THE UNDEFFATED ALERTS.
Yesterday morning and alternoon London's crack ball club, the Alerts, faced one of the best teams in the Province, the Galts, and defeated them in both games. The work of the visitors in the morning was extremely ragged and that of the matters by a brilliant succession of errors in all fifteen. On the contrary the Alerts knocked out hits with great regularity and kept the error column down to a unit. The star feature of the game was a great one-handed eatch by Hynd.

The attendance in the afternoon was splendid and so was the game. The Galts seemed to be a different team and they made the Alerts hastle for victory. Jones was effective and received good support. Sheere went in the box again his work fagain was highly creditable. Ball in left field covered himself with glory, having seven put outs and no errors.
