EVERYTHING READY FOR REGISTRATION

Sheriff Foster informs The Observer that everything is now in readiness for Registration Day—Saturday, June 22—he having just completed the task of appointing 273 registrars and deputies. The sheriff says that he has to thank not only ministers, teachers, justices and postmasters for volunteer assistance, but he has had great and most willing assistance from all the councillors in both counties.

After today the Sheriff will be at his office in Woodstock continuously until after registration day, and his time will be devoted to this matter exclusively. Any person desiring to consult with him in the work may phone or call on him.

Again it is pointed out that all who can should register before Saturday, particularly in the villages where most people can do so at any time. The operation of registering is extremely simple but it takes five minutes or more time and it will be simply a matter of impossibility for all to register if all wait until Saturday. The registrars inform The Observer that in many cases very good progress has already been made. By tomorrow night every one in the villages should have called at one of the offices and fulfilled the obligations imposed upon them by the government—a very simple obligation, but one that must be looked after.

The registration of Canada's man power is not in its self a war measure, although it has been made necessary by war conditions. It is conducted in no case by the Militia Department. The government knows far better than any individual the country-wide strain upon the man-power resources the war has brought, and that all industries, manufactures, farmers are confronted with ruin if the places of the men they have given to the war are not filled. The government feels upon itself the burden of providing the men or the women to carry on the country's work, to fill the places of the men they have drafted from useful occupations and necessary work.

Waterville Warblings

We are glad to hear of the return of Clyde Shaw, who has spent nearly two years in England serving his King and Country.

Mrs. Malcolm Gardiner is visiting her sister, Miss Lizzie Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Handford Seeley entertained a number of young people at their residence on Thursday last.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Plummer was brightened by the arrival of a young son.

Mrs. Huntley DeGrasse is spending a few weeks with friends in Bristol.

The Ladies of the Methodist W.M.S. will hold their annual basket picnic on July 2 at E. S. Carpenter's.

Military Medal for Bravery

Mrs. Charles Carr of Fort Fairfield a few days ago received a military medal for bravery in the field, which was recently bestowed by King George upon her son, Chester H. Carr, of the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles. This hero is only 21 years and has been in the service, one year and eight months of that time having been in the trenches, which of course means the real thing. Surely any young man has a right to be proud of such a medal won in such a manner, and his parents have an equal right to pride in such a distinction. Mr. and Mrs. Carr and family were recently of Hartland.—Fort Fairfield Review

Sleepless Nights With Eczema

Mrs. Link, 12 Walker St., Halifax, N. S., states:—“After three years of miserable torture and sleepless nights with terrible eczema, and after trying over a dozen remedies without obtaining anything but slight temporary relief, I have been perfectly and entirely cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. After the third or fourth application of this grand ointment I obtained relief, and a few boxes were sufficient to make a thorough cure.”

Centreville Affairs

The effort of the present government in the line of “Better Roads” is worthy of compliment. Extensive repairs are being made at present on that portion leading to the boundary, and though perhaps it may not vie with their state road it is certainly a step in the right direction. The time is not very remote when the great increase in the automobile traffic will make the establishment of a truck road throughout this section of the province a dire necessity.

Mrs. Charles Thistle and two children are home from California, called east on account of the illness of her father, Lt. Col. G. D. Perkins.

Miss Faye Burt returned from a pleasant month's sojourn in St. John on Tuesday.

Frank Harris of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, and bride, formerly Miss Hazel Smith of St. John, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of S. W. Burt.

Burt E. Cliff and Fred Cronkite were in Fredericton for a couple of days this week.

Harold White left on Wednesday for St. John, Quebec, to enlist with the Canadian Engineers in command of Lt. Col. W. K. Melville.

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown spent the week-end in St. John.

Mrs. Hadden Burt, Woodstock, visited her mother and sisters here on Sunday.

The members of the Carleton Lodge, No. 35, Free and Accepted Masons, will commemorate St. John's Day by attending divine service at the United Baptist church, Centreville on Sunday, June 23, at 3 p.m. Rev. A. S. Hazel, Woodstock, will be the speaker. The public is cordially invited.

Weddings are quite the order of the day now. Among those taking the matrimonial degree on Wednesday will be Clayton Forsythe and Miss Laura Stewart, and Roy McAuley and Miss Gowan. May they live happy ever after.

At a vote taken at a meeting of the Business Men's Association on Monday evening it was decided to reopen the stores for Wednesday evening. This makes only three closing nights Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

A party comprising the young girls formerly of Mrs. F. D. Tweedie's Sunday school class spent Saturday with her at a picnic at her new home in Woodstock. It made some day all right when you go out on the Valley before daylight and get back after dark.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Simonson left for the west on Monday. They will spend a few days in Chicago with their son, Rev. E. W. Simonson, of Douglas, Arizona.

Our popular “No. cheekee, no shirtee” man, Sam Shing, closed up shop and left for Edmundston last week. We hope he may soon return.

Kathleen O'Hara of Aroostook Jet spent Friday and Saturday at her home here.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, Everett Noble and Miss Bertie West all of Blaine were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West on Saturday.

Stump Pullers—one only hand power, slightly used but in excellent condition. Only reason for selling is that every stump on farm has been pulled. Write quickly. E. O. Manchess, 123 Bay St., Toronto.
