Bell Island Football League.

FORMS UP FOR SEASON 1923. The annual meeting of the Bell Island Football League was held this week at the Masonic Club Rooms, East Wabana, Bell Island, when fourteen members of the League attended and discussed much business in connection with football affairs on the Iron Isle during the coming season.

The chair was occupied by the President, Joseph M. Greene, who presented a very interesting report of last season's games, showing the League to have a substantial balance on hand. The reports of the President, of the Secretary, P. T. Murphy, and of the Treasurer, J. Noseworthy, were adopted and the League officers including the veteran of sport on Bell Island, M. Maine, Vice-President, were accorded a hearty vote of thanks for their work of last season.

The annual report included references to the formation of a Junior League this year, and it is likely that a trophy for Junior Teams will be completed for this year. It was the general opinion to start the League games early in July, and a meeting will be held next Monday to receive applications of teams. Resolutions of thanks to N. J. Vinicombe, M.H.A. for his services in refereeing last season's games were adopted. R. G. Watson was moved to the chair and conducted the election of officers for the year, which resulted as follows:—

President—Joseph J. Greene. Vice-Pres.—Cuthbert Maine. Secretary—Patrick T. Murphy. Treasurer—Jacob Noseworthy.

The following delegates attended: Bretons, Messrs. E. S. Spencer, Wm. Hart and Ed. Highmore; Fire Brigade, T. Dobbin, T. Conway and S. Noremore; Cadets, James L. Connors, Andrew J. Murphy and Edward T. Farrell. It is anticipated that this season's football will eclipse all previous years on the Island, and several teams are busy at practice, while the general public are more interested than ever before.

Has no Complaint About Hard Work.

DIRECTOR BAKER SAYS ENERGY OF HUGHES IS NEVER EXHAUSTED.

According to George B. Baker, who directed the production of "I Can Explain," the Metro picture starring Gareth Hughes, now showing at the Nickel Theatre, a male star has it all over a feminine lead in keeping a director everlastingly busy.

"Never in my experience have I seen anyone so eager to work on a picture, and keep continually at it until it was finished, as young Hughes," declared Mr. Baker.

"While making the last series of Hughes pictures, 'Garments of Truth,' 'The Hunch' and 'Little Eva Ascends,' that boy was the first on the lot and the last to leave. He smashed all the regular traditions of the star as so glowingly painted in the magazines. Instead of taking things easy and being always somewhere else when a scene was ready to be shot he was right on the job and wanting to keep at it from sunup till sundown. It's a new sensation for a director to have to be restraining the star so as to give the rest of the cast time to catch their breath, but that is Gareth Hughes all over."

"I Can Explain" is the first of the new series of Hughes pictures produced by George D. Baker for S-L (Arthur Sawyer and Herbert Lubin) Pictures and released by Metro. It is a film version of the story, "Stay Home," by Edgar Franklin. It was photographed by Rudolph Bergquist and the art direction was by E. J. Shulter.

Just Folks.

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

ADVENTURE. He holds a little fellow's hand, And walks with him across the land. They seek adventure. Not the kind Which men of battle hope to find, Not the cold hardships and severe Which rise before the pioneer. But something new and quaint to see A bird's nest in a friendly tree. And where the ground is cool and wet Perhaps they'll find a violet. Their talk is not of fame and gold, Or treasures they can grasp and hold. But speech that's tuned to gentler things— The pattern of a blackbird's wings, The curious pictures in the sky, Fashioned by clouds which hurry by. Their fortune is a lovelier yield— A wealth of daisies from a field. Beneath a tree they rest and hear The chatter of the robins near. And home they come, still hand in hand, To follow her each day! To go the other way. Don't ever burn the midnight oil, For that won't bring success— Just practice rushing other Janes. And yours will soon say "yes."

Farewell Performance of Miss Olivotti.

