-day. They do not at- it is easy to look down loftily and enclosure of thought, so does the is not to stand aloof and criticize—church of to-day. They do not attack these new teachings, nor do they recognize them. If they attack them, they would attack the very heart of vellous light of "new knowledge."

teachings of our colleges, and will be like, he will be pleased to saw before but feels moved to reach, young man at Kingston is a startling

A place designed

Just because religious feeling—as Fuller stood at a smith's forge and our correspondent says—"is found at saw him put into the fire a piece of the bottom of every human heart," cold, rusty iron, which he afterwards and we are all hungry for truth, we removed, bright and sparkling. "And are bound to walk warily, lest by thus," said he, "it is with the saved bigotry we shut out the light of they are laid down in the grave, throwledge or—on the other hand dead, heavy, earthly but at the live, in view of this splendid destiny: and they are preached to; they are crying for bread, and are given a Sir Walter Raleigh, the night bestone. The church, decrying or lamfore he died, wrote these lines, which enting the advanced thought of the were engraved on his tombstone: colleges, is losing hold on the large But from the earth, this grave, mass of educated and thinking people. -Amos R. Welis.

poet, but I did want something

EBENEZER TRACY.

A PRAYER

Take me, dear Saviour, as I am. A weak, unclean, and sinful man; need the cleansing of thy blood To make me fit to dwell with God. am so glad that I do know Thy blood can make me white as snow

This is my joy, my simple trust, To lean upon Thy loving breast. While thus I trust, how sweet the

It is unto my soul a feast; May this sweet peace, Lord, with me stay, Even unto the last great day. And when on earth my work is done, Then through the merits of Thy Son Give me a place at Thy right hand, In Thy glorious Heavenly Land. And when in that bright world above, So full of glory and of love, There all Eternity employ

In praising Thee with sweetest joy.

—E. T.

The great battle over the Bible in our day, though raging fiercery, it is not for those who have a living faith in divine Providence to be dismayed. Faith's reference to the hour in proving the parable of matter of fact, are not the parables coming to see the results and darkness of thus reading the Word of the to a fifting home such soul can the Bible is the Lord speaking unto go." us, and He speaks unto us in parable, unto u put thou?"

the Wo ideas. readers spirit Many upon v

and we fellows sions,

March

could 1 [wi ten to It is i a sma receive terferi eral ii welcor ly rea

Farme Dear acknov which encour vet 1

Throu 'Tis

The 1 Bury The

Arise

Wit

Hid

two I no na

your: er's two Chile my 1 They and sick, thou till addi back awal sym our She expe er a mue any has a w or t