Picture Frames

A very large assortment of the latest designs in Mouldings just opened out.

HANDSOME GOODS. LOW PRICES.

E.N. HUNT

190 DUNDAS STREET.

A Lover's GERALDINE: Romance.

"No," she said firmly. "You have taunted me with passive obedience, and you have cured me of it. I shall not go away until I have learned what has happened here this afternoon. I have told you already that an accident has happened." 'Do you think that will satisfy me? Do you expect me to go away smiling and contented with that assurance? Do you think that, if you had loved a person, and prayed for him night and day for years, you could hear calmly from the lips of his declared enemy that he had met with an accident, and ask nothing more? And do you hope that I without another word, just because you are my husband? There are limits to a slave's endurance, and there are limits to a wife's! You must satisfy me be-

She was white and trembling with conflicting passions of anger, terror and despair as she stood by the table a short distance from him, sobbing out the hot words which from time to time were scarcely audible. He drew himself slowly up in his chair and turned to face her.

"Don't imagine that I expect much from you on the ground that you are my wife. There are limits to all your murder, though the proofs were plain face, she replaced the sheet with steady hands and turned away. ed, the mere fact that a gentleman whom you expected to see is not in the room with me is sufficient ground a leaf, utterly broken down and reduced to the meekest, most miserable dead, were worth!"

'Philip," she quavered out, "Philip, let me see him—tell me where he is—alive or dead! Have some pity upon me! I am at your mercy-I will never contradict you or resist you again if you will have pity on me now! Look at me—aren't you satisfied? Isn't my spirit broken enough? You shall treat as you like-just as you say a husband may treat his wife—neglect me, strike me; I will bear everything; only—only let me see James now! I must, I must

O heaven, my heart is breaking! I shall die at your feet if you refuse! She could see only dimly, through he fast flowing tears, the face of the man to whom she was pleading; she had to wait for the sound of his voice to tel whether her prayer was successful All her energy seemed suddenly gone; it did not occur to her to search the house, to wonder whether it was James whom she had seen in the lane; she could do nothing but sob helplessly crushed at last, after six months of suspense and misery on account of her old playfellow, by the mysterious fate which had befallen him. There was silence when she had finished speaking. continued to sob bitterly, while her husband for some moments said nothing. At last she got up with an impulse of energy, and gro oped her way, still crying, toward the door.

Where are you going?" asked her hushand, in a coarse voice. are going to find him. Since you won't bilp me, I'll find a better guide.' "Stee I will help you; you shall see m. Come back and wait for me." She hesitated, and her husband, coming slowly to the door where she was standing, laid his hand gently on her arm, and led her to the nearest chair. Stay here, and I'll come and fetch

Something unusual in the tone of his voice made her look up; and the sight of his face as he stooped to say these words close to her ear, froze back her tears and appalled her. She had seen him angry often enough, she had seen him hurt by her own collness;

The Very Finest In the Land . . .

Nothing Like It.

Ordinary price in large cities, $5.00 per lb.

We offer a special lot at 75c per lb.

to introduce High Grade Teas.

Fitzgerald, 169 DUNDAS STREET.

the savage agony which she instinctively threv out her right hand to detain him, that she might question him sympathetic-ally. The expression of his sensitive face changed at once; but at the same moment her eyes fell upon the stain which still showed on her hand, and withdrawing it quickly she shrank back into herself with a shudder, and then she heard one deeply drawn breath escape him as he opened the door and left her.

She listened to his lagging tread as he very slowly mounted the stairs, and she heard him open a door above; but, she heard him open a door above; but, as the room he entered was not immediately above her head, she could distinguish no further sound. She did not attempt to disobey him and satisfy her burning impatience sooner by following him upstairs. She was afraid of her husband; the terrible look on his face she ascribed to remorse, and, while her horror grew greater with every manufacturers. Detroit, Mich., June 26. — Closer Trade Relations with Canada" was the subject of discussion, and favorable resolutions, at the dinner of the Detroit, Mich., June 26. — Closer Trade Relations with Canada" was the subject of discussion, and favorable resolutions, at the dinner of the Detroit, Mich., June 26. — Closer Trade Relations with Canada" was the subject of discussion, and favorable resolutions, at the dinner of the Detroit, Mich., June 26. — Closer Trade Relations with Canada" was the subject of discussion, and favorable resolutions, at the dinner of the Detroit Manufacturers' Club, held here Thursday night. About 125 members of the club were present.

