

Bishop W. B. Arnett
SWAYS AUDIENCES WITH HIS MASTERY OF ELOQUENCE.
He Writes a Letter of More Than Usual Interest to Suffering Humanity.

BISHOP W. B. ARNETT.

Before being elected bishop he was a leading minister in his church and also a very prominent Republican.

Having given this sketch of the bishop, the following testimonial from him will be found very interesting reading and fully explains itself.

To whom it may concern:
In April, 1894, while on my way home from Philadelphia I caught a very severe cold, which soon developed into rheumatism.

The fall came on and the rheumatism grew worse, lasting all through the winter of '94 and '95. I suffered as I never suffered before.

One day in June, 1895, my wife said, 'Bishop, I read so much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, suppose you try them and see if they will not help you?'

She said no more, but went to Xenia, Ohio, and bought a box of the pills. On her return she gave me a dose at noon and another at night.

For months previous she had been called three to four times during the night. The next day I took three doses of the pills, and the second night I was not disturbed.

I have not lost a night's sleep since that time on account of the rheumatism I carry a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in my pocket wherever I go.

I cheerfully bear testimony and hope that others may find relief as I did. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to several people.

Yours for God and Man.
BENJAMIN W. ARNETT.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease.

When Emile Zola heard that he had got only four votes this time in the election of members for the French Academy instead of eight the last time, he said: 'What! I have really fear! I am surprised, for I never expected it, having taken no part in the poll.'

To tell the truth, these academic elections have no effect on me. I confine myself to putting up for every seat vacant, and then I wait to see the result without the slightest emotion.

I shall continue a candidate, but I no longer pay the traditional visit. I paid them once, and that is enough. I am again a candidate for the seat of Jules Simon.

Reflections of a Bachelor.
Most married men would admit, if they dared, that they would rather have a rat terrier than a baby.

A girl always has an idea that a man can never tell her a lie and look her straight in the face at the same time.

The first year after a man gets married a man addresses his wife as 'darling,' after that he generally says 'hey!'

You can generally tell how long a woman has been married by watching the way she treats old bachelors.

At Wilberforce, Ohio, three miles north of Xenia and near Dayton and Springfield, is located Wilberforce University and Payne Theological Seminary.

In this somewhat noted educational centre, resides Bishop Benjamin W. Arnett, D. D., a divine who is of especial prominence because of his thrilling eloquence with which he has swayed many audiences.

Among the high officials of the church, no one is more distinguished than he.
