LIVE IN THE SUNSHINE

Live in the sunshine, it lives in the gloom;
Carry some gladness where you'll go.

Live in the brightness, and take this to heart,
The world will be yours if it do you part.

Live on the bright tops, not down in the cell,
Open an Christianson's sunny and well.

Face where the pines are, and, nursing defeat,
Have a good notion for all whom you meet.

Live as the cedar, and, triumphing, go Through this queer world, bating down every tree.

TUESDAY

Be cheerful! Be cheerful!

Be cheerful! To better be in so than sad.
The bright, sunny smile will make others feel glad;
A sunny-tempered spirit is certain to please.
From of tempered people, friends seek a solace.

Art thou tried? Well, if so, try me to feel,
And thou art safe; for I am always there.
These letters encouraging to master thy goal,
And in perplexity, will surely obtain a solace.

Be cheerful! For as the religion will blossom,
In constant sweet fragrance of all things around;
O'er us, as a cloud, it will cast but a glimmer,
And others not, will seek a way to be found.

The bright side is the right side,

The old who waste know no fear,

The young who have the bright side,

The stout who have the bright side,

Where morning dawns sweetly

"In one grand, undivided,

Where justice reigns completely;

For o'er where things out.

MARGARET'S SPECIAL MESSAGE

Will the boys and girls of Canada write to me?

Will the mothers, teachers and parents write to me, and let me place Sunshine circles in the schools and homes in the best way of giving and the right way of receiving.

Please also thank my mother and teachers' Sunshine circle would be a good idea!

The neighborhood Sunshine circles proved of much benefit during last winter, because of loneliness and want came to light that would otherwise have been unnoticed.

So many the name "Sunshine" appeals very strongly. People who would never dream of spending their time in church organizations, seem to be all the more anxious to be a part of the organization.

In many cases prompt relief was obtained, and in all a little hope was restored and these dear souls went on their way rejoicing that at least a friend had been found for them and a hearty welcome awaiting them at home.

Then they wished to call again. See the G. G. Guide to the teachers. Helped them on the beautiful work of not only teaching knowledge but also helpfulness and kindness and cheerfulness all work in the homes and school. All could remember the ready smile, working with heart and cheer for Sunshine, and in helping with the teacher finds that she herself is being benefited by the effort made. Write soon. Write often. I am so glad to hear from you.

MARGARET.

CHILDREN'S BADGE — FIVE CENTS
Don't you want one?

BOY, HAVE YOU A DOG?

Boy, have you a dog as playfellow? If you have not, you miss much that is enjoyable, that which will give you many happy hours. Especially if you have no brother or sister to play with, you are lonely. This boy that has a dog is the one I want to talk to. Do you know that you have no more faithful and devoted friend than a dog? He is always glad to see you, even if you come home ten times a day. No one else shows as much pure, unfeigned delight at your coming as he does. If you have been gone only half an hour, he meets you and wags his tail and smiles as plainly as can.

Did you ever stop to think that it is worth something to be appreciated, even by a dog? Do you know how good it makes him when he comes to meet you? Give him a kind word!

The next time you do, just notice how disappointed he looks. He shows the sadness that he feels just as plainly as he showed his joy. It is easy to say a kind word, as "Howdy," or "Well, Edie, I'm here," or "Glad to see me, are you?"

This will make him friend of joy and wiggle all over with delight.

PASSING THROUGH WINNIPEG

Dear Margaret: You will perhaps be a little surprised to hear from me, but as Violet Lamb is my little girl and she speaks so kindly of you young girls is a fine work, and should think it well done. It would be a great honor to girls engaged in business. Besides getting something done, they are given kind sympathy and a hand and help them on their way. I am sorry and the Soc. for Girls a great success, but I am afraid that it will be discontinued at night, and am sorry to say my hands and arms are getting more helpless. Oh! for more patience to bear my cross, and more thankfulness for my many successes.

I ought not to mention when I remember how many difficulties I have had to overcome. But also that flesh is weak. With kind regards, wishing you success in all your undertakings.

Yours sincerely,
MIRIAM.

Dear Miriam: Your ever welcome letter was a pleasure to me. I want you to remember that you need not wait to send something to "Sunshine".
Send me a card and I will be sure to get it.
I hope that you will be well all the time. I am particularly glad of news from us all as I am now preparing for Mr. Jones. The things he takes now are in preparation for the winter work and anything to serve the children is a help.

Miss M. Perrin, Goodlands, Man.—Many thanks for letter. You will agree with me that we are for 100 years with my mail that yours will not know for another week. Please accept my thanks for goods and good wishes. Write me more often.

BABY DOING FINELY

Dear Margaret: I am very pleased to tell you that our dear little baby is doing fine. He has grown quite fat and can now run about now.
He is just as good as he can be. I am sending you a picture of him. He is a real "toddler" and he loves the little turkeys and his is as gentle with them. I am teaching him to love and be good to all the animals. I am sending you a picture of him for long as I think it is better often to have the same look for him. He seems just like my own, now, and he makes lots of fun. Although he makes lots of work I would not be without my little boy of Sunshine.

Yours very sincerely,
A LOVER OF BABIES.

Glad, indeed, to have report of your Sunshine boy. You are a dear to have him as truly. You are still full of energy and I am sure he will be bright indeed. The first lesson he will learn and audience to them will be remembered all through life. Food does you both and may be continues through life a comfort to you. I will forward date, etc.

THE CHILD IN THE GLASS
The child who lives in the looking glass
Always watches to see me pass,
One day he was cross and cried,
Another day he was good and wide,
I had to laugh then she did too;
She always does just what I da.

QUEER
He doesn't like study—it "wreaks his eyes,"
But the right sort of book will reverse a surprise,
Let it be about Indians, pirates, or bears,
And he's fast for the day to all mundane affairs;
By night or day his vision is clear,
Now isn't that queer?

At thought of an errand he "feels as a hound,"
Very weary of life, and tiring around,
Biting his lip, he's a bandit in a circus in sight,
Will follow you all day till morning till night,
The showman will capture him some day, I fear,
For he is so queer.

If there's work in the garden, his head "aches insipid,"
And his face is so lame that he "can't stir a bit,"
But motion baseball, and he's cured very soon,
And hell dig for a woodchuck the whole afternoon.

Do you think he plays "possum"? He seems quite sincere,
But, isn't he queer?

SUNSHINE GIFT
Received from Mrs. Baillie $2.00 to be spent on Clarence Henderson.

A hammock was sent over at once so that our dear boy can stay out in the open air.
Case of fresh laid eggs from E. L. Louise, Mary-field, Sauganash. Accept our thanks. The eggs were greatly appreciated. Two dozen eggs sent to Clarence Henderson, two dozen to Mrs.
Wormbleton whose husband is dying having undergone a serious operation which has proved of no avail. Mr. Wormbleton is the son of a prominent man in Dublin, Ireland.

WHERE TO SEND SUNSHINE

wood, Mrs. Wormbleton, 322 Young St., Winnipeg.

THE QUESTION

Were the whole world good as you—not an atom better—

Were it just as pure and true,
Just as pure and true as you;

Just as free from sin and works;
Just as free from crafty quarks;

All extortions, all deceit;

Scheming its neighbor to defraud;

Scheming its neighbor to upend—

Would this world be better?

If the whole world followed you—followed to the letter—

Would it be a colder world,

All deceit and falsehood—burdened

From it altogether;

Malice, selfishness, and lust;

Baughed from beneath the crust

Of iron and stone, hearts from view—

Tell me, if it follows you,

Would the world be better?

—George Klinge, in Christian Work.