The many friends of Miss Eva Olivotti will be sorry to learn that she makes her final appearance at the Star Movie to-morrow, as she is leaving here on Saturday to fill an engagement in St. Paul, Minnesota. Miss Olivotti now completes her 11th week here, and when it is remembered that only 12 months ago she filled an engagement of nine weeks, this in itself goes to prove the popularity in which she is held by our theatrical going people, and such popularity can only be gained when it is accompanied by ability. It may be said without any disparagement to others who have visited our shores that Miss Olivotti stands in a class by herself. For their farewell performances she and Mr. Lawrence have selected two numbers from "The Prince of Pilsen," viz: "A Message from the Violets," and "Gay Paree." As a parting word to Miss Olivotti, on behalf of the patrons of the popular Star, we wish her good luck, good health, and a prosperous career.

An Attempted Burglary.

About 2 o'clock yesterday morning an attempted burglary was made on Mrs. M. Pike's grocery store, Alexander Street. The would-be burglar tried to gain entrance to the building by breaking a pane of glass. While the marauder was at work, the family which lives up over the shop was awakened by the falling of glass, but before anyone had a chance to pounce upon their man he made good his escape. This is the second time that these premises has been visited by midnight marauders as it was only on the 11th of May last, that some thief or thieves tried to force an entrance but made good their escape. The street is poorly lighted in this section, and it is hoped that the midnight patrol, on doing their rounds, will pay particular attention to this locality.

Germans Will Abandon Passive Resistance in Ruhr Valley on Eight Conditions—Soldiers Digging Trenches in Attempt to Save Linguaglossa.

A SWEEPING DECREE.

DUSSELDORF, June 20. A decree providing for the confiscation of all the Ruhr Valley industries, products of which are applicable to Reparations account, and forcing operation of the plants by Germans is being prepared by General Degoutte of the occupational forces, it was announced to-day. Arrangements for the promulgation of the decree are going forward as rapidly as possible, but owing to the wide scope of its measures and the extensive character of the industries affected, it was said, the French and Belgian authorities would require several days more in which to work out the details. The decree will give the military authorities absolute power over all metal works, iron and steel plants, mines, coke ovens and virtually all other private industries in the Ruhr. In the event of the Germans refusing to operate the plants, the decree provides for jail sentences up to fifteen years, and in addition heavy fines for directors and companies or others responsible for resistance. Those responsible for sabotage would be tried before a court martial and on conviction be subject to the death penalty. The decree will be most sweeping, giving the military authorities, in collaboration with the French Commission, authority to exploit the industries themselves or to lease the plants to concession accounts, if this is deemed better to the interests of the occupation authorities in their plan to obtain reparations.

THE GERMAN PRICE FOR ABANDONMENT OF PASSIVE RESISTANCE.

ELBERFELD, June 20. Passive resistance would be abandoned in the Ruhr Valley on eight conditions, one of the most important of which is indemnification by the French and Belgians for all products of private industry which they have seized, says a memorandum to the Berlin Government reported to have been drafted here by representatives of employers authorized to act in the matter. Other stipulations are the removal of the Franco-Belgian Railway Administration, the return of all persons deported and the release of those persons imprisoned, the renunciation of all measures of force, the nullification of all restrictive control methods, the restoration of telephone and telegraph service and indemnification for all wounded and the families of those killed.

Great ditches will be dug and entrenchments erected with the hope of diverting the stream to the right and left of the town and down a deep slope to the valley below.

NONE OF THE FLOATERS OUTFITTED. A message to the Assistant Collector of Customs, received yesterday from Twillingate reported fish scarce and that the total landed was approximately 500 quintals. Catholic Societies Meet.

WILL CELEBRATE MOUNT CASHEL SILVER JUBILEE. The Presidents of the various Catholic Societies met last evening to consider what steps are to be taken to fittingly mark the silver jubilee of Mount Cashel which occurs on Oct. 24th next. It was decided to call a meeting in the B.I.S. Club Rooms for Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, of the different Societies and all other friends and supporters of Mount Cashel, when the form of celebration of this auspicious event in the history of the institution will be definitely settled. This meeting will undoubtedly result in a decision worthy of the good work done by the Christian Brothers in the past quarter century for the thousands of boys who have passed through their hands.