At the conclusion of the banquet, President Geo. H. Barbour, who acted as toast master, called upon Secretary while her horror grew greater with every moment of specter-haunted suspense, it was horror mingled with inwhich had been received. voluntary respect for a strong nature asked timidly if anybody called.

"It is only my husband calling me, Mrs. Corbyn," she replied, trying to smile into the tear-stained, sympathetic face of the farmer's wife, who there face of the farmer's wife, who the face of the farmer's wife, who the face of the farmer's wife, who procity in trade, and the committee the farmer's wife, who procity in trade, and the committee working underground were drowned. gave a hasty glance up the stair's, saw that Captain Morrison's back was turned, and whispered into the lady's with Canada. Let the subject be agithered the damage is very ear, with surreptitious eagerness: "Don't take on so, ma'am; and don't be too hard to him, or you'll be sorry afterwards—indeed, you will!" Then she hurried back into the kit-chen, leaving Geraldine bewildered and apprehensive as she went up the stair-

Her husband, who was standing at a door with his fingers upon the handle, saidfi in a low voice: "Can you bear a sight which will be a terrible shock to you? Can you bear it quietly, I mean, and keep your sobs without another word, just because you "Yes," answered Geraldine coldly, braced up by the harsh and sneering

"Very well; that is a promise-renember!" and he opened the door and led the way into a small, low-celled bedroom, on the painted wooden dressing table of which was a tallow can-He signed to her to pass into the room, and, when close to the dressing table she turned; she saw that on the big mahogany, curtained bedstead behind the door, something covered over by a sheet was lying. Her husband watched her, but she wifely virtues, and they are very soon reached. But, on the ground that you are a reasoning human being, don't you utter a sound. As soon as the convulthink you are in a great hurry to sion of her limbs was past, she ad-charge me with having made away with this precious James Otway? Heaven and earth couldn't succeed in con- lifted the sheet off the head of the fig-Then, after one look at the still hands and turned away.

"Now I am ready to go," she said quietly; and they left the room together.

"Will you tell me all about it now?"

thing else to live for now."

She raised his hand with lifeless meekness to her lips, and, printing a cold kiss of obedience on her husband's fingers, went downstairs and out of the farm house without another

Captain Morrison started forward as she left him, but restrained himself as he was on the point of crying out to He leaned over the balusters of landing and watched her go out of the house; then, with a sigh heavy with the whole weight of the utmost sorrow a man can bear, he went back slowly to the room where James Otway was lying.

To be Continued. FOURTEEN YEARS IN TERROR.

But Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Gave Relief in 30 Minutes and Three Rottles Effected a Cure Which Baffied the Best of Physicians.

This is what Mrs. J. Cockburn, of Warkworth, Ont., says: "For fourteen years I have been a great sufferer from heart disease; troubled very much with sharp, shooting pains constantly passing through my heart. Very often the spasms were so severe that I would become unconscious. My limbs would swell and become quite cold. For these fourteen years I doctored with best physicians without relief. Having seen Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart advered, I determined to try it, and before I had taken half a bottle I found great relief. I felt the beneficial effects inand B. A. Mitchell.

myself an experienced wheelman."

What Dr. A. E. Salter Says. Buffalo, N. Y .- Gents: From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced Consumption, I am away from the stomach and indigestion follows. THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged this danger with Dr. Hollas Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well Fowler was enthusiastic at this time as swelled neck and crick in the back; over his fruit and berry theory, and, and, as an inward specific, possesses calling the main into the garden, inwost substantial claim to public convited him to pitch in.

Mrs. Gladstone is six months older than the Queen, the Baroness Bur-dett-Coutts is five years older; and Lady Louisa Tighe, who was present at the ball at Brussels the night before the battle of Waterloo, and is before the battle of Waterloo, and is After Prof. Fowler's death, Fowler's still hale and lively, was a girl when Folly was sold for a small part of its Minard's Liniment is the Best.

