Fall Shoe Styles for Men! The Famous G. A. Slater Lines

Common sense has been allied with good taste in producing Shoes of distrinctly better character than those of any preceding season.

The G. A. Slater Shoes for men have won a reputation among careful dressers for both style and durability. These shoes are made from high quality leathers. Every bit of work--the designing, the cutting, the finishing is cone by skilled shoemakers, who are as exacting in making the eyelets as they are in perfecting every other detail.

For the coming season tans are very much in evidence. Oak soles, choicest stock, Norwegian calf uppers in either lace or button. Gunmetals in lace and button, carrying correct fall weight soles, medium heels, full toe and perfectly finished.

Patent leathers are still going to be strong for dress and street wear. Among the leaders are featuring "The Royal." This is a strictly dress shoe with silk upper and fine quality patent lower, full foxed, plain toe, in neat button styles; all these shoes are made on the popular lasts, among which are the "Crests," "Alto," "Nemo," "Royal" and "Senator,", all assuring greatest satisfaction in wear, comfort and appearance.
