Guelph Markets.
MERCURY OFFICE, GUELPH -
February 24, 1899.
Since our last review no change of importance has taken place in our home markets.
In grain receipts, the supply has been fair during the past week, and there has been a decline in both fall and spring wheat of a few cents - thanks to the good sleighting we are now favoured with. There has been a slight increase in the price of hogs. Provisions remain pretty much the same, with the exception of eggs, which have gone down somewhat in price. There has been a great decline in butter in England, which while it will probably affect large holders of it there, cannot be seriously felt here, as the amount held by dealers in that product in this country is slight, and not likely to prove more than adequate for home consumption, until the spring supply begins to come forward. Flour continues dull, with a downward tendency.
Apples, potatoes, etc., remain unchanged.
There is nothing special to note this week in the quotations of the Hamilton, London and Montreal markets - there being no special rise or reduction in any particular article.