Closer Trade Relations

Between Canada and the United States.

Favored by the Detroit Manufacturers Club-Resolution Embodying Their Views Unanimously Adopted.

Detroit, Mich., June 26. - "Closer Trade Relations with Canada" was the Mayor Maybury, who was to have responded to the toast, "The "desirabil-She had sat rigidly listening for some ity of more friendly relations with Can-oments, when her intent ears again ada," wrote as follows, after renoments, when her intent cars and a data, whose data inability to be present: greating his inability to be present: f a door above, and her husband's "The sentiment assigned me will not of a door above, and her husband's slow footsteps along the passage upstairs.

"Geraldine!" he called.

The kitchen door opened at the mother than the sponsive to the desire for closer trade relations with our neighbors. "Geraldine!" he called.

The kitchen door opened at the moment that Geraldine stepped into the passage. Mrs. Corbyn appeared, and passage. Mrs. Corbyn appeared, and collections with our neighbors. Every condition that gives promise of successful intercourse is present. Our successful intercourse is present.

> of the evening, and he stated his belief that three-fourths of the Canadians were in favor of reciprocity with the United States, and that such a relation could be brought about. Governor Pingree and several other gentlemen spoke, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopt-

Whereas, trade relations between the United States and Canada are not satisfactory to all, and believing that y mutual agreement made between ooth governments our trade could b largely increased to the benefit of both countries, it is hereby resolved that the Detroit Manufacturers' Club is in favor of closer trade relations with Canada; and resolved, that our senators and representatives in congress be requested to use their influence to bring about better trade rela-

FOWLER'S FOLLY TUMBLES DOWN.

Last of the Great House Built by an Eccentric Professor of Bumps.

"Will you tell me all about it now?" folly." the large octagonal building for you to accuse me of being his murderer. Is this all the advantage my proud position as your husband gives me?"

She paid no attention to him; but, after groping about in the feeble light of the smoking lamp, she picked up the overturned chair; and the next moment, feeling that her hand was wet, she held it up to the light, and uttered a shrill shriek as she saw the dark red a shrill shriek as she saw the dark red a land uttered a shrill shriek as she saw the dark red a land uttered a fleaf, utterly broken down and reduced to the meekest, most miserable of the meekest, most miserable of the meekest, most miserable of the meak about it now?"

Will you tell me all about it now?" sheld meek about it now?" she with the same frigid meek she will a davantage my proud position as your husband gives the asked, with the same frigid meek she advantage my proud position as your husband gives the saked, with the same frigid meek she advantage my proud position as your husband gives they were outside.

"Not now; I have something to say to more a leaf a landmark for nearly half a century. Fowler's Folly was built by Orson S. Fowler, who was at one time the best known man in Dutchess county, and the carriage that was to take his has fallen into ruins, after having been a landmark for nearly half a century. Fowler's Folly was built by Orson S. Fowler, who was at one time the best known man in Dutchess county, and the house and artistically draped 100 the most noted in his peculiar profession in the United States. He made a fortune by feeling bunps, and dissipated in queer enterprises.

She began to tremble again. as he said these words in a matter-of-fact one which jarred upon her horribly.

She began to tremble again as he said these words in a matter-of-fact one which jarred upon her horribly.

She began to tremble again as he said these words in a matter-of-fact one which jarred upon her horribly.

The ottinued by feeling bund the carriage that was the large octagonal building dead, were worth!"

"No, Philip, you are mistaken. I will keep my word; I will never oppose from the northern gates of the Highlands to the Catskill Mountains. The lands to the Catskill Mountains. The building is an architectural oddity Much of its original plan can still be made out, although the roof, piazzas, and part of the walls are gone. It was three stories in height, surmounted by a tower, and built of concrete laid in courses of about three feet each. Prof. Fowler had a theory that every man who could purchase a plot of land could build his own home from tion of the Folly he put into execution his ideas on the subject. He took stone from the land he owned and had it broken up and mixed into concrete which he poured into troughs and allowed to harden, after which the troughs were moved up their own height, the repetition of this process supervision, but it was not altogether to more people than eit successful, for several times the walls wife had ever heard of. built across the building to steady the outside walls slid down from their own weight. The construction of the building cost a sum far beyond its value as it was done by day work, and the workmen felt that it would be a pity to hurry so novel an enterprise to completion. The original intention of Prof. Fow- away from the Virginia line lives ler was to make of the building a two-thirds youth, for, unfortunately spiritualistic home and water cure. He both of his lower limbs are artificial divided his castle into 60 rooms. It who has to his credit an act of herocost as much to furnish the Folly as it did to build it. The farm surroundlad as long as the memory of those ing was laid out with walks and who know him last. His name is drives, and fruit trees and berry bushes of every variety were planted in the mountains, 35 miles from everyall over the place. Great barns were built for cattle and horses, to store that part of the country.

