The Young Man of To-Day is a Mighty Particular Individual

Keenly critical on matters of Quality—Justly generous in matters of Style—Who says not "anything will do" but "Nothing else will do"—and stands to it.

It is this same chap we had in mind when we bought something different in the CAP Line—It is this chap who will be the first to look over these Advanced Summer Specials to-morrow, and pronounce his opinion.

Are You one of those who will be satisfied with nothing less than the Best—Do you want the Latest?

Drop in and let your fancy roam free among these beauties of CAP manufacture—whole piece crowns, eight square crowns, banded and without.

We only want your opinion—AND THEN, YOUR OPINION WILL PROMPT YOU TO BUY.

Prices: $1.00 to $5.00.

EARLY CABLES.

WILL FLY TO-DAY!
HALIFAX, May 9. The departure of the American aeroplane is postponed until to-morrow owing to the renewal of four propellers. The aviators say they will get away to-morrow morning if present atmospheric conditions hold.

LESS FAVORABLE CONDITIONS.
WASHINGTON, May 9. Very favorable weather reports from the territory covered by the second 'leg' of the flight from Halifax to Newfoundland, was forwarded from Washington early to-day to the 'Cruiser Baltimore' at Halifax. The report said fair weather prevailed along this leg, with a 20-mile wind from a favorable direction for the fliers. It added that less favorable conditions were to be expected to-morrow.

WILL RENEW THE FLIGHT.
CHATHAM, Mass., May 9. The hydro-aeroplane N.C.-4, which was towed into the Naval Air Station here to-day, after having been compelled to land yesterday because of engine trouble while on the first 'leg' of the trans-Atlantic flight, probably will resume the trip to Halifax to-morrow, according to naval officials. Two of her four engines were out of order, but the mechanics are expected to be able to make repairs immediately.

GERMANY WILL NOT AGREE.
BERLIN, May 9. The people, though fairly stricken dumb by the Peace terms, are now recovering sufficiently to declare that Germany cannot and will not sign the compact now matter what comes. Strikes are increasing and Bolshevism and the Spartacan uprisings of the past two months have, if anything, made Germany immune to the possible horrors which are to be anticipated if they are again plunged into war, according to the best opinion here. There exists a small group of Germans, chiefly Conservatives, who prefer to see the Entente occupy the whole country than to have it Bolshevized, but they are in the dwindling minority.

TO WIPE OUT AUSTRIAN NAVY.
PARIS, May 9. The naval terms of the treaty with Austria wipe out the Austrian Navy. The disposition of the ships among the Allies will be adjusted later.

A BELGIAN PROTEST.
PARIS, May 9. The Belgian delegation protests in a note against mandatory for German East Africa being disposed of without Belgian participation after Belgium's sacrifices to insure the conquest of the territory.

ANTICIPATING TROUBLE.
DUBLIN, May 9. The military authorities have taken possession of the Mansion House, the official residence of the Lord Mayor. The Lord Mayor is Laurence O'Neill, who has been prominent in the leadership of the Sinn Fein movement. The Mansion House has been used as a meeting place for the Sinn Fein. There have been no recent reports of any unusual situation in Dublin affecting the Lord Mayor or his official residence.

CANADIANS AT VERSAILLES.
PARIS, May 9. Canadian plenipotentiaries arrived at Versailles promptly at three o'clock. Sir Robert Borden, accompanied by Hon. Arthur Sifton, sat next the British delegation.

MORE GERMANS ARRIVE.
VERSAILLES, May 9. Eight new members of the German delegation arrived to-day, but have not yet communicated with the members previously here.

WILL ANSWER WITH PROPOSALS.
PARIS, May 9. It is expected the Germans will answer the delivery of the Peace Treaty with proposals anent certain phases. A commission will examine the answer and notify the Germans of any necessary modifications, all of which will occupy several days. The pact probably will not be signed for twenty-five to thirty days.

A GERMAN OPINION.
LONDON, May 9. Herr Schuecking, the German delegation, says the League of Nations should include all signatures of the Hague Convention and the Pope, according to a Reuters' Paris despatch. He regards the mandate for German colonies as annexations and regrets nothing is said in the treaty about the freedom of the seas.

