The Belated Reply.

...r Evening Telegram,
...ar Sir:—In your publication of ...mber 28th, there appeared an item ...ed "A Boy from the Rock", in ...ch reference was made to our re...sentative, Mr. R. G. Winsor, to the ...t that Mr. Winsor had been late ...ming to town and that he was not ...enough to come when we wanted ...here. In justice to Mr. Winsor, ...wish to say, that from the begin... ...g of our movement Mr. Winsor ...with us and offered every ser... ...that he could possibly give to ...the general interest of the fish... ...During one of the first meet... ...e publicly stated that he was ...ared to render any reasonable ...ce called upon, and that if he ...ght his political position stood in ...ay of the fishermen's true inter... ...e would sacrifice that position. ...shall be oblized if you will pub... ...this in justice to Mr. Winsor.

Yours truly,