or stealing it from their richer neigh-bors. One day a wayfarer, weary and

"But I am worn with walking and want something substantial," protested the tramp. It then appeared that there was nothing in that $40,000 house fit for a hungry man to eat.

named Andreas Cassard conducted a boys' boarding school in it; afterward took him a few minutes to hitch the it was conducted as a summer hotel. The property at one time and another pared wth its value, and it has been sold and traded for apparent considerations of from $10,000 to $50,000. For twenty years past it has been unoccu

BRIDGES SWEPT AWAY.

Heavy Losses by Floods Along the C. P. R.-Steel Bridges Twisted Out of Line or Carried Away.

Manitoba, June 25 .- Dispatches from Canmore indicate that the Canadian Pacific Railway losses by flood are greater than was at first supposed. During recent years much of the heavy timber which covered the sides of the mountains has been burned off, and when the cloud burst between the gap and Castle mountain the steep slopes of the mountains and foothils became chutes, along which the flood rushed, swelling the rivers and valley into a wide torrent of seething and desolating waters. Under such a mad rush the strongest abutments quivered, fine steel bridges twisted as much as two feet out of line, while some o the smaller bridges and more exposed line of dump were carried away bod-

Quite a stretch of track was swept out near Canmore, and when the same afternoon the bridge at Fifth crossing procity in trade, and the committee working underground were drowned. on foreign relations returned a report. The miners were fortunate to just es-Between Kananaskis and Canmore with Canada. Let the subject be agitated until every barrier is thrown down and the principle of reciprocal trade established."

C. W. Gauthier, of Windsor, was asked to say something on the topic broken up, and the east end of the span is sportively swinging in the span is sportively swinging in the is an enormous task to engineering skill. Traffic was resumed today. At Calgary several of the finest residences have been washed away. Some substitution of gentle vegetable agents

DECORATED THE BRIDAL COACH. Mr. Herbert Failed to Keep His Mar riage to Miss Waterman a of water.

Secret. New York, June 26.—Henry Arthur Herbert a grand nephew of Cryus W. tions; and résolved, that commercial organizations in other cities be requested to take up this subject and use their influence to improve our business relations in this direction."

Herbert a grand nephew of Cryus W. Field, and Miss Mary Grace Waterman, daughter of W. J. Waterman, of 219 West Fourteenth street, were married yesterday in St. Luke's Church, at 110 West Forty-first street by the Rev. Charles S. Harrower, the program of the property was the pastor. Miss Clara Herbert was the maid of honor, and Mr. Dixon Wil-liams was the best man. Mr. Herbert confided to his friends that he had arranged the details of the wedding tour to that no one would suspect that he and his wife were newly married. His friends promptly made up their minds that they would do all they could to A Poughkeepsie, N. Y., dispatch that they would do all they can says: Within a few weeks "Fowler's make his preparations useless."

A reception at Mr. Waterman's folcarriage a variety of placards of generous size were pasted. Among them

> WE ARE JUST MARRIED. TREAT US KINDLY.

There's nothing like it.

a New York Central train from the and insidious foes by going to the root, Grand Central Station. Mr. Herbert and by the twofold process of destroytried to tear some of the ribbon and ing the germs, purifying and strength rocess signs from the carriage before they ening the blood and tissues on which they started, but he could not, and the they feed, thus eliminating and eradiforming a solid wall of concrete. The work was all done under Prof. Fowler's bridal trip to the station gave delight to more people than either he or his BOY HERO WITH WOODEN LEGS.