AFTER A BITTER STRUGGLE.
COPENHAGEN, May 9. A despatch from Budapest states that Czech forces gained a footing in Weggassern after a bitter struggle.

SATISFIED IN THE MAIN.
PARIS, May 9. The Temps publishes interviews with representatives of Belgium, Denmark, Czech-Slovakia, all expressing satisfaction in the main with the Peace Treaty provisions.

A POSITIVE DENIAL.
PARIS, May 9. On high authority positive denial is made of the report that the Entente instigated or supported the Roumanian advance against Hungary.

A "MAILED FIST."
BERLIN, May 8. Hirsch, the Prussian Premier, in the National Assembly called the peace terms a "mailed fist" peace which would mean slavery for the Fatherland and fresh blood for Europe.

SPLIT REPORTED.
PARIS, May 9. A division among the German delegates regarding the peace terms is reported to-day.

THE VICTORY LOAN.
WASHINGTON, May 9. President Wilson to-day issued through Secretary of the Treasury Glass an appeal to the American people to make the Victory Loan "a great popular thank offering." The total of the loan to-day went above $3,000,000,000.

THE GERMANS EXPECTED TO OBJECT.

PARIS, May 9. The German delegates in their answer to the peace terms, the newspapers say, will propose especially to assume the burden of making reparations only for damage caused in Northern France and Belgium. The papers say it is not unlikely the Allies will refuse the propositions. The German delegates, it is added, also intend to give battle over the question of the Saar Valley, Danzig, the former German colonies, and military occupation. Count Von Brockdorff Ranzau in a long wireless exchange with Berlin, the newspapers declare, expressed a desire to confer with the German-Austrian delegates on their arrival at St. Germain. In the lobby of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday the Peace Treaty was approved by the deputies, but some reservations were made concerning the financial clauses.

ITALIAN SITUATION NOT CLEARED.

PARIS, May 9. The Italian difficulty is as far from settlement as ever, according to the French press, which asserts that President Wilson maintains his position, and it is not believed he will depart from it in the slightest. He has not adhered to the proposed compromise by which Italy would administer Fiume as mandatory of the League of Nations until 1923, after which Fiume would revert to Italian sovereignty, three Jugo Slavo being given a port a few miles lower down the Adriatic, it is said the impression in French conference circles is that Italy is temporarily abandoning her claim to Fiume and will exact full execution of the pact of London which, as it involves not only Dalmatian but the Dodecanese Island, will raise the whole Greek problem and singularly complicate the situation.

THE AFGHAN TROUBLE.
LONDON, May 9. A Russian Government wireless message received to-day says that an Afghan mission has arrived at Moscow to establish relations between Afghanistan and Russia. This is in violation of the treaty between Afghanistan and Great Britain under which Afghanistan is not allowed to enter relations with any foreign country except Great Britain.

STUNNED BY PEACE TREATY.
BERLIN, May 9. The Parliamentary leaders of all factions who are in Berlin to attend committee meetings admit that they were stunned by the severity of the Peace Treaty. Beyond casual comment, however, they declined to discuss the Entente's conditions or details or to forecast the assembly's probable attitude. A leading member of the Independent Socialists declared the peace offered was wholly dictatorial and that its revision was possible only through a world revolution.

EAST AFRICAN PROBLEM.
PARIS, May 9. After Paul Hymans, head of the Belgium delegation, had discussed the rights of Belgium in German East Africa to-day, David Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, telegraphed Viscount Milner, Secretary for the Splendid Showing of Girls' Hats.

There is an attraction in their simple, youthful lines that can hardly be expressed. "Simply delightful", many mothers have said—and they are, in every detail. Material is of quality that you'll approve; colour in design is typical girlish, and there is a quaintness in the style and trimming effect which is altogether irresistible.

And yet, though so pretty, the designers have not forgotten to make them practical, and herein lies their greatest attraction. Mothers of girls should most certainly see this splendid showing.
