Centre Riding Reform Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Centre Riding of Wellington Reform Association was held at Fergus on Monday for the purpose—if deemed advisable—of nominating a candidate in the Reform interest, in opposition to Dr. Orton, who was unelected last week, and who is again in the field as the Conservative candidate, and busily preparing for the election that must shortly take place. The meeting was well attended, representative men from nearly all parts of the Riding being present. But for the short time that elapsed between the issue of the notices and the time the meeting was held, many more—especially from a distance—would doubtless have been present. Mr. Alex. Dyce, President of the Association, occupied the Chair, and Mr. John Craig acted as Secretary pro tem.

The delegates who were previously appointed, or empowered by the meeting to act, are as follows:—

PILKINGTON—Charles Allan, Henry Larter and Donald Wallace.
ELTON—John Smith, Dr. Middleton, S. Gattard.

NICHOL—J. Modeland, Jas. Cowie, Jas. Burnett, L. Watson.
FERGUS—Wm. Robertson, J. C. Dove, John Craig.

WEST GARAFRAXA—Alex. Dyce, Harvey Cull, C. Sargent, Paul Couse.
EAST GARAFRAXA—Morris Cook, Stephen Pyper.

PEEL—Thos. Garbutt, Wm. Sturridge, R. McKim, T. Johnston.

After some conversation, it was decided to make a nomination immediately, and Mr. McKim was proposed by Mr. Robertson, but that gentleman, as he had before announced, positively declined. Mr. D. Guthrie, barrister, Guelph, then received the unanimous nomination of the Convention, and the following gentlemen were appointed a deputation to proceed to Guelph, and tender him the nomination:—Messrs. McKim, Chas. Clarke, M.P.P., Wm. Sturridge, Wm. Robertson, D. Wallace and Alexander Dyce.

The Association then transacted some other business, and appointed Conveners for meetings to be held in the different Municipalities.

The deputation will arrive in Guelph this afternoon, and wait on Mr. Guthrie.

Mr. Disraeli on the Situation.

The customary festivities connected with Lord Mayor's day in London brought together some of the leading members of Mr. Disraeli's Government including the Premier himself, who at the banquet replied to the toast of Her Majesty's Ministers. In the course of his speech he drew a pleasant and gratifying picture of the state of affairs in Britain. His remarks with regard to the colonies, and the maintenance of the integrity of the empire are significant. The following is a synopsis of his speech:—

Mr. Disraeli referred to the tranquility England had enjoyed for the last six years. The reasons were not far to seek. People were now contented. The working classes of Great Britain inherited rights and privileges not yet possessed by the nobility of other lands. They had no fear of arbitrary Ministers and domiciliary visits. They possessed the right to combine for the protection of the interests of labour. Justice was pure, and no respecter of individuals or classes. Although the service of the Sovereign was open to all, no one was liable to be dragged unwillingly from his home employments. It was not wonderful that a nation possessed of such privileges wished to preserve them. Under such circumstances it was to be wondered at that the working classes were Conservative. Mr. Disraeli looked back to the last session of Parliament with satisfaction, but avoiding making any political forecast, said, as far as the present was concerned, the country had seldom been more prosperous. He had good authority for stating that there was a considerable revival of trade, and great promise of an increase of commercial transactions, and that the public revenue would realize all the Government anticipated. He paid Lord Northbrook, Viceroy of India, and the Marquis of Salisbury, the Indian Secretary, for their sagacity in dealing with the famine in India. Referring to the recent outcry for the separation of the colonies, he distinctly declared himself in favour of the maintenance of the integrity of the Empire. Of this policy, the annexation of the Fiji Islands was a proof. The Government was resolved to consolidate the Empire and establish an identity of interest and sympathy with the Colonies. He thanked the French Ambassador for the friendly sentiments he expressed when replying to the toast to the diplomatic body. Although it would be trifling with the truth to assert that the state of the Continent showed no cause for anxiety, yet the Government believed in the maintenance of peace, for which all the Great Powers were anxious.

The Tories in Cardwell are to meet in Convention at Mono Mills on the 20th to select a candidate for the Local Legislature.

Dr. Orton has called his supporters in the Centre Riding together on the 17th to make arrangements for the coming campaign.

It is rumoured that the Hon. Wm. McDougall, "Wandering Willie," who is on his way to Canada, is to run in the Tory interest for Centre Toronto. The rumour is also current that Goldwin Smith will be asked to be a candidate in Toronto for the Local Legislature.

It is reported that the Italian Government will no longer tolerate the Pope's independent government within its territory, as it deems such an imperium in imperio dangerous to peace.

Col Stevenson having withdrawn from the contest in Montreal on the plea of severe illness, Mr. Thomas White has been chosen by the Conservatives to take his place. The nomination takes place on the 18th instant.

The full returns from Essex give Mr. McGregor 1013 majority over Mr. O'Connor. In January last his majority was 745, showing the handsome increase of 268—without bribery. The total Tory vote fell from 1763 in January—with bribery, to 750 in October—without bribery.

NELSON CRESCENT

GROCERY.

W. A. Suddaby begs to inform the inhabitants of Guelph and vicinity that he has commenced business in the store lately occupied by R. S. King, opposite the Guelph Sewing Machine Factory, where he has opened up a new and complete stock of Groceries and Provisions.

As all goods have been bought at the lowest figure for cash, they will be sold as cheap as any other house in Guelph. He hopes by keeping a good article, and by paying strict attention to business, to merit a share of the public patronage. Goods delivered to any part of the town.

FOR SALE—

TYRCATHLEN LOTS.

The Venerable Archdeacon Palmer has placed in my hands for sale the Lots in his new survey, immediately in rear of his residence and lying on the north side of Orange street. The situation cannot be surpassed in the town—convenient to Market, Post Office, Church and Schools, commanding a magnificent view of the town and surrounding country. The lots are of different sizes, and well suited for private dwellings, with a first-class soil for gardening.

Those lots on Tyrcathlen Terrace are well adapted for rental residences, and will only be sold to those who will bargain to put up good buildings.

Plans of the Lots can be seen at my office and particulars learned.

Terms very liberal. Purchases made with Full interest on balance of purchase money will not commence until 1st April, next.

If desired, the lots will be pointed out on the ground.

Also, 17 other lots lying to the north of Palmer street, in Macdonald's survey, and on Queen and Arthur streets.

An early call is solicited.

FRASER'S

Being the only merchant in Guelph who attended the Great Auction Sale in Montreal, can state with confidence that he can show Goods at prices much below their regular value.

Parties buying at FRASER'S will save more money than they would elsewhere.

Strangers to his store should try the experiment. FRASER keeps a general store where all can get suited without having the trouble of going all over town.

FRASER'S

FRASER'S store is crammed from cellar to attic with cheap goods. The rash of customers to FRASER'S for the cheap smoked goods is enormous, which causes other merchants to grunt and groan. Still FRASER'S is determined to look after the wants of his customers, no matter what others may think.

In consequence of the late great fire in Montreal, Messrs. McIntyre, French & Co. have sold the balance of their stock saved from the fire, $250,000 at auction, of which G. B. FRASER bought largely, at much low prices as will enable him to sell dry Goods this Winter much cheaper than any other Store in Guelph!