Raced With Fire Down a Mountain and Saved Human Lives.

Richmond, Va., June 26.—Not far side of thirty minutes. I have taken three bottles and it has done me more Prof. Fowler spent fifteen years of his ago heard that forest fires were sweep This bit of a boy about three weeks good than any medicine or any physician ever did. I can conscientiously recommend it to all sufferers from in a season as much as $20,000; but mountains. One afternoon he climbed recommend it to all sufferers from in a season as much as $20,000; but mountains. One afternoon he climbed heart trouble." Sold by C. McCallum every dollar went to pay debts previously contracted, and it is told of mountain, one of the steepest of the him that frequently a month after his Cumbelands, and took a view of the "I told her I was afraid to kiss her return, which was usually in April, he fire-swept country below him. He was while we were on the tandem for fear we would have but a small part of his surprised to find the fire so fierce, and, we would both fall off." "What did she say?" "She said she hoped I didn't sail. Stronge atomics are still told by wild both fall off." "What did she earnings of the previous winter. Strange stories are still told by the people of the countryside of the doings at Fowler's Folly during the days helpless women, the Ober sisters, and when its owner thrived. Spiritual their blind and crippled brother, who manifestations were of nightly occur- is one of the oldest men over on the rence, and many of the most famous other side. The lad realized that the mediums of the country appeared house was a long way from any other prepared to say that it is the most the remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from Consumption. Sold by all druggists.

Violent exercise should not be taken immediately after eating, since the place. At one time he called a public limbs, Tim started down the rugge blood required for digestion is drawn meeting in Fishkill village and invited hillside on his perilous journey of 100 men to join him in setting out heroism. He had a race with the fir fruit trees on the highways so that the and twice fell from exhaustion an poor could get fruit without being sub-jected to the humiliation of begging it folks. But his indomitable courage never flagged and he kept going. He reached the old homestead just as the prairie fire was attacking the old Prof. | frame crib.

He hurried into the House and in-formed the old and thoroughly frightened people of their danger. It only horse to the sled, and the old man was helped on to this. The four drove on to shelter at the nearest neighbor's, leaving the fire to do its worst. The home of the old people was partly burned during the night, but the boy had gotten some of the neighbors to go and fight the fire, and they were able to save most of the contents of

BE CURED. PROGRESS IN MED-

ICAL SCIENCE. An Entirely New Discovery for Cancer Treatment and Cure Inaugurated by the Abbott Myron Mason Medical Company, of New York-Knife No Longer Necessary -High Commendations From Saved Sufferers and From Physicians -Vegetable Agents Alone Employed

Medical scientists throughout the world are elated at the discovery of the Vitalia Remedies for the Cure of Cancer. The remedies have been proven by innumerable tests. Sir Benjamin Brodie, one of the great English surgeons, not long ago declared that he would "never remov another cancer without telling the patient that the operation would probably not prolong life." Then all the more should this later discovery be hailed with delight, both by medical men and by those who suf-The work of repairing these breaks fer from this dread and heretofore of them were fully 50 feet away from that may be used at home under the river at a point where the banks soothing and curing circumstances the river at a point where the banks crum-were ten feet high. The banks crum-bled away with the tremendous rush heavy expense and distressing sur-roundings contribute in a sad way to the attendant dread and the untold agony engendered by the surgeon's knife. And even then the case proves hopeless-the pain is suffered for naught. A Toronto lady requests the publication of her testimony in order that other sufferers may be benefited by the information of her experience:

My Dear Sir,—Some two years ago I discovered a lump in my breast about the size of an egg; it grew rapidly, and t, were in a short while I discovered two more Luke's under my arm. They caused me a t street great deal of pain and worriment. I consulted specialists, and they all pronounced them malignant cancer, and said they must be cut out at once as they were growing rapidly. I had made up my mind to have them removed, when, on a visit to my friends, I heard of a marvelous cure by the use of your Vitalia Remedies. I went to see the lady at once, and found that she had been cured of a very large open cancer, larger than a dinner plate, involving both breasts and pain and soreness was entirely gone I feel that if Vitalia will cure such malignant blood trouble as mine was, With boundless gratitude for the discoveries of Vitalia, I am, Ever your friend, MRS. ROBERT H. OLIVER. 163 Church street, Toronto, Ont.

