OUR REGRET.

The blow has fallen. The threat of the election few at election time has been carried out in cold blood by a majority of the License Commissioners—and in the name of Liberal-Conservatism! The Commissioners have "gone even" with Irish Jack—and his wife, and his family. To-day the Hotel Rankin—unquestionably one of the largest and best kept commercial houses in the whole of Western Ontario—is without a license.

It is idle to argue that there is any other reason to be advanced for the action than that of politics. True, the Commissioners declared officially to give any reason—and that they were within their legal right in so doing. This was, perhaps, fortunate for them—but they have gone on record in an outrageous public sentiment among a people that know the house and know the man.

This journal, as an exponent of the principles of Liberal-Conservatism and an admiring adherent to the splendid policy enunciated by Hon. Mr. Hanna, deeply deplores the action taken. How the Commissioners, in view of the tremendous public sentiment existing in the ranks of Conservatism in our constituency, could proceed as they have done, is beyond our ken. Surely so strong an expression as was evidenced in the position of the County and City Councils and the stand of such potent Conservative exponents as Messrs. Manson Campbell, William Ball, Dr. J. L. Bray, Reeve Cornelius Purser, of Dover; County Commissioner Jas. Chinnick, of Raleigh, and hundreds of others should have had some consideration at the hands of the Board.

That the action was taken in the name of Liberal-Conservatism is deplorable. It is precisely what we all so severely condemned in the Ross maladministration, and the Liberal-Conservatives of West Kent repudiate it. It is opposed to their principles; it is opposed to the splendid stand of their esteemed leader, the Premier; it is opposed to the righteous policy of the Provincial Secretary.

The Conservatives of West Kent deeply deplore the stain which it has been attempted to place upon the clean and creditable standard of Conservative principles in Ontario.

WOOLIVER-BAUGHMAN

The wedding of two very popular young people well known to our citizens took place at Brantford in the presence of relatives on Wednesday, June 28th, when Mr. Geo. Wooliver, of Wallaceburg, was united in marriage to Miss Ethel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Baughman. The wedding was attended by her brother, Clayton and Cove Murray, the latter acting as best man. We extend congratulations to the young couple.—Wallaceburg News.

Miss Ethel Baughman, the bride in the above mentioned ceremony, is a former Chatham girl, having lived here with her parents on Gray street for a number of years. Her many Maple City friends will join in extending congratulations.

OPENED THEIR EYES.

Formal Orders For Release.

Toronto, June 30.—Formal orders for the release of the two Pers Marquette Railway officials were issued yesterday at Osgoode Hall. If the Dominion Government is granted leave to appeal this case to the Privy Council, they will call upon the Attorney-General of Ontario to support their claim that the Legislature of Ontario should enforce deportation. It is said that the Dominion Government has no power to deprive a person of liberty unless by way of arrest preliminary to trial, or except for punishment for a criminal offence.

Call Boy's Narrow Escape.

Toronto Junction, June 30.—Merran McDonald, C. P. R. call boy, living at 71 East Annette street, had a miraculous escape from death yesterday morning. He was running across the tracks in the C. P. R. yards when he stumbled and fell between the rails in front of a yard engine. The engine stopped the engine when the boy underneath was within a few inches of the ash box. The boy was dragged out, none the worse for his mishap.

Knife Against Pick.

Port Arthur, June 30.—A stabbing affray took place yesterday when an Italian was slashed with a knife several times by a countryman in a struggle about a woman. One, Duolo, pulled out a dirk knife and plunged into a man named Riola, inflicting dangerous wounds. Riola got hold of a pick close by and struck Duolo, cutting a gash in his abdomen several inches long. Riola was stabbed eight times. Duolo made his escape, but was caught by officers.

Eight Negroes Shot Down.

Atlanta, Ga., June 30.—Specials from Washington, Ga., gave the following account of the lynching there early yesterday. Eight prisoners were taken from the jail and seven of them were shot to death by a mob of masked white men within 200 yards of the centre of the town. One of the men, "Joe" Patterson, colored, escaped by feigning death when the volley was fired. The mob left him lying on the ground.

Three May Be Drowned.

Brockville, June 30.—The body of a man is in the hands of the authorities at Morrisstown, N. Y., awaiting identification. It was found floating in the river. A week ago an empty skull was found floating bottom up, three miles farther down the river. It is reported that three Assyrians appropriated a skull at Alexandria Bay, about ten days ago and started down the river. There may have been a triple drowning.

Sailors Finish Sentence.

