London, July 6.—In the absence of any special orders, the prisoners now in gool awaiting trial for the murder of the Donnelly family, will come up for trial at the Fall Assizes. At the present time no steps have been taken to summon a special of jurymen to serve on this important case. The probabilities are that a special commission will not be issued for the trial, but that a short time previous to the trial a panel, say of two hundred jurors, will be summoned by the Sheriff, at jurors, will be summoned by the Sheriff, at the instance of the Crown authorities. The prisoners are all in good spirits, but suffer somewhat from heat and the want of home

New York, July 6.—An elegantly dressed lady about forty years old, who had registered as Mrs. M. E. Brevety, New York city, took a dose of laudanum with suicidal intent, in Taylor's hotel, Jeres City last evening. Physicians Jersey City, last evening. Physicians pumped the poison out of her, and this morning she was in a cheerful humour. She left the hotel at eight o'clock, and an hour later she shot herself behind the right ear in the ladies' sitting-room of the Pennsylvania railroad depot, Jersey City. She was alive when removed to the hospital, but the physicians think she will not recover. She refuses to give her name, address, or make any explanation.