THE BOOK THAT TELLS. Nowhere is the progress of science better set forth than in the free boo of the Abbott Myron Mason Medica Company, New York, whose "Vitalia Remedies" now enjoy such world-wid fame, Cancer, tumor and all malignan blood diseases and their scientific cure are thoroughly described. Vitalia Remedies cure these dread cating the entire growth. This company have opened branch offices in Canada. They will give or mail free to anyone interested page book that contains valuable formation about the workings of this onderful cure. Address call. Abbott Myron Mason Medical Com- MERCHANTS' BANK, opp. custom h street. Toronto.

from black specks, hulls, dirt or any foreign substances. Tillson's substances. Tillson's PAN-DRIED ROLLED OATS are free from faults. Even the best oats this year are said to be unusually dirty. So, look for yourself. Pan-Dried Rolled Cats are sold by the pound, you know. The Tillson Co'y, Limited,

PURE ICE

Taken from water approved by the health department. For good wholesome ice give us your order. Our trade mark the "Polar Bear." Orders received at A. J. TARVIS', 197 King street. Telephone 755. A. Stanton, Proprietor, Street.

Tilsonburg, Ont.

Reers in Mouth, Hair-Falling! Write COOK REMEDY CO., 307 Masonic Temple. Chicago, Ill., for proofs of cures. Capi-tal, $560,006. Worst cases cured in 15 to 85 days. 100-page book free.

208, 210, 210½, and 212 Dundas Street.

Will wind up Jubilee week with an array of bargains rarely, if ever seen in a retail store.

Those who have attended these sales (and their name is legion) can testify to the fact that they have always found everything here on Bargain Days exactly as advertised, and we can assure you this Saturday and Monday will be no exception. Here's a miscellaneous list taken at random. Read it right through--you may see something you want:

In Basement.

One crate Printed Cups and Saucers, 3 olors, 70c, regular $1.

Seven pounds Standard Granulated Sugar and one pound of our Imperial Blend Tea Same snaps in Wall Paper as last week

Dress Goods.

(Ground Floor.) Grenadines, 50c, regular 75c. Grenadines, 75c, regular $1. Grenadines, $1, regular $1 39. Grenadines, selling at $1 25, $1 50 and $2, worth one-third more. Black Figured Lustre, selling 25c, worth

Black Figured Lustre, selling 35c, worth Black Figured Lustre, selling 50c, worth

Fine Summer Tweeds, 25c, worth 50c. Fine Summer Tweeds, 50c, worth 75c. Blouse Silks, from 25c to $1. White Bed Spreads, 21 yards wide by 21 yards long, 89c, worth $1 25.

and Handkerchiefs.

Organdie Muslins, 10c, worth 17c. Lappet Muslins, 20c, worth 30c. French Dimities, 20c, worth 35c. Linen and Silk Batistes, 20c, worth 35c.

Parasols selling $1, worth $1 50. Parasols selling $1 50, worth $2 25. Parasols selling $2, worth $3.

Fine Bleached Table Linen, 64-inch, satin finish, 45c, worth 70c. Fine Bleached Table Linen, double Damask, 72-inch, 60c, worth 90c. 72-iuch, Half Bleached Tabling, Belfast goods, 43c worth 60c. Large Table Napkins, 3 size, choice of patterns, 85c, worth $1 10 Large Table Napkins, fine goods and pure linen, $1, worth $1 45. Ceylon Flannels, 10c, worth 15c. Good Shaker Flannels, 41c. 36-inch Gray Shirting, 5c, worth 7c. 36-inch Bleached Cotton, 61c, worth 9c. 72-inch Twilled Sheeting, unbleached,

72-inch Twilled Bleached, Best Hoche-laga, 19c, worth 25c; 81-inch do., 21c, worth 27c. White Spreads, fine, $1, worth $1 40. On Saturday night from 7 to 10 we'll have a Sale of Silk Ribbons, Flowers, Sailor Hats and Jubilee Spoons at less than half price; also specials in Blouses, Gloves, Hoisery 121c, worth 17c.

