OUR REGRET.

The blow has fallen. The threa of the excited few at election time has been carried out in cold blood by a majority of the License Com missioners—and in the name of Liberal-Conservatism! The Commissioners have "got even" with Irish

Jack—and his wafe, and his family.

To-day she Hotel Rankin—unquestionably one of the largest and best kept commercial houses in the whole of Western Ontario-is without L'cense.

It is idle to argue that there i any other reason to be advanced for the action than that of politics True, the Commissioners declined of ficially to give any reason—and that they were within their legal right in so doing. This was, perhaps, for tunate for them-but they have gone on record in an outraged public senti-ment among a people that know the house and know the man.

This journal, as an exponent of the principles of Liberal-Conservathe splendid, policy enunciated by Hon, Mr. Hanna, deeply deplores the act on taken. How the Commission ers, in view of the tremendous public sentiment existing in the ranks of Conservatism in our constituency could proceed as they have done, is beyond our ken. Surely so strong an expression as was evidenced in the position of the County and City Councils and the stand of such potent Conservative exponents as Messrs. Manson Campbell, William Ball, Dr J. L. Bnay, Reeve Cornelius Purser of Dover; County Commissioner Jas Chinnick, of Raleigh, and hundreds of others should have had some consideration at the hands of the Board.

That the action was taken in the name of L.beral-Conservatism is deplorable. It is precisely what we all so severely condemned in the Ross maladm nistration, and the Liberal-Conservatives of West Kent repudiate it. It is opposed to their prin ciples; it is opposed to the splendid stand of their esteemed leader, the Premier; it is opposed to the righteous policy of the Provincial Secre

The Conservatives of West Kent deeply deplore the stain which it ha been attempted to place upon the clean and creditable standard of Conservative principles in Ontario.

-----MYSTERIOUS PEOPLE

Awesome Importance an cretive Air They Affect.

Many people assume certain mainners as the assume certain clothes and change these manners more seldom than they change their clothes.
Some think it ingratiating to be perky.
Others think it more graceful to be drooping and melaneholy, to gaze wistfully, walk mountfully and sit as if before the baked meats of a funeral feast. But of all the people who indulge in travesty I think I get most amusement out of the mysterious people.

Bated, forever bated, is the breath of the mysterious person. Directly be comes into the room you are conscious of the presence of the unutterable and knew that it will speedily be uttered into your most private ear. When he weeks to you he "there we need to you he "there we need to you he." speaks to you he "takes you aside," so that none other may know that he is telling you that the weather is damp and that there is a deal of influenza about. As he discusses with you such dreadful subjects as the price of hob-hailed boots, the fluctuations of stocks and the economies of the administra-tion his head approaches yours, his lips pout secretively, his eyes glance round warily to make sure that no one is within earshot to betray him and you.

The gallows is surely in his men He wishes to avoid it; he wishes-kindly wretch-to save you from it also. Meet him halfway. It is such fun to do that. He responds sensitive ly to the slightest mysterious encour agement and thinks he is impressing you and that you believe him to be strange and remarkable personage and that you will go away and say: "Glad I met John Smith, Interesting man Not every day you come across a man like that"

Many women are mysterious. In-deed, I have met more mysterious women than mysterious men. The mysterious woman is often small, but her hats are large, plumed like a hearse and generally black as night. Pale is her face and languid her manper. She tries to look consumptive and succeeds surprisingly often. As a rule, she has little to say, but says it in such an awful manner that it takes on a fictitious importance and for the moment appears to be impressive.

Think over your acquaintances and friends. Are not some of them m. sterious, and are not they highly cosidered? Are not they called "interesting" on that account? There are many spurious things in the social world, but few things are more spurious than that reputation for being interesting which is gained by the mysterious manner. And half of the world at least is tricked, for everyday perkiness is called brilliance, mystery wisdom, assurance greatness and the pup-pet in the mask a giant in the sunpet in the mask a giant in the sun-shine. - Robert Hickens in Chicage Tribune.