New York, June 30.—After serving a sentence of six months in a Uruguayan prison for fishing for seals off the coast of Uruguay, six Nova Scotian sailors arrived yesterday en route to Halifax. They were members of the crew of the fishing schooner, which was seized for alleged illegal fishing. Capt. Ryan was sentenced to three years, the mate for one year and the crew for six months.

A Hero Aged Seventy.

Ottawa, June 30.—Hiltaire Malais, aged 75 years, was drowned in the Rideau River last evening while bathing. Henry Cowan, father of H. B. Cowan of Toronto, who is 70 years old, made an heroic attempt at rescue, and finally brought the body to the surface, but life was extinct. Mr. Cowan saved a boy in November last, and had previously saved a man's life.

MYSTERIOUS PEOPLE

The Awesomeness and Creative Air They Affect.

Many people assume certain manners as they assume certain clothes and change these manners more seldom than they change their clothes. Some think it is gratifying to be perky. Others think it more graceful to be drooping and melancholy, to gape wistfully, walk mournfully and sit as if before the baked meats of a funeral feast. But of all the people who indulge in travesty I think I get most amusement out of the mysterious people.

Bated, forever bated, in the breath of the mysterious person. Directly he comes into the room you are conscious of the presence of the unutterable and know that it will speedily be uttered into your most private ear. When he speaks to you he "takes you aside," so that none other may know that he is telling you that the weather is damp and that there is a deal of influenza about. As he discusses with you such dreadful subjects as the price of hobbled boots, the fluctuations of stocks and the economies of the administration his head approaches yours, his lips point secretively, his eyes glance round covertly to make sure that no one is within earshot to betray him and you. The gallows is surely in his memory. He wishes to avoid it; he wishes—kindly wretch—to save you from it also. Meet him halfway. It is such fun to do that. He responds sensitively to the slightest mysterious encouragement and thinks he is impressing you and that you believe him to be a strange and remarkable personage and that you will go away and say: "Glad I met John Smith. Interesting man. Not every day you come across a man like that."

Many women are mysterious. Indeed, I have met more mysterious women than mysterious men. The mysterious woman is often small, but her hats are large, plumed like a heron and generally black as night. Pale is her face and languid her manner. She tries to look consumptive and succeeds surprisingly often. As a rule, she has little to say, but says it in such an awful manner that it takes on a fictitious importance and for the moment appears to be impressive.

Think over your acquaintances and friends. Are not some of them mysterious, and are not they highly considered? Are not they called "interesting" on that account? There are many spurious things in the "social world," but few things are more spurious than that reputation for being interesting which is gained by the mysterious manner. And half of the world at least is tricked, for everyday perkiness is called brilliance, mystery wisdom, assurance greatness and the puppet in the mask a giant in the sunshine.—Robert Hichens in Chicago Tribune.

LEARN DRESSMAKING IN TWO WEEKS

I will be at the Garner Hotel, Chatham, on Saturday, July 22nd, between 9 and 6 o'clock, to show how dressmaking can be taught in two weeks. Why spend from six to nine months learning dressmaking in a shop, and then not know anything about cutting, when I teach you everything from measuring to finish in the making of ladies' and children's garments in two weeks? I have taught over 700 girls in this way within the past three years, and all were more than satisfied. If you are the wife or daughter of a farmer, mechanic, laborer, merchant or millinaire, you should learn dressmaking. No accomplishment you can acquire will prove of such everyday, life-long value to you as a practical knowledge of Dressmaking. And if you have this knowledge you can, by saving dressmaker's bills, be able to dress much better with less money than you probably do now. I teach you how to put together, not only the lining, but all the outer goods, coats, skirts, waists, wrappers, sleeves, in fact everything in dressmaking. And you are losing nothing by trying, for if you are not satisfied at the end of the term, then there will be no charge. School teachers, college girls and everybody who is having your holiday now, do not fail to take advantage of this splendid opportunity. You may never get another like it.

Charge for full course is $10, when you are through, if satisfied, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use, which I give you free! I will also at the same time teach part of the course, consisting of shirtwaists, sleeves and skirts, and teach you how to use the system for $8.

I will teach at Chatham from July 24th to August 5th. Hours from 8:30 to 5. All wishing to learn, or for particulars, be sure to see me in the parlour of the Hotel Garner on Saturday, July 22nd, at the hours named above.

An evening class will also be taught at Chatham this time. Full particulars for it can be had upon application on July 22nd, to MISS R. ELLISON, Dressmaking Teacher, Box 320, Brantford.