The Harpers Will Play From 7 to 10 Saturday Night, and You're Invited.

Runians & Butler.

USINESS DIRECTORY

Deady Reference Guide

of London Banks, Wholesale Dealers & Manufacturers

Auction Mart, Storage and Moving. PORTER & CO., 'phone 1,162. MILLER'S ELECTRIC PARCEL EX

PRESS, 223 Dundas, 'phone 836. Artists. J. P. HUNT, 344 Dundas street.

Architects. J. A. GAULD, 180 Dundas. Old Books and Cariosities

JOHN CONNOR, 338 Richmond St. Accountant.

FRANCIS G. JEWELL, 388 Richmond BANK OF TORONTO, 369 Richmond

pany, Department L. A., 238 Yonge | DOMINION SAVINGS AND INVEST-MENT SOCIETY. CANADIAN SAVINGS AND LOAN.

Brass Founders and Finishers. WIN & GELDART, 'phone 525. Blank Book Manufacturers.

REID BROS. & CO., 391 Clarence. Brushes. THOMAS BRYAN, 61 Dundas street Building and Loan Companies. BIRKBECK LOAN CO., 169 Dundas.

PEOPLE'S BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, Molsons Bank Bldg. Bill Posters. BELTON & ROOTE, Opera House.

Books and Stationery. JAS. I. ANDERSON & CO., 183 Dundas Combination Organ.

SCRIBNER ORGAN AND MFG. CO. BURNS & LEWIS, 337 Richmond. R. GREENE MFG. CO., 137 Carling. LONDON PANT AND OVERALL

Coal, Wood and Coke. UNT BROS., 363 Richmond street.

Cigar Manufacturers. KING BOLT CIGAR CO., 'phone 816 Confectionery. JOHN FRIEND, 117 Dundas street

Dyers. STOCKWELL'S, 259 Dundas street. Deering Harvester Co.

F. G. BOWLEY, agent, 101 King St.

Drygoods. R.C.STRUTHERS & CO., Rich & York

ROBINSON, LITTLE & CO., 343 Rich. Engines and Boilers

Fancy Drygoods and Millinery. JOHN C. GREEN, & CO., 122 Ridout. Grocery Broker.

HAROLD LAMBE, J.S.McDougall, agt. Hats and Furs.

FRIED, WRIGHT & CO., Richmond St. FRASER, McMILLAN & CO., Rich St. Hardware. HOBBS HARDWARE CO., 339 Rich. BOWMAN, KENNEDY & CO., York.

Hairdressers F. J. MILLER, 223 Dundas. Iron, Brass and Wire Works. DENNIS WIRE & IRON CO., King. Insurance.

SUN LIFE ASS. CO., A. Macgregor, agt. NORTHERN LIFE, Masonic Temple. GEO. KERR, 353 Richmond street. Lumber Boxes.

LONDON BOX MFG. & LUMBER Monument Manufacturers. LETHBRIDGE BROS., Talbot & Carl.

GEO. BAYLEY, 80 Dundas street. REID BROS., 391 Clarence street. Physicians' Supplies.

Paper Box Manufacturers.

W. E. SAUNDERS & CO., 352 Clarence Pork Packers.

JOHN PARK, Market House.

Plumbing Supplies. W. H. HEARD & CO., 357 Richmond. Stock Brokers. HAMPDEN DAY, Hiscox building.

Shoe Uppers. R. F. LACEY & CO., 398 Clarence St. Sign Writers. WM. C. MORRISON, 90 Dundas.

Tea Importers. MARSHALL BROS. & CO., 67 Dundas. Veterinary Surgeon and Horse Shoer. J. A. TANCOCK, 94 King street. Wholesale Druggists.

JAS. A. KENNEDY & CO., 342 Rich. Wholesale Jewelers. & J. A. STEVENSON, 115 Carling.

Wholesale Grocers A. M. SMITH & CO., 176 York street. ELLIOTT, MARR & CO., 333 Rich.

T. B. ESCOTT, 146 York street. Woolens and Gents' Furnishings. E. LEONARD & SONS, York street. (A. E. PAVEY & CO., 331 Richmond.